

WHAT EXPLAINS IT.

The McKinley tariff against competition in tin-plate offers the American tin-plate combine a profit of 80 per cent. over the price of foreign tin delivered in New York harbor.

The Tribune went so far as to say on April 24 that the "American market has been so far filled by American tin-plate as to compel the Welsh trust to shut down."

Two remarkable occurrences were reported yesterday. One was the arrival of the south bound Roseburg express on schedule time. The other was the revocation of a saloon keepers license in Portland for keeping a disorderly house.

Important to Housekeepers.

It gives Julius Gradwohl great satisfaction in selling his fine Golden Rule teas and baking powder, with elegant prizes or without them, that his customers who have purchased invariably return and say they are well pleased, that the tea is No. 1 and the baking powder is as good as the best.

SMITH THINKS there is no such place to get first class groceries, fresh produce and baked goods as at Parker Bros. So do Jones, Brown and many other people.

One half dollar reduction on every pair of Ladlow's fine shoes. A good line of them at R Young's.
