

Daily Democrat.

WASHINGTON.
(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, July 20, 1891.

The Blaine lions and the Harrison lambs are to henceforth form a united if not happy and contented family, that is, if the instructions of Shepherd Harrison are followed by his flock. The Blaine crowd grew so restive under the many recent misrepresentations of their idol's mental and physical condition that they became suspicious that some of the Harrison crowd was responsible for some of them, and a little investigation proved that their suspicions were only too well founded. Then there was a roar which was heard both at Bar Harbor and Cape May Point, and Mr Harrison straightway sent for Dan Ramsdell, his Marshal of the District of Columbia, and confidential, personal friend, and through him the word was passed to the Harrison lambs that there must be no more false bleating, and so the matter stands just now, but the Blaine lions have their blood stirred up and it need excite no surprise at any time should they make a murderous onslaught upon the Harrison lambs and destroy the entire flock. They would gladly do it if Keeper Blaine would but say the word.

Indian Commissioner Morgan, who has ever since he has been in office made a fight against the Roman Catholics engaged in educating the Indians, has now decided that no more contracts shall be made with the Bureau of Catholic Missions for conducting Indian schools. For years all contracts for Catholic schools on the Indian reservations have been made with this bureau of Missions, the headquarters of which are in this city, and this entire severance of relations is regarded as the direct result of religious bigotry and prejudice, the possession of which show that Mr Morgan is entirely unfitted for the responsible position he holds. What makes the thing seem so very unfair is that contracts are being made, as usual, with other denominations for the conducting of Indian schools. It is not for a moment to be supposed that Mr Morgan made such an important decision without the consent and support of Secretary Noble and Mr Harrison, who are the proper parties to hold responsible for this most remarkable case of religious proscription.

Ex-congressman Kerr, of Pennsylvania, to whom more than any other one man is due the credit for the democratic victory in that state last year, was in town several days ago consulting the officials of the National Association of democratic clubs, and he brought news that warned the cockles of democratic hearts. Mr Kerr is no rainbow chaser as his friends very well know, therefore when he says he thinks that Pennsylvania is now a doubtful state, with the odds decidedly in favor of the democrats it means something. He says that the financial crookedness of the Delamaters and the more recent bank wrecking in Philadelphia, has aroused the people as they were never aroused before against the methods originated by Quay when he was treasurer of the state, and besides this, the new ballot law will be worth at least 40,000 votes to the democratic party, because it will enable it to prevent the republicans voting the dead men who have made up a large part of their majority for years.

In spite of republican attempts to create hard feelings and antagonisms between the candidates for speaker of the next house, the best feeling exists between the gentlemen. Messrs Crisp and McMillin are both stopping at the same hotel, and to see them together no one could suppose that they were in any sense rivals. Mr Millin is also here and all three of them are constantly meeting in the most social manner. It is nonsense pure and simple to say that any man has at this time a certainty of being elected speaker, as more than a majority of the democrats of the next house are still unpledged.

It is stated positively by republicans that Senator Quay will retire from the chairmanship of the republican national committee at the meeting of the executive committee which has been called for the 29th inst., in Philadelphia, but that he will continue to be a member of the committee. His retirement will please a great many republicans.

Representative Crain, of Texas, passed through Washington last week on his way to New York on business. He said he had nothing to say politically until he got through with his business, but that when he returned to Washington, which would be soon, he might have some political opinions to express. He has shaved off his mustache and many of his friends did not at first glance recognize him.

The ex-Confederate Veterans Association of Washington will tomorrow attend the unveiling of a monument to Gen Thos J (Stonewall) Jackson at Lexington, Va. It is believed that something important in a financial way is up in administration circles, as Mr Harrison telegraphed for Secretary Foster to come to Cape May Point just after he had a long conference with Senator Allison, chairman of the senate committee on appropriations.

A letter has just been discovered among the archives of the British museum dated as far back as the year 1759, and which gives the origin of the game of billiards now played. The game, it appears, was invented in 1560 by a pawnbroker by the name of William Kew, in London, who was in the habit of taking down every night the three balls which hung before his shop, and to push them about with his wooden yard measure on his counter. Hence the name billiards, which is a corruption of Bill's yard.

Of the 11,000,000 square miles of Africa, only about 4,500,000 remain which have not been claimed by some European power, and more than half of this area lies within the desert of Sahara.

It gives Julius Gradowl great satisfaction in selling his fine Golden Rule teas and baking powder, with elegant prizes or without them, that his customers who have purchased invariably return and say they are well pleased, that the tea is No. 1 and the baking powder is as good as the best. All his teas and baking powder bear the name of Julius Gradowl's Golden Rule Bazaar, and are expressly put up for his business, and he still continues to give with each pound of tea or baking powder an elegant piece of glassware.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS!
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW.
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.
I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, while kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with his OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.
