THE FARMER'S ALLIANCE.

The State Farmers Alliance organized at Portland this week, adoped the following platform:

WHEREAS, The general condition of our country imperatively demands unity of action on the part of the laboring classes, reformation in economy, and the dissemination of principles best calculated to encourage and foster agricultural and mechanical pursuits, encouraging the toiling masses—leading them in the road to prosperity, and providing a just and fair remuneration for labor, a just exchange for our commodites and the best means of securing to the laboring classes the greatest amount of good; we hold to the principle that all monopolies are dangerous to the best interests of our country, tending to enslave a free people and subvert and finally overthrow the great principles purchased by the fathers of American liberty. We therefore adopt the following as our declaration of principles:

First—To labor for the education of the agricultural classes in the science of economical government, in a strictly nonpartisan spirit, and to bring about a more perfect union of said classes,

Second—That we demand equal rights to all and special favors to none.

Third—To indorse the motto, "In things essential, unity, and in all things charity."

Fourth—To develop a better state mentally, morally, socially and financially.

Fifth—To suppress personal, laws, sectional and national prejudices, all unhealthy rivalry and all selfish ambition.

Sixth—To constantly strive to secure entire harmony and good will to all mankind and brotherly love among ourselves.

Seventh—The brightest jewels which it garners are the tears of the widows and orphans, and its imperative commands are to visit the homes where lacerated hearts are bleeding; to assuage the suffering of a brother or sister; bury the dead, care for the widows and educate the orphans; to exercise charity toward offenders, to construe words and deeds in their most favorable light, granting honesty of purpose and good intentions to others, and to protect the principles of the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union until death, Its laws are reason and equity, its cardinal doctrines inspire purity of thought and life, its intention is, "On earth, peace, and good will to men."

ADDITIONAL RESOLUTIONS.

That the national banks as banks of issue be abolished,

That the government issue a sufficient amount of money to increase the circulating medium to not less the $50 per capita, said money to be full legal tender, all previous contracts notwithstanding.

That the government of the United States nationalize all railways, telegraphs, telephones and other natural monopolies.

That all officers be elected by a direct vote of the people.

That the American saloon is a curse and an evil, and should therefore be abolished.

That the ownership of land be restricted to the citizens of the United States, or those who may have declared their intention to become such, and that the holding of land for speculation purposes be condemned.

That the sub-treasury plan become a law.

That homesteads to the value of $2000 be exempt from execution.

That the government grant loans on approved security to the amount not exceeding $3000, at not more than 2 per cent interest.

That no one industry should be taxed for the purpose or at the expense of build-up another.

That all revenues, state or national, be limited to the actual needs of the government, economically administered.

That a graduated tax on an incomes exceeding the amount of $2500 be levied.

That the coinage of silver be free and unlimited.

That the government issue at once a sufficient amount of treasury full legal tender notes to be paid over to the Union soldiers who by the nontraction of the currency received but a part of their pay, while the bondholders received theirs many times over.

The remarkable memory the Prince of Wales has that enables him to recall little incidents in the careers of comparative strangers who meet him, is the result of assiduous practice. He reads the newspapers with as much attention as an editor does, and stores away in his memory for future use every scrap of information relating to people who are likely to be thrown in his way. He has trained his eye so that on entering a room he sees everybody there at a glance, and possesses a marvelous faculty for recollecting faces.

"Is not the McKinley bill giving the people cheap sugar?" The people under that bill are paying a bonus to the manufacturer of the sugar of two cents per pound, the wheat grower is taxed two cents to give to the sugar grower, but where does the profit come in to the whole people, as the tax must be raised from other industries to carry this. Can a man get rich by taking from one pocket and putting into the other?

GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN,

Attorney at Law. Will practice in all courts of the state. Special attention given to matters in probate and to collections. OFFICE—In the Flinn block.

TO NEWSPAPER BORROWERS

Did you ever pause to reflect that you are a nuisance of the first water? Do you know that the neighbor from whom you borrowed this very paper you are now reading is often greatly inconveinenced by you? He subscribes and pays for the paper for his own individual use and benefit; it is not done for your pleasure, education, or comfort, He may not tell you so to your face, because the class of men who subscribe and pay for a newspaper are good, kind hearted fellows, but they do a good deal of thinking all the same when you ask for their newspaper. Stop borrowing, and you will stop making a nuisance of your self.—Haley News.

Abraham Lincoln, not loag before the bullet of an assassin ended his illustrious career, when the war was practically over, said:

"I see in the near future a crisis arising which unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country. As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until all the wealth is aggregated in a few hands and the republic destroyed. I feel at this time more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of the war. God grant that my fears may prove groundless."

Will the present leaders of the G O P anathematize the honored Lincoln or will they accord him special rights and find a virtue in him that is a loathsome vice in those who make the same prophesies today?.—Marshfield Sun.
