

German Syrup

The Democrat does not wish to run down other states. It is not necessary. Recently Judge Harman, at Broken Bow, Nebraska, upon a motion to confirm a sale made by foreclosure, remarked: "This docket is covered, page upon page, with confirmation cases. The last summer's drought has exhausted the farmer's resources, and he is unable to pay the interest upon his loans. The act of God, for which the people are not responsible, has reduced one-half of them to almost beggary, and this calamity shall not be made worse by any act of mine. We are asked to turn one hundred farmers over to money lenders, and five hundred women and children over to pauperism. It shall never be done in this district while I am judge. The people are not able to pay and I will not assist in their robbery. Let us wait until a crop can be raised and confidence restored and all will come out all right. If a man is living on his land or living off of it trying to cultivate it he should have the reward of his labor. I will never confirm a sale in times like these, if the owner is trying to make a living on the land. When the people are to ask aid to procure seed it would be cruel mockery to deprive them of land to sow the seed upon. I have a right to refuse to confirm a sale when the property does not bring two-thirds its actual value, and in these cases it has not brought the amount. The sale is not confirmed."

TORTURING ECZEMA

Editor Iowa Plain Dealer Cured of Insufferable Itching and Pain by the Cuticura Remedies.

No Less Than Five Physicians Consulted. Their Combined Wisdom Followed Without Benefit.

I am sixty-six years old. In August, 1892, was troubled with the peculiar skin disease to which people of my age are subject, known among medical men as eczema. Its first appearance was near the ankles. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one raw sore; from legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of the arms, legs and arms greatly swollen with an itching, burning pain, without cessation. Although the best medical advice obtainable was employed, no less than five physicians of the place being consulted and the prescriptions being the result of their combined wisdom, the disease, though apparently checked, would recur in a few days as bad as ever; during its progress my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an experiment I began the use of Cuticura, following the simple and plain instructions given with the Remedies, and in four weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in color, the itching and pain entirely relieved. W. E. MEAD, Editor Iowa Plain Dealer, Cresco, Ia.

"We are six in family. We live in a place where we are subject to violent Colds and Lung Troubles. I have used German Syrup for six years successfully for Sore Throat, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and spitting-up of Blood. I have tried many different kinds of cough Syrups in my time, but let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine--German Syrup is the best. That has been my experience. If you use it once, you will go back to it whenever you need it. It gives total relief and is a quick cure. My advice to everyone suffering with Lung Troubles--Try it. You will soon be convinced. In all the families where your German Syrup is used we have no trouble with the Lungs at all. It is the medicine for this country." John Franklin Jones. G. G. GREEN, Sole Man'fr, Woodbury, N.J.
