

A man sat on the banks of a stream all day with a fish pole in his hands, looking at the stream. He said he saw no fish, and that it was useless to throw in his line. A boy came along and in a moment a fine trout rose to his line on the rippling water. The boy had not seen the fish, but he knew that if there were any in the creek he could catch them by throwing in his line. The man on the bank saw, but was not convinced, for he belonged to a past age. How many men there are in the world who are just like that man on the bank! They are in business and they say it does not pay to advertise. They cannot see customers at their door and they will not throw out their lines. The man who does advertise like that boy, catches all the fish.

Sore shoulder cured.

Charles A. Stiles, 180 Carroll st., Buffalo N. Y., writes: "I have been a clerk in the Continental Hotel, corner Exchange and Michigan streets, for some years, and first used Allcock's Porous Plaster three years ago for a sore shoulder. I fell down stairs and got a terrible wrench and bruise. For several weeks I suffered acute pain in the shoulder joint and, getting no relief, or only temporary, from numerous liniments, I put on an Allcock's Porous Plaster; kept it on for two or three weeks and my shoulder was well. They also cured me in six weeks of a most obstinate form of dyspepsia."

CURES Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Croup, Sore Throat, Asthma, and every affection of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, including Consumption, Speedy and permanent. Genuine signed "W. D. Stiles."

"August Flower"

How does he feel?—He feels blue, a deep, dark, unfading, dyed-in-the-wool, eternal blue, and he makes everybody feel the same way—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels a headache, generally dull and constant, but sometimes excruciating—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels a violent hiccupping or jumping of the stomach after a meal, raising bitter-tasting matter or what he has eaten or drunk—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels the gradual decay of vital power; he feels miserable, melancholy, hopeless, and longs for death and peace—August Flower the Remedy.

How does he feel?—He feels so full after eating a meal that he can hardly walk—August Flower the Remedy.

TORTURING ECZEMA

Editor Iowa Plain Dealer Cured of Insufferable Itching and Pain by the Cuticura Remedies.

No Less Than Five Physicians Consulted. Their Combined Wisdom Followed Without Benefit.

I am sixty-six years old. In August, 1889, was troubled with the peculiar skin disease to which people of my age are subject, known among medical men as eczema. Its first appearance was near the ankles. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one raw sore; from legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of the arms, the legs and arms greatly swollen with an itching, burning pain, without cessation. Although the best medical advice attainable was employed, no less than five physicians of the place being consulted and the prescriptions being the result of their combined wisdom, the disease, though apparently checked, would recur in a few days as bad as ever; during this process my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an expert, I began the use of Cuticura, following the simple and plain instructions given with the Remedies, and in four weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in color, the itching and pain entirely relieved.
