CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

LOCAL RECORD.

SHOWED THEM HOW.—Chas Litchfield, member of Co H, the prize company in the Eugene encampment. He was going through the movements at the encampment, and how they fought the famous sham battle of "Dog Run"—will go down in history and be read by the Fourth Reader by the school children of the generations that will come after them. Charles made a move to get his shot gun up to "carry arms," in some manner it was discharged, and six or seven holes through his gray hat, and powder-burned his right ear quite severely. The noise also affected his hearing in his right ear. All day yesterday Charles could be observed occasionally putting his watch up to his ear to see if its hearing qualities were getting better. It was quite an amusing incident after it was all over—but it was serious fun about the time the gun went off.—Statesman.

MISERY MATTERS.—An important factor in the upbuilding of this section of the state will be the Albany Mining & Milling Co. It is expected that the mill with a capacity of thirty tons a day will be running in the mines in a month or two, and then our citizens will see some golden results. Mr Jas V Pipe, secretary, has just returned and reports matters going along at the Bonanza in good shape.

The Oregonian says the Black Butte cinnabar mine in Lane county, one of the valuable cinnabar mines on the coast, has been bonded for $100,000. The mine is owned by Kimball & Ray, of Oakland, and John Pendergast, Gus Kline and L. Raw, of Portland.

AN EYE OUT.—Last Friday Alex Purdom, formerly of Albany, who has been running his brother's ranch, near Oregon City, had some trouble with a man named Billy Henderson about some straw. Henderson was determined to pick a fight with Alex and followed him up finally attacking him. In the fight that followed Henderson got hold of a bottle, broke it over Alex's head and jammed the broken pieces in his right eye, ruining it, and a Portland doctor took it out. Henderson was arrested and ought to go to the pen. We get the above particulars out of a letter from Jos Purdom to his brother Frank of this city.

THE EVANGELICALS.—One of the Evangelical churches was in session last week at Sweet Home, in this county. Present, J Bowersox, C Poling, D V Poling, F J Strayer, W C Kantner, H L Pratt, T A Yost, E L Bollinger and Prof C A Bowman. The convention organized by electing J Bowersox, president, and D V Poling, secretary. Among the addresses were "Essentials to a Successful Ministry," by Rev Bowersox, and "Amusements for Young Christians," by Rev D V Poling. All agreed that the time for long faced religion is past, though they disagreed on some points.

FREE LECTURE.—Mrs Cheta F Lutz, state organizer and lecturer of the Minnesota Woman Suffrage Association, is making a brief visit in Oregon, and will lecture in this city on Thursday evening next, July 16th, at the W C T U Hall. Mrs Lutz is highly endorsed by both the Minnesota and Dakota press. The Clear Lake Advocate says: "Even those who are not in sympathy with her cause can not fail to admire her eloquence and lady-like manner."

FELL IN THE DITCH.—This forenoon little Ralph Stewart, twenty months old, was being led by a couple little girls, when, on approaching a lateral ditch the little fellow fell in, and but for prompt action by the girls would have drowned. They succeeded in getting him out of the water after a struggle, and before any great harm had been done.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—The Senior editor of the DEMOCRAT, writing from Portland, says: "A man from Eugene says there are a number of sneak thieves making their way towards Albany. They have a keen eye for show goods at fronts of stores, unguarded safes, etc. Look out for them."

HAVE U NOTICED THAT Allen Bros' grocery store is always full of fruits, vegetables, etc., the very latest in the market. If there is anything to be had they have it.

Peaches, Berries, Cabbages, Turnips, New Potatoes.

NEW SPRING GOODS.—I keep a full line of spring and summer dress goods, in wash fabrics, prints, gingham, seersuckers, etc. I have also a new line of summer plaids, besides other novelties in biges and all wool suitings. SAMUEL E YOUNG.

WANTED, at once, for canning purposes, Royal Ann and Black Republican cherries, peach plums, Bartlett pears, black raspberries and blackberries, for which I will pay the highest market price. G W SIMPSON.

Good goods, low prices, and honest treatment. COME ONE, COME ALL.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr Claud Strahan, went to Salem this noon.

W B Scott, of Lane county, is in Albany.

Dr Starr, of Brownsville, was in the city today.

T L Wallace went to Portland this noon on business.

L E Blain and wife returned from the Bay today.

Mrs Dr. Davis returned from Harrisburg this noon.

President J W Johnson, of the state university, is rusticiating at Seaside.

Miss Lulu Burnett, of Corvallis, is in the city, the guest of the Misses McFarland.

Miss Grace Scriber, the well known elocutionist of Salem, left a few days ago for Alaska, on a sight seeing trip.

E L Thompson, wife and child and Miss Nona Irvine, were among the passengers bound for Yaquina Bay this noon.

Henry Sweeney and John Schmeier came down from their Green Basin ranches last evening on a short trip. They report bushels of blackberries.

Hon J H Mitchell passed through Albany this noon. Hon J N Dolph, was not with him as reported, but is in Tacoma.

Dan Morris and his wife came down from Sweet Home Saturday with their child. Mrs Morris left her husband. Morris secured the child and left for the Seio country, thereby causing a commotion and much feeling between Mr and Mrs Morris.

Grand Master Van Dusen, of the grand lodge of Oregon met with the two Albany lodges last evening. The grand master was accompanied by T McF Patton, of Salem, R A Miller, of Jacksonville, F A Moore, of St Helens, and Gus Wilson, of Portland. A banquet was served in the hall for that purpose, under charge of W R Garrett.

Miss Mary Brewster, of Lebanon, who has spent a few months among Albany friends, left for her home today. She has made many friends during her sojourn here a large number of whom expressed their appreciation of her by giving her a genuine surprise, instituted by Mrs Shangle, last evening at the residence of Miss Delia Burkhardt. A nice lunch of ice cream and cake was served. Pleasant games were indulged in and all seemed to enjoy the evening. The many friends of Miss Mary unite in hoping she may return to Albany, where she will now be greatly missed by her circle of friends.

CROOK COUNTY.—L C Perry returned from The Dalles last week. He says the population of The Dalles is now composed principally of insurance agents and wool buyers.

Mrs J Lafollett started to the Willamette valley last Monday. Mrs Lafollett has been in poor health for some time and she goes below for the benefit of the change.

W S Mayberry has been engaged to teach the fall term of school on Willow creek. Mr Mayberry's school at Cross Keys closed Friday, and he will go to Lebanon to spend a few months before beginning his work on Willow creek.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning Miss Toll Summers died at the residence of her brother, Geo Summers, in Prineville, after an illness of three weeks, with typhoid fever. Miss Summers was born in London, England, 21 years ago.

Mr A Lytle, in coming from The Dalles, happened to be coming down the Deschutes grade at the time of the recent waterspout at that place. He says it was appalling. The water came down in torrents and large rocks rolled down into the road from the sides of the canyon, while the water fell so rapidly that it filled his wagon bed damaging his freight to some extent.—Review.

THE PLAY, "Held by the Enemy," which will be given on Thursday evening, the first night of the Keene Company's return visit, is a piece which all Americans should see at least once in their lives, as it is written by an American, is founded on an American subject and is one of the few plays the action of which takes place entirely in America. It is replete with strong military situations and has a predominant comedy element which is said to be delicious. A thrilling imitation of a horse going at a rapid rate of speed creates intense excitement in the 3rd act and gives the production a semblance of reality which, according to the criticism of an exchange, is truly wonderful. Mr Harry F Keene, the manager of the company, is an old soldier, as is also Silas Robinson, the stage manager, both having been in the entire service. The requisite experience therefore for the successful production of a military drama is not lacking, and as both gentlemen are enthusiastic members of the G A R they will doubtless receive a warm reception from their comrades here.

WON A RACE.—One of the attractions at Prineville on the 4th of July was a horse trot. The News says: "The trotting race between Sichel's 'Ben' and Hackleman's 'Blondie,' mile heats, three in five, was ended the first heat, 'Blondie' distancing 'Ben.' Hackleman's horse was driven by Jack Cadle. That made Sichel feel bad, resulting in the following: 'Si Sichel has purchased Mr A Hackleman's trotter, 'Blondie,' the winner of the trotting contest held on the Prineville course on July 4. Mr Hackleman says he still owns horses that can trot. He says 'Blondie' is a good horse, but he owns horses that are fully as good."

MISCELLANEOUS.

An Albany merchant objects to the item in the DEMOCRAT which read "See Matthew 12, 25." He says that is the time he is at dinner. In the matter of a divided city then it may be well to see Matthew 10, 15.

The distance from Albany to Yaquina City, according to the government map in the DEMOCRAT office, is just 45 miles by rail it is 83 miles. Air ships will have a great advantage when they begin running.

Marion must be a very bad county. The Journal says: There is the greatest unfairness about the county court tax rebate business. The rich and powerful appear with counsel and get what they want. The poor devil is kicked out of court when he asks a rebate.

If there is no hell, there ought to be one to roast such heartless wretches as the Spokane physician who left a woman in the agonies of child birth because she could not pay him at once. The woman died of neglect. Are there no tar and feathers in the magic city of Eastern Washington?—Ex.

E J McCaustland, formerly of this city, now City Surveyor of Salem, is showing himself to be the right kind of a man for the important position, and thoroughly competent, as well as fearless. He has just been showing up some of the rotten sewer work there in an outspoken manner.

Elsewhere we publish by request a communication signed "citizens," already published in our contemporary, though it is the opinion of the writer it would be much better if "citizens" would, even though negatively, quietly submit to the action of the City Council and County Court without taking a course that, at this stage, can do no good. As the defeated candidate submits to his defeat gracefully, so should those citizens of Albany dissatisfied with the location of the bridge. Come, gentlemen, let us all unite for the upbuilding of Albany by the construction of a creditable bridge, even though not located to suit all of us. The bridge will undoubtedly be built and the best course is to help the work along.

On the Albany Bridge.

ALBANY, OR., July 13, 1891.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE DEMOCRAT:—Sirs: Recognizing the general principle that the public have the right to say how public moneys shall be expended, we wish to protest against the high-handed and arrogant manner in which certain of our public officers are abusing the high stations to which they have been elected by the popular suffrage.

In the matter of the location and building of a bridge over the Willamette at this city, we will always be found ready to acquiesce in the expressed will of the majority, and so long as every thing is conducted in an honorable and legal manner, we will aid with heart, hand and purse, toward the consummation of our dearest wish, viz: The construction of a handsome and substantial bridge. But we wish here to give notice that we will oppose in every honorable way any action that is not legal, and that does not represent the wishes of the people.

CITIZENS.

A SHARP MAN.—A few days ago Joe Warner, of Nansene, took down to Portland two carloads of cattle and four coyotes. The cattle market was dull and Mr Warner was compelled to sell at a slight loss, but what he lost on the cattle he made up on the coyotes. It appears coyote scalps are worth $5 a head in Multnomah county, so Joe hired a man for $5 to kill the coyotes and take the scalps to the court house where the man got $20 for them and Joe pocketed $15 clear profit. Of course the man was able to swear that the coyotes had been killed in Multnomah county.—Chronicle.

EXCURSION EXTRAORDINARY.—Now's your chance to take a cheap trip to the coast. Train will leave Albany at 7 a m Sunday, July 19, for Newport, arriving there at 11 a m. Returning arrive in Albany 9:30 p m, same evening. Those who wish to remain until Monday may do so by paying 50 cts. additional to agt. O P R Co, at Yaquina on their return. Finest weather of the year, no dust in traveling, ties just right for bathing and without a doubt will be the most pleasant excursion of the season. Fare only $2 for round trip.

One half dollar reduction on every pair of Ludlow's fine shoes. A good line of them at E Young's.

Engage the little wood saw and got your wood properly sawed. Leave your orders at Matthews & Washburn's hardware store, First street. Wm. Nixley.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

In memory of Iva Lee, a member of the Kings Daughters of the M. E. Church.

Bud of promise, precious treasure, Snatched from loving hearts away; Done with toil, and grief, and pleasure, With God's angels now she'll stay. Wanted He this little daughter To sing praises round His throne; From our circle she is missing, For the King has called His own.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father, in His divine wisdom, to remove from our midst Sister Iva Lee, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend our heart felt sympathy to the family so lately bereaved.

Resolved, That in the death of our sister, the Kings Daughters have lost a loving mate.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, and that a copy be placed on the records of the society, also furnished the press for publication.
