

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL. Wash Phillips, of Seio, is in the city. W F Read and family are rusticing in the Cascades. Miss Ava Baltimore is in Salem, the guest of Misses Halvorsen. William Stemer, of Allentown, Penn., is in the city, the guest of his cousin, Mrs William Mack, and is greatly pleased with Oregon.

DEATH OF THOMAS ALPHINE.—On Tuesday evening, July 6th, 1891, Mr. Thomas Alphine died at his home at Millers, at the age of 64 years, of consumption, after an illness of several months. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Millers.

Mr Alphine came to Oregon from Indiana, in 1847, and resided on his D. L. C. most of the time afterwards until his death, for while being a resident of Spring Hill. He leaves eight children, five girls and three boys, two sisters, Mrs P H Bowman and Mrs William Hale, one brother, Jack Alphine, other relatives and many friends to mourn his death. Mrs Alphine died on July 2, 1884.

"Tom" Alphine, as he was generally known, was a man of marked characteristics, original, honest, reliable, outspoken; he was well liked as a neighbor, was kind as a father and husband, and had a genial disposition that made him friends. He was one of the earliest pioneers, a great friend of Oregon and its development, and passed through all the hardships peculiar to pioneer days here. He had many reminiscences to tell. Mr Alphine had always been of a hardy, healthy nature until last fall, when the seeds of consumption were sown. Only a few years ago, when nearly sixty, he was a pioneer foot race near this city. A frequent visitor to Albany his face will long be missed by our citizens.

BASE BALL.—A game of base ball has been announced for next Tuesday afternoon between No. 1's and the H & L Co. In view of the fact it will be interesting to learn that at a meeting last evening the following names were presented for membership of No. 1's. Gene Larimore, Bert Magers, P B Marshall, Leimert, Alex Rendie, Bob Huston, and a few others. It is gratifying to see the company growing so fast, by the addition of live, athletic young men.

The Salem base ball club is contemplating a trip east of the mountains to play the Pendleton, Baker City, LaGrande, and Walla Walla clubs. The Democrat predicts they will not win more than one game out of four.

Tomorrow afternoon a game of base ball will be played on the public ground between the College boys, with George Washburne in the box, and "The Hard Hitters," with Lowell Jones in the box. It promises to be a hotly contested game.

CORVALLIS.—Hon J K Weatherford, of Albany, was the orator of the day, and he filled the exalted position in fine shape. The Declaration of Independence was nicely read by Miss Maud Hoffman.

The 15 year old son of F G Clark was severely kicked by one of his father's dray horses this morning while riding by on a bicycle. He was carried to the doctor's office insensible, but his injuries were not serious and he has about recovered. The bicycle was badly broken.

Yesterday the 15 year old son of Mrs Dennick made a small cannon out of a common cartridge, filled it with powder and applied the match. It went off and the cartridge flew up and hit young Dennick in the side, but luckily it hit a rib or the accident might have been more serious. As it was left quite a wound and a physician had to be called.—Times.

A FINE HORSE.—Oregon Eclipse, the Foster colt that was foaled in Corvallis, is making a wonderful record this year on the racing circuit. He has won every race he started in this year, with but one exception, and at Walla Walla tied the half-mile record in 48 seconds. He will run at Portland tomorrow and on Saturday.—Times.

HAVE YOU A WIFE and ten children; have you any children; are you an old bachelor? Whatever you are you can not do better than by buying your groceries, produce and baked goods of Parker Bros. You want to save money and at the same time get good groceries, then call on them. You will get first-class treatment and first-class goods. Their baked goods are made in an experienced manner, and include a large variety of eatables.

If Conn & Hendricson can give you a large and choice stock of groceries, produce, fruits, berries, etc, to select from then their store is one to visit when wishing anything in their line. An examination of their goods will convince any one that there is no better place in the city for trading in their line of goods. Their prices are low, with good reasons for the fact. They invite all to call and see them and learn by experience where the best bargains can be secured, both in prices and quality of goods.

A Salem firm imports organs by the carload, says the Oregon City Courier. These it sells to agents at an advance of $10 per organ, who dispose of them to the farmers at twice the cost of the organs at Salem. An organ costing laid down at Salem, $75 is sold for $150, which is the list retail price of the eastern manufacturers. Tom Yoder, the music teacher, of Needy, engaged in this business long enough to learn in what ways the farmer is robbed.

Prof J B Horner has received the appointment of principal of the Albany public schools and has accepted the position. Prof Horner has been a successful school teacher in Oregon for about twenty years. He is a graduate of the Willamette university. He is a thoroughly competent teacher, enthusiastic in his work, and a "truster," and Albany has done well in rearing his services. He will put life and efficiency into their schools.—Salem Statesman.

"No paper tomorrow," is the heading of most of the exchanges received yesterday. The Astorian, being a newspaper, appears the morning after the Fourth, just the same, to chronicle the events of the preceding twenty-four hours.—Astorian, Sunday. The Astorian, Oregonian, and Statesman were the only papers in Oregon published on Sunday last.—Statesman. That may be something to boast of, but it is rather pleasant to be a "country jake" sheet for one day, and get a little royal, American liberty.
