NEWPORT ITEMS.—Among the curiosities at Newport this season are the British...
The city marshal is in trouble. He is unable to be published, prosecuted and then butchered. Ahem!

The young arrived this evening, and another young heart was made happy.
The Metz Base Ball club defeated the Newport boys by a score of 13 to 9.

The steamer Mischief bid farewell to Newport today forever, going to Alaska, where she will be sold.
The U. S. Lighthouse boat Manzanita arrived yesterday with 200 cases of oil, supposed to last the light house a year.

Amusements, bathing and dancing are the order of the day here now.
Clams and rock oysters are recommended for dislocated ankles—3rd base.

FLOUNDER.—
Row AT JUNCTION.—Moore, of the...
The Pilot, made some uncomplicated remarks a few days ago concerning Emmett Butler's wife. Saturday evening they met at the entrance to the...
In that city and Butler knocked Moore down and then kicked him in the...
Moore got up and stepped inside the hotel and drew a revolver but made attempt to use it. Friends interceded and the quarrel ended for the time. Butler went before the city recorder and paid fine. Moore then had him arrested on a charge of assault and he was tried before a justice of the peace, E. O. Potter hearing for the state, and fined $15 and costs. Then Butler had Moore arrested carrying concealed weapons. He was given a preliminary examination and ordered to appear before the grand jury, with bonds fixed at $200. Monday other trial was had on the same matter, but we were unable to learn the result. Moore has sold out to the former proprietor of the Pilot and left the town.—Eugene register.

A BAD CELESTIAL.—Sam Sing went to them yesterday, on the noon train, taking him $40 secured from San Wa's...
A SLENDID TROUP.—"The best in Albany in a long time," is what people remarked on leaving the theater last evening after hearing Geo C Staley and his talented troupe in the Royal Pass. The play is one full of live interest, containing many thrilling scenes, as well as being savored with a rich flow of comedy. Mr Staley is a marvel as a Dutchman, the character he delineates being different from that ordinarily witnessed. His support is all very strong, including the little girl who is as cute and natural as a little girl can be. The troupe is one deserving a packed house anywhere; but of course there are no packed houses now with so many theater goers out of the city. Come again, and everybody will go.

CONFLICT WITH TRAMPS.—Mr Huntly, of the Stai Bakery, has a swollen, disabled hand, the result of an encounter with three tramps Monday. He was riding a pony near the Dunn farm three miles south of Eugene, and on entering a clump of brush was confronted by three men who ordered him to dismount. Mr Huntly got off the pony on the side next to the men, and as they advanced as if to attack him, he knocked each one down as they came within reach. He then mounted the pony and rode on, but looking back when a short distance away, saw one of the men getting up. When he returned with a horse which he went after, nothing was seen of the men, whom he supposed to be tramps. Mr Huntly is getting along in years but is as active as a young man.—Eugene Guard.

THE HARNESS BUSINESS.—O C McFarland desires to inform the public, that he has purchased the Dubrille Harness and Saddlery establishment, and would respectfully invite those wanting goods in this line to give him an opportunity to merit the people's patronage by fair and honorable dealing. She best workmen employed, and work warranted.

Klein Bros have a large and choice stock of boots and shoes for sale at reasonable prices. Do not invest in foot wear until you have seen their stock and the elegant piano at their store.

TRADE AT THE OLD RELIABLE GROCERY STORE of C E BROWNELL. Good goods, low prices, and honest treatment. COME ONE COME ALL.

DO NOT WILT, even if it does get warm. You can get fresh fruits, products and best groceries to be secured at Conn Henderson's. They carry a first class line of goods, and are situated so as to get at the lowest prices. If you are going to the mountains or on a trip let them get you out. They have the variety, and give you the prices.

HAVE U noticed that Allen Bros' grocery store is always full of fruits, vegetables, etc., the very latest in the market. If there is anything to be had they get it. Peaches, Berries, Cabbages, Turnips, New Potatoes.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

E A Schiffer and family, Jay W Blain and Mrs L Vierick and family returned from the Bay to-day.

Mr. Cumming and son, father and brother of Mr J A Cumming, the druggist, arrived in Albany a few days ago, on a visit and to see the country.

Dr Henry Lane, who will retire from the Insane Asylum in a few days, will rusticate for awhile on the Santiam and then go East for a few weeks.

This office acknowledges a call from Mrs Mary Grannon and her beautiful little son Leon, of San Diego, Cal, who are visiting in the city.

Mrs Prof Lee, who was reported dangerously ill last evening, the DEMOCRAT is glad to learn is much better, and is now considered out of danger.

Mayor J A Beard and family, of Lebanon, left to-day for Portland, which they will make their future home. They take with them the best wishes of many Linn county people.

Among those who went to Yaquina Bay to-day were Julius Joseph, B W Cundiff and family, Jack Simley, L E Blain and wife, of Albany, Mrs E C Searls, of Portland, and Jonathan Wasson of Lebanon.

Mr B W Jenkins, formerly of Halsey, Linn county, but now of Lobster, received a stroke of apoplexy while at work near Peoria. He was very low for a while, hardly expected to live, but has now almost recovered.—Corvallis Times.

Hon John Minto returned home yesterday, after a tour of the Santiam country and the section lying east of it. Mr Minto was away thirteen days and traveled over 500 miles.—Statesman.

Chas Stow, advance editorial agent for Sells Bros Enormous United Shows, was in the city to-day. The DEMOCRAT acknowledges a pleasant business call, for particulars of which keep your eye on our columns. Large bill boards are being covered with flaming pictures.

Mr Jacob Norcross, who had a congestive apoplectic stroke a couple of weeks ago, continues to be in a critical condition without much improvement. The report published in the Oregonian that he was dead is unfounded.

HOP FIGURING.—You can figure most anything in this world, particularly on hops when prices are up. Here is some by the Corvallis Times: Wm Beers, of Eddyville, made this office a pleasant call last week. He communicated a few facts about hops and the profits to be made in their production. Among other things he said that he now had four acres in hops; three acres one year old and one acre in the third year. Last year he sold $355 worth of his one acre of two year old vines. He said the cost of hired help in the picking season was about $50. One man can easily cultivate five acres with a little assistance in polling them. The vines of an acre at a good bearing age will yield a ton. Now if we figure at 30 cents a pound, the value of the yield of an acre is $600. It is easy to see from this that on five acres the income is $3000. Now suppose we put the cost of hired help at $500, we then have the neat little sum of $2500 left.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Saakes is a good topic for Pendleton people. The E. O. says: "Zibe Morse can see Charley Carlson's big rattlesnake and go him several better. He claims to have killed at Seven Mile, on McKay creek, a mammoth rattler with twenty-one buttons. This is a pretty tough snake yarn, but Zibe cites an indisputable authority, Bob Adams, for proof. The reptile at the biggest part was as large around as a man's arm."

Mr Charley Pearce, living near here, is in possession of a curious freak of nature, says the Klickitat Leader. It is a horse with a horn. The horn which is about two inches long and as large as a lead pencil, grows from the ear instead of in front of the ear as with cattle. The horn is as hard material as that which composes any other horn and is apparently of the same material.

There was a big bet yesterday that the Seals would make more runs in one inning than Salems did the whole game. And when the Salems had the bases all full Manager Powell, of the league team, was offered $100 by one of the betters to let the two runs in. He refused, of course. He said the game must be a straight one and his men must play for all they were worth. Statesman. A drummer who went down from Albany is said to have won $300 on such a bet.

A new comer at the depot asked the price of a ticket to Eugene. "One dollar and six bits," said the polite agent. The man handed out $1.60. "Fifteen cents more if you please. The fare is $1.75."

"Why in— then don't you talk English," said the disgusted traveler. This is a sample of the way some people take to the word bit, one, by the way, slowly going out of style.

Capt W M Mallet, of Tacoma, tells a fish story that places the biblical tale of Jonah and the whale as among the possibilities. He says that when 15 days out one of the Japanese sailors fell overboard while aloft reefing sail, and was taken into a whale's mouth, and later cast on the deck of the ship nearly dead, but that with careful nursing he came round all right. The captain thinks the big fish tried to swallow the Jap, but could not, and accidentally spat him out on the deck. The sailors look serious while the story is told and all are ready to swear to its truth.

The following extract from a letter written by a Salem woman home after reading the big fake account of a fire there is a good sample of the traditional woman: "That fire you had in Salem came pretty near being the death of me, for I had not read farther than that the Bush block was entirely consumed. I had a nervous chill, was going to start for home right straight. I said 'I must go home,' and then when the reaction took place—well, you know, tears are a woman's only safety-valve. A man would have resorted to profanity under similar circumstances. I wanted to 'lick' somebody, as the little boys say. Salem must be famishing for news when she has to get up such sensational stories as the 'Daring Daylight Robbery' and fires which consume nothing but gas."

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Wednesday evening, July 29th. A special meeting of the Mayor, Recorder, City Surveyor, and Councilmen French, Hawkins, Tabler and Burkhardt were present.

Ordinance Bill No 228 was read three times and passed unanimously. It provides for the sewer system of the city according to specifications on file with the Recorder. The main sewers will be on Maple, Ferry and Madison streets.

The Recorder was instructed to advertise for bids for construction of these sewers to be opened on Aug. 14.

On motion the seat of Councilman Smith, of the Third Ward, was declared vacant, and an election had for a successor. J O Writsman, E W Langdon, J B Coughlin and F E Allen were voted for (the latter being elected unanimously on the sixth ballot.

Adjourned until Aug. 14.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the regular public examination of teachers, for Linn county, will take place in Albany, commencing on Wednesday, August 12th, at 1 o'clock, and continue until Friday noon, August 14th. All teachers must positively be present at the time of commencement, as no one will be admitted to the examination who is not so present. G F RUSSELL, County School Supt

SMITH THINKS there is no such place to get first class groceries, fresh produce and baked goods as at Parker Bros. So do Jones, Brown and many other people. They say they not only get good goods at reasonable prices; but as well splendid treatment. Try Parker Bros and you will become a regular customer, and what Smith thinks you will all think.

NEW SPRING GOODS.—I keep a full line of spring and summer dress goods, in wash fabrics, prints, ginghams, seersuckers, etc. I have also a new line of summer plaids, besides other novelties in biges and all wool writings. SAMUEL E YOUNG.

Whips, robes, nets, etc, etc, at McFarland's.

At the corner of Broadalbin and lat street you will find C E Brownell always the lead in the grocery business.

HOME AND ABROAD.

The First Baptist church of Lebanon has been incorporated with John Grisham, H E Parish and S O Wallace as incorporators.

The Albany Iron Works are rushed with work, fifteen or twenty men being kept busy. Among other things a big grist mill for a Salem firm is being gotten out.

A Halvorsen has filed a claim to the Lee Roy mine, located on July 2nd, in the Santiam district, lying at the head of Dry Gulch. Filed on July 28th.

The DEMOCRAT is informed that Forepaugh's circus will only come as far as Portland, having failed to make satisfactory arrangements with the Southern Pacific. They will return to Salt Lake City.

A piano at Klein Bros Boot and Shoe store. Parker Bros, grocers. S A Hulin, druggist, French's corner. Five groceries at Conn & Henderson's. C W Cobb, job printer, Flinn Block. C W Cobb, job printer, Flinn Block, does first class work.

See that elegant piano at Klein Bros Boot and Shoe store. Go to C W Cobb, successor to Paisley & Smiley, Flinn Block, for your job printing of all kinds.

Fresh vegetables and berries every morning Brownell's. Best assortment of tea in town at C E Brownell's. A fine line of crockery ware at Conn & Henderson's. Drink delicious ice cold soda water at C E Brownell's.

A large assortment of garden seeds on sale at C E Brownell's. Golden opportunities are wasted every day by not trading with C E Brownell. Your school tax will be delinquent if not paid at once. Look after it and save costs of collection.

Do not buy your boots and shoes until you see the piano at Klein Bros, and as well have examined their large stock of goods. For bargains in monuments, headstones, etc., go to E W Achison & Co, Albany, Oregon. Fresh bread, cakes, pies, etc., every day at the Delmonico restaurant. Leave your orders. See W F Read's line of dress goods and silks before buying elsewhere.

Important to Housekeepers.

It gives Julius Gradwohl great satisfaction in selling his fine Golden Rule teas and baking powder, with elegant prizes or without them, that his customers who have purchased invariably return and say they are well pleased, that the tea is No. 1 and the baking powder is as good as the best. All his teas and baking powder bears the name of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, and are expressly put up for his business, and he still continues to give with each pound of tea or baking powder an elegant piece of glassware.

ATTENTION.—The very latest news is that you can buy of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, for net cash, 15 pounds granulated sugar for $1.00 and 18 pounds Extra C. sugar. All goods sold for net cash from 10 to 25 per cent less than regular price, as I intend to run a strict cash store. Albany, Or., July 21, 1891.

A Haunted House. This body of ours has been likened to a tenement. It often has a haunted apartment—the stomach. Seared by the eldritch sprite, dyspepsia, digestion flies and refuses to return. What can break the spell, what can raise the ban laid upon the unhappy organs? We answer unhesitatingly, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and we are warranted in the response by the recorded testimony of myriads, covering a period over a third of a century. A course of the Bitters, begun in any stage of the affliction, and persistently followed, will terminate in cure positive, not partial. The Bitters restores tone to the epigastric nerve, renews and purifies the juices exuding from the cellular tissues that act upon the food digestively, expels bile from the stomach and the blood, and promotes a regular habit of body. Malnutrition, kidney complaint, nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia give way to this medicine.

WANTED, AT ONCE—A girl, either to do general house work, or a younger girl to take care of children. Call at residence of W. H. Lee.
