Fire at Lebanon.—At 11:30 o'clock last night a fire was discovered in the store of T. O. Peebler's grocery store, probably starting from a flue, as Mr. Peebler had been using a candy stove about 11 o'clock. It spread rapidly, destroying the building and contents, including the harness shop of J. C. Frey, the office of Dr. Duckett. The building was valued at $3000, being insured by S. P. Bach, adjoining, the value of stock at $4000 to $5000, insurance, T. O. Peebler, value of stock, $2000, insurance, $1000; F. M. Miller, $500, including $250 worth of law books; Dr. Duckett, $75; J. C. Frey, $72. Total, $500. Insurance, $4,700. All of the books and other mail in the postoffice were destroyed. Part of Bach's stock was taken out. The insurance was all paid by foreign companies. Although Albany company carries considerable business there, it was fortunate in having no risks in this fire. The fire company is said to have done good work, the Charles hotel only being saved by a work, also the livery stable of J. Westfall & Co.

ALBANY AGENTS ASSOCIATION.—Last Friday twenty-two out of forty-three Oregon Pacific railroad agents met at Astoria and organized an association, the object being the mutual benefit and protection of the members. The association showed their good judgment by electing Albany's efficient and popular W. L. Lester, President; Geo. Ester, Secretary; R. B. Houston, Treasurer; T. C. Kaul, Agent at Astoria; and L. G. Adair, 1st vice president; at Eugene, 2nd vice president. The meeting will be held in Albany on Saturday the 18th.

LAWN SOCIABLE.—Tonight the Y. P. S. of the First Presbyterian church gave a sociable on the elegant lawn of P. Mason, corner of Sixth and Ferry streets. The lawn will be beautifully decorated with China lanterns and other novelties. Excellent music will be furnished by the college orchestra and quartet. An art gallery will form an interesting feature of the evening. Ice and cake can be purchased in abundance. No pains will be spared in making the evening highly enjoyed. Both young and old are cordially invited.

NOT LEASE.—Some time since we published a statement that Mr. Malin, formerly of this city, had leased the Bay House at Newport. Then came the word that it was the Ocean House instead. Now then comes Mr. Case, the proprietor of the Ocean House, and tells us that the fact was that Malin was employed by him a few days to assist him in running the house. Beardsley, formerly of Albany, is now the hotel.

ROWING IN THE SANTIAM.—Sunday morning while swimming in the Santiam river, near the Oregon Pacific bridge, this of Seio, with four other young men, was taken with cramps and drowned before assistance could be rendered. The deceased was twenty-three years of age and came from Astoria, where his parents reside, to Albany, recently.

THE BIGGEST LOAD.—Referring to the load of hay brought to town the other day by S. Ingram, Mr. Stracy, the proprietor of the City Livery and Feed Station, shows us a receipt of a load of hay which he had weighed on the same scales a time ago, which weighed 8300 pounds, weighing 1330 pounds. This is the biggest yet.

FINGER BROKEN.—Yesterday afternoon while practicing in front of the St. Charles hotel, Mr. Ed. Blodgett, a member of the Albany club, was hit with a hotly thrown ball on one of his fingers, causing it to be broken. Dr. Maston set it, and Blodgett is preparing not to play ball any more.

ROYAL PASS, with Mr. Geo. C. Staley, is according to all reports a marvellous performance. Star company have received great wherever they have appeared, and a new to our city, the attraction looked upon as one of the best to visit this season. At the same time on Wednesday, July 29th.

U noticed that Allen Bros' grocery store is always full of fruits, vegetables, etc., the very latest in the market. If there is anything to be had they will get it.

W. F. Read keeps the best assortment of dry goods in town.

Letter List. Following is the list of letters remaining in the post office at Albany, Linn county, Oregon, July 21, 1891. Persons calling for these letters must give the date on which they were advertised.

Spring Goods.—I keep a full line of light and summer dress goods, in washings, prints, ginghams, serenackers, etc. Also a new line of summer plaids, besides other novelties in hosiery and all wool goods. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

Half dollar reduction on every pair of my fine shoes. A good line of them at my store.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. J. T. Tate of Seattle, is in the city. W. E. Baker left this noon on a trip to Astoria.

C. H. Hart went to Portland this noon on business. Mr. George Dodder returned from Yaquina Bay this noon.

E. C. Pentland is again editor of the Independence West Side. L. Samuels, of the West Shore fame, passed through the city today.

Conductor Sam Conser is rusticated at Turner. His leg is greatly improved. Secretary H. W. Young has been attending a Secretarial meeting of the Y. M. C. A. of the Northwest. He is expected home to-night.

Miss Cassie Montgomery returned yesterday from a visit to The Dalles. Remember the lawn social at D. P. Mason's tonight. It promises to be a nice affair. Old and young will be welcome.

Miss I. F. Rogers, of Monmouth, Ill., is in the county the guest of her former neighbor, Mrs. Dr. Irvine. Today they are at Peoria visiting with friends.

Mrs. F. L. Ries, a former resident of Albany, is in the city on her way to Portland, where her husband has just opened a saloon in partnership with Watt Monteth of this city.

R. E. Hibler, of Seio, was in the city yesterday afternoon, watching the base ball game. Mr. Hibler is a member of the Seio club, which will play with Jefferson Friday for $100 a side.

Dr. Maston, who is attending Mr. Peter Carson, injured by a binder accident yesterday, informs us that Mr. Carson is showing improvement, with chances of recovery in his favor.

Among those who went to the Bay today were Mr. L. E. Gray and family, Mrs. Elizabeth Blain, Conductor Huff and wife, Mrs. Henderson, of Oakland, Miss Lulu Martin and Mrs. Etta Vassallo.

George Harris and Pat Farrell and son have returned from Fish Lake, where they caught a large number of fish and mosquitoes. They saw W. F. Read and Dr. Snell and families at Upper Soda. They had put down about 1000 trout, and expected to be home with their booty to-night.

BASE BALL.—Yesterday the Albanians defeated the Jefferson club by a score of 26 to 17. The game began at 3:30 and finished at 6:55, making a long and somewhat tedious game, though several good plays elevated matters. At the beginning Jefferson took the lead, but Albany secured a firework which placed them in front. Larimore fanned 13, not all of which were caught out, and Jefferson 4. The Albany club is somewhat weak in two or three points. It strengthened it will make the best amateur club in the valley, (Salem is professional).

Following was the score: ALBANY. R. O. JEFFERSON. R. O. Marshall, 2 b 5 1 Libby, c 4 2 Leimert, 1 f 4 3 Jones, w p 4 2 Walker, c f 3 2 Miller, s 4 2 Soules, c 0 5 Smith, 1 b & p 3 2 Magers, 3 b 4 3 Jones, 2 b 1 4 Wilson, s 2 2 Marshall, 3 b 2 4 Chamberlain, 1 b 2 4 Russell & Bunnell, 1 f 1 2 Stiles, f 1 3 3 Roland, c f 1 2 Larimore, p 3 3 Sigmond, r f 1 2 20 27 17 27

Umpire, P. B. Marshall. Scorer for Albany, W. H. Warner.

HUNTING AT THE BAY.—They have been having a great time at the Bay hunting deer. The country across the Bay from Yaquina is alive with them. On Tuesday of last week seven were seen on the beach at one time, and Friday morning five. One day the hounds drove one of them into the Bay. George Walker and one or two companions took a boat and tried to capture him; but not knowing the trick of taking him by the tail and drowning him, tried to hit him with the oars and ride over him, which did not work and the deer got on the bank and escaped. Sunday the hounds drove up what was thought to be a deer; but on being followed proved to be a black bear. He was treed; but escaped to the thick bushes, as usual with a bullet that will probably prove fatal.

ATTENTION.—The very latest news is that you can buy of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, for net cash, 15 pounds granulated sugar for $1.00 and 18 pounds Extra C sugar. All goods sold for net cash from 10 to 25 per cent less than regular price, as I intend to run a tight cash store. Albany, Or., July 21, 1891.

Conn & Hendrickson can give you a large and choice stock of groceries, produce, fruits, berries, etc., to select from then their store is one to visit when wishing anything in their line. An examination of their goods will convince any one that there is no better place in the city for trading in their line of goods. Their prices are low, with good reasons for the fact. They invite all to call and see them and learn by experience where the best bargains can be secured, both in prices and quality of goods.

HAVE YOU A WIFE and ten children; have you any children; are you an old bachelor? Whatever you are you can not do better than by buying your groceries, produce and baked goods of Parker Bros. You want to save money and at the same time get good groceries, then call on them. You will get first-class treatment and first-class goods. Their baked goods are made in an experienced manner, and include a large variety of eatables.

MISSIS.

"The Salem Statesman got a new subscriber by telegraph," and The Welcome got several, by thunder!—Welcome.

The Salem's have played nineteen games this year and only lost two, and those only by a scratch.

The finest looking peaches seen in the Albany market are raised in the vicinity of this city, a fact worth considering.

Some betting was done in this place on the ball game in Salem Sunday last. One of the boys now asks other people what time it is.—Silverton Appeal.

An Albany man who made a trade with a Linn county minister for a good horse, was surprised to have sent to him an old plug of horse that could hardly walk alone. The horse traded for had been sold and this one sent in its place.

It cost Minnesota $5,000 last year for wolf bounties. An investigation disclosed the fact that in the northern part of the state wolf farms existed where the wolves were raised for the $5 per head bounty. It paid better than raising wheat.

The professor of mathematics at the Teachers' Institute is requested to solve the problem involved in the recent marriage of an Corvallis septennarian to a miss of sweet seventeen. We suppose by the rule of three the problem will stand—17 : 71 : : 71 : 17. Result nothing. Perhaps the professor can figure it out differently.—Salem Journal.

The same trouble seems to exist in other places as in Albany. The Eugene Guard says: The unwarrantable waste of water by patrons has compelled the Eugene Water Co to issue orders that anyone found violating the regulations will be shut off. It is now the dry season of the year and danger from fire is to be feared. The Water Co runs their pumps from noon till midnight to keep the reservoir full, yet in the afternoon at times it is almost empty.

The Ochoeco Review gives substantially the account of the shooting of Charles Charlton, at Prineville, given by the Democrat. It also says "Dr. Belknap was called and extracted the bullet with little difficulty. Mr. Charlton's wounds, although painful, are not of a serious nature, and it is thought if he meets with no reverse, that he will not be long confined to his bed." Stewart, who did the shooting, was held under $300 bonds, probably furnished.

On a farm near Bellingham, Lac Qui Park county, Minn., says a Minneapolis paper, lives a couple who have been married eighty-one years. The husband, Daniel Salisbury, is 104 years old, and his wife Mary is 102. Both are hale and sprightly, and may live several years yet. According to the census there are nearly 5000 people in the United States who have reached 100 years, but about 75 per cent are negroes, and the age of many of these may be guess work.
