In speaking of the political outloos, Campbell said: "The democrats of Ohlo are thoroughly aroused, and we are going to win. The Hamilton county disaffection is fast dying out. Yes, 1 expect ex-president Cleveland will tend a helping hand in Ohio this time. He will be invited to make six speeches. Governor as will also Congressman Jerry Simpson, of Kansas, and Senator Peffer, who was elected to succeed Ingalis. The two former gentlemen will be invited to Ohio by the democrati: party, while the two latter will be brought into the state by the farmers alliance. The latter party is very strong with us now, and they are hand in hand with the democrats. They will nominate no ticket this year."

IT PROTECTS THE RICH

The ill wind of the McKinley tariff has blown good into the pockets of those fore handed fellows who were smart enough to fill their wurchouses with tin plate before July 1. Of course they are now charging for stock on hand about what it would cost to import it today. Thus doth protection protect Ameri can industry .- Boston Transcript (Rep.)

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

An Indiana Earibquake.

EVANSVILL, Ind, July 26,—An earthquake shock was felt here tonight, beginning at 8:28 and lasting several seconds. The motion was apparently from morth to south. Windows ratified and buildings swayed perceptibly. Many people field in fright into the streets, Every open store in the tasiness center was quickly vacated, and the congregations at all the churches rushed into the streets without waiting for the benediction. There were ser-ions panics at several of the churches, and at the First Baptist a number of children (ell down the steps and were hurr, none fatally. Dis-patches from Mount Vernon, Newburg and other southern Indiana and northern Kentucky points, state they experienced stronger earth-quake shocks than those felt here.
