CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

LOCAL RECORD.

PLACE FOR HEALTH.—A writer in Salem Statesman from Waterloo says, among other things: The soda is excellent, clear and sparkling, it bursts like rocks that have withstood the pressure of the grand old Santiam. We are only one-half hour's drive from Sodaville, another country village in a future. During the past year a dirt has existed between the two places, that to the one between Minneapolis and St. Paul, but good-will prevails and in those places, we expect to see the two. We seek to advertise no place—apply write that others may go and do well, for here we have had more pleasure than we have experienced for years, under the sink deep into your tired skin, if you desire a "time" come on here if health here is the place—if rest comes, if you wish the brush will find a golden opportunity for sketching, an old hill in ruins, gigantic boulders, cataracts, mountain scenery, etcetera.

SPRING HILL COAL.—A fine sample of coal from the mine on the farm of Wm Pfeiffer, at Spring Hill, may be seen the Revere House. The coal shows in good form, being as fine a specimen as yet exhibited here. Men are working day and night developing the mine, and if it continues to bring forth coal as the sample shown, which probably is improved, it means a thing for the owner. The coal is situated for transportation, the mine only two or three blocks from the lamette, the coal in fact going to the river. As the adjoining property is also interested in the coal, as it undoubtedly will be found generally around Spring Hill, there should be a united effort to bring this very important industry into prominence. Albany capital will come to the front for there is coal.

LAGER CO. ON WHEELS.—A car representing the cereal and mineral products of Placer county, Calif., will arrive Friday noon and be on exhibition at Ferry landing until Saturday noon. Entertainment will be given Thursday and Friday evenings from 8 to 10 o'clock, which all are admitted free. A fine reception is used in the entertainment.

TO PORTLAND.—Mr R F Ashby, of this city, has consented to distribute free, in Portland, all the immigration matter finished him. This is a good opportunity for Albany to let new comers know about the gem city of the valley and surrounding country, as Mr Ashby is a ruder and is well situated for doing good work in that line.

TAXES.—Have you paid your city taxes, all, you'd better attend to them at once, as the tax collector informs the Democrat they are about delinquent and will be paid. The money is wanted, as taxes are also overdue, and a man is secured to kill all of the animals whom the taxes are not paid according to law.

DROWNED NEAR SWEET HOME.—Reuben West, a young man nineteen years of age, son of Rev Yost, of Sweet Home, was drowned in the Santiam river while bathing on Sunday afternoon. Particulars were not secured. Miss Maggie West, a sister, who was in Salem, was at for and returned home yesterday afternoon.

"A friend," in the Eugene Guard, publishes the following death notice, heretofore mentioned in the Democrat: Died, Creswell, August 3, 1891, Mrs. B. B. Ott, aged 55 years, 7 months and 13 days. Traumatic erysipelas set in from a slight wound on the bottom of the foot, caused by a silver. He sickness lasted six weeks. She suffered but little pain at last passed peacefully away to God, whom she has served for many years. Her life has been to us a bright example of devotion to God; and she assured us that some of the happiest part of life was spent just at the end.

DELINQUENT TAX NOTICE.—School taxes now delinquent. The clerk is making a delinquent list which will be in the hands of the sheriff as soon as completed. Those who have not paid, had better do so before costs of collection are added. Last day.

DO NOT WAIT, even if it does get warm. You can get fresh fruits, products and best groceries to be secured at Conn Henderson's. They carry a first class lot of goods, and are situated so as to be at the lowest prices. If you are going to the mountains or on a trip let them give you. They have the variety, and give you the prices.

REMOVED.—P J LaPorte, the shoemaker, has removed his shop from near Erick's barber shop to the building opposite the Russ house, next door Brown's barber shop. He invites all old customers, and new ones as well, call, as he is prepared to do work in his line in first class order.

HAVE YOU noticed that Allen Bros' grocery store is always full of fruits, vegetables, etc., it's very latest in the market. If there is anything to be had they will get it.

Berries, Cabbages, Turnips, New Potatoes. Spring Goods.—A large full line of summer dresses goods, in wash, silk, pique, new hams, vegetables, etc. also a new line of summer goods, and other specialties in dress and all wool. S. M. E. TORRES.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Hon George Waggoner is doing Albany today. H H Shorey, Jr., of Portland, is in the city. J E McCoy, the well-known contractor, of Salem, is in the city. Frank Wood, Jr., and family have returned from a trip to the Sodas. Mr. and Mrs B F Tabler left this noon for San Francisco by way of Aquina. Sam Griffith, A J Young, L L Collier and F E Rogers, of McMinnville, are in Albany today. Mr Eugene Smith, of Breitenbush, where he owns a claim and locates new comers, was in the city today getting supplies. Geo W Davis was sworn in as clerk of the school land commissioners. He has a nice residence in Salem and will make that city his home. Mr and Mrs J M Ralston, Miss Canlis Conn, Mrs F P Nutting, children and a number of others were on the Lebanon train this afternoon on their way to Soda-ville. It is reported that if the employees of the Oregon Pacific are not paid by tomorrow night they will quit work in a body. Wm M Hoag is said to be in San Francisco, where he is reported to be ill. Among those who went to the Bay today were D P Mason, wife, Miss Flora and Rockie Mason, Judge Flinn, of Albany, Frank Parton, of Waitsburg, and Mrs Rev Harris and daughter, of Salem. The latter will occupy Mrs Cook's cottage, on Nye creek.

Change of Time Table.

CORTALLIS, Oregon, July 31, 1891. P.M. DEMOCRAT: Commencing with August 5th, the Oregon Pacific trains, east of Albany, will run on the following time: No 1 leaves Albany, going east, at 12:40 p.m.; arriving at Halstead at 3 p.m. No 2 leaves Halstead at 7 a.m.; arriving at Albany at 9:40 a.m. On Wednesday and Saturday of each week this train will run through to Coe, arriving there at 4:05 p.m., and leaving there at 4:10 p.m.; arriving at Halstead at 3 p.m., where it will lie over night, leaving for Albany at 7 o'clock next morning. This is an advantageous arrangement for nearly every one who desires to reach this section of the country, starting from north, south or west of Albany, as they are not compelled to lie over one day at Albany. It also enables parties living on the line east of Albany to come there and transact banking or other business, and return home the same day. C. C. HOGUE, G. F. & P. A.

To the Farmers of Linn County.

Your attention is called to the fact that on September 1st the Oregon board of emigration will send a car through all the eastern states to advise the Oregon. This car will be loaded with the best samples of grasses, grasses, vegetables, etc., that can be obtained throughout the different counties in the state, and Linn county has secured a certain space in this car which we wish to fill with the very best samples of grain and grasses, both in the sheaf, and threshed, so as to be put up in jars. The samples in the sheaf should be selected from the very best grain you have, and we wish to have the straw full length of growth if possible. All fruits should be carefully gathered and not bruised. We would ask the farmers to lead us a helping hand in this matter, and if you have any fruits, grains, or grasses that would make nice samples, we would like you to bring them in as soon as possible, or let us know where they can be had and we will come after them. All samples should be brought to Backlund & Keeney's real estate office, or word left there when they will be attended to at once.

DO YOU EVER SEE IT?—We mean Cram's Unrivaled Atlas of the World. It has over 200 pages every one of which is crammed full of valuable information. It has maps of all the states and territories, continents, foreign countries, and all leading cities. It treats of discoveries, history, bird's eye view of the Holy Land, products, wealth and debts of the U. S., flags of all nations, religious denominations, all manner of statistics, length of rivers, heights of mountains, and numerous other features. Those wishing to purchase will address the agent Mrs A U Tait Albany Oregon P. O. box 69.

SMITH THINKS there is no such place to get first class groceries, fresh produce and baked goods as at Parker Bros. So do Jones, Brown and many other people. They say they not only get good goods at reasonable prices; but as well splendid treatment. Try Parker Bros and you will become a regular customer, and what Smith thinks you will all think.

ATTENTION.—The very latest news is that you can buy of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, for net cash, 15 pounds cranulated sugar for $1.00 and 18 pounds Extra C sugar. All goods sold for net cash from 10 to 25 per cent less than regular prices, as I intend to run a strict cash store. Albany, Or., July 21, 1891.

NEWS.

Pay your school, city and dog taxes, and begin saving money for the circus and county taxes. The Salem Journal says, "the game Sunday could hardly be called baseball." That is one of their after doses. It was baseball plentifully beforehand. Sheriff Scott received a couple of patches last evening from Laurnburg, N C requesting him to hold McDougall, as a requisition had been sent and an officer would be here after him as soon as possible. A suburban farmer complains that Albany draymen leave old rubbish, barrels, tin cans, etc., along the sides of the roads leading into the country, causing teams to be frightened, and not adding much to the beauty of the landscape, only a few days ago a team running away from such cause. He wanted some one stirred up. Two small boys yesterday got into a pugilistic encounter and, as a result, one of them was ornamented with a black eye. But, when twitted about it, his answer was: "I know I am somewhat disfigured, but you should see the other boy. His face is in a terrible shape, and I did it."—The Dalles T. M.

E J Crow killed an immense rattlesnake on his place near Spencer Butte Thursday.

The snake measured 3 feet 9 1/2 inches and its body was the size of a man's arm. It made a determined fight and compelled Mr Crow to run at one time. It had bit a calf on the shoulder the previous evening but the life of the animal was saved by turning it to the cow.—Eugene Guard.

The Eugene Guard speaking of the car passing through the valley, calls it an advertising fake, and says: "The car called 'Placer on Wheels' is here, having arrived Sunday morning. The exhibit is nothing to brag on. It seems to be devoted principally to advertising wholesale houses in San Francisco and Sacramento. Twenty four men accompany the car, who are employed to paint signs on warehouses, barns, etc., distribute circulars and give away samples of goods. We are informed that the car will go no further east than Montana, the extreme limit of the territory of said wholesale houses." The DEMOCRAT will see and judge for itself, but gives the above, as it is always its policy to give all sides of important matters if possible.

JOHN LONG'S EXPERIENCES.

The following from Sunday's Oregonian, dated at Los Angeles, Calif., is decidedly of a sensational nature, and as the principal character is an old Linn county man, we give it in full: John Long has skipped out to avoid paying $200 in money and fees ordered by the court in the divorce case of his wife, Emma. Judge Smith has issued a order for his arrest, but he is probably by this time safe in Mexico. This is the second divorce case in which Long has figured, his first wife, by whom he has six children, having obtained divorce and $2000 worth of property several years ago on the ground of adultery. She died in 1887, and in July, 1890, Long, who was then living in Linn county, Oregon, remarried a dashing and remarkably handsome widow, Emma A Parker. Long purchased a fine farm near Albany, and he and his wife lived on it comfortably until last August, when he suggested that they sell out and travel. She agreed, and they took a trip to Albany on business. At that time Long was comparatively a wealthy man. In September last he handed a railroad ticket to Portland to his wife and giving her $9 for expenses en route, told her to go to that place, and after hiring nice rooms to let him know where she was, so that as soon as his business was settled up he could follow her, and after staying there a few days they would make a trip to Southern California. Mrs Long obediently followed out her husband's instructions, but obtained no reply from him to her letter, and being thrown upon her own resources, maintained herself by dress-making for several weeks, until she received a letter from his daughter stating that a package was awaiting her orders at Albany. This was sent her and she found that it consisted of a lemon box into which her entire wardrobe, which had been packed in Long's trunk, had been dumped and left by Long. Long disposed of two notes and a mortgage, and converting everything he had into cash left for San Francisco with about $16,000. From there he went to Portland, but purposely avoided his wife, although she remained there supporting herself until December last, when she returned to her relatives in Burke, Idaho. While Long was in Portland he became enamored of Lulu Dumont, a dive waitress, at a variety theater there, and in January last brought her here, establishing her as landlady of the Winona lodging house on Temple street. In February, however, the Dumont woman had him arrested for threatening to kill her, and Long then brought suit against her to recover $3000, which he claimed to have advanced to her. While this trouble was pending Long telegraphed his wife, asking her to come to Los Angeles and live with him again, but she declined unless he could satisfactorily explain his conduct in leaving her destitute and sick in Portland. He promised to do so but subsequently wrote and told her that he was thinking of going to Mexico, and suggested that she had better get a divorce. Acting on this suggestion she came to Los Angeles, and suit was commenced the 22d inst.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Weather today—light rains and medium temperature. Just received at the Ladies Bazaar the "Sensation," the latest novelty in hats. The "Twelve Temptation," a bold headed show, is being given in Portland. Chas D Ulmer, recently editor of the Newport Times, is now at the head of the Port Angeles, Wash, Tribune. The Willamette Valley crossed the bay yesterday morning at 8:30 at only five feet above low tide, a good showing. "Lost in London" by Newton Beers and his talented company Saturday night will be a theatrical treat our citizens should not miss. Fred W Humber has accepted a permanent position with L Wallace & Co., an experienced clock maker the firm is fortunate in securing. Yesterday was the day on which the Oregon Pacific was to pay up for two months; but we are informed the time has been extended until tomorrow evening. A dispatch received yesterday by T M Munkers, of Munkers, announced the shooting of A B Christian at Silver City, Idaho, of which city he was a police officer.

A singular fact has been noted at Mikeela which some scientist might find pleasure in explaining says the E O. Mr DuLey has excavated a ditch leading from a spring to the Union Pacific well in order to increase the water supply. The ditch flows considerable water during the day, commencing at about 8 a.m., but the water disappears at noon, and not a single drop is in the ditch during the night. If it ran dry during the day time evaporation might furnish an explanation, but the Union Pacific boys are at a loss to account for the water's disappearance at night. Caleb Jones, who cuts wood on land about Salem, kicked up a lively row in Chung Hi's Liberty street establishment Friday night. All the Chinamen in the block were calling for help as Caleb, who is considerable of a pugilist, laid the mongrels out to right and left. The Chinaman who stays there got a divorce the eve and her beauty is damaged forever. Half dozen Chinamen are so disastrously decorated that only a miracle could restore their former resemblance.—Salem Journal.
