CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

LOCAL RECORD.

REASONS FOR ONE.—The Eugene later speaks of a divorce suit pending that city as follows: "Papers were with the county clerk last week when Amanda M. Wait seeks to recover her husband, J. H. Wait. The suit alleges that they were married in England May 14, 1889. That since on or at January 1, 1891, defendant has been an inmate of the asylum and has been insane and abused her name."

WILL NOT STRIKE.—A meeting of employees of the O. P. was held last evening at Yaquina City, when it was decided not to strike, but to place their claims in the hands of Attorney General Geo. E. Chalmers for collection, who will use every effort possible to get their money for them. In this way they will get their money as quick as if they made a strike, if quicker, and at the same time retain their positions. The employees of the road peculiarly men of good character and judgment, and they do not propose anything that is not for the best interests of everybody concerned, as well as community at large. Our merchants will stand in with them.

THREE YOUNG MEN.—Last evening three young men, two under twenty-one, were well seasoned with small or big game, visited a Chinese house on Second street, resulting in a row. The Celestials a police whistle, and claimed one of them had drawn a revolver on them. The young men disappeared; but afterwards reeled among themselves, and one kicked another in the face. The sons of respectable people they should be in their business.

DROWNED AT ILWACO.—Miss Nellie, a daughter of Judge Boise, of Salem, William Steele, a son of postmaster of Portland, were drowned in the Pacific ocean at Ilwaco yesterday noon. They were out too far they were caught by undertow. Several others came near meeting a like fate. The bodies were run out into the ocean and were not recovered. Miss Boise was 25 years of age. An accident shows the foolishness of hazardous surf bathing.

WHO KNOWS HIM.—J. A. Culbertson, living from Iola, Kan., says: "I had a rather named C. S. Culbertson, in some company, in your city, who worked a laborer, and was about 21 years old. You give me any information as to who he is. Our mail has been coming back to you for six months." Any one knowing anything about such a young man will refer a favor by notifying Mr. Culbertson.

LEAK'S ADVERTISING CAR is in the city today. Advertising is a good word, why not. Over twenty men plastered town for wholesale houses doing business in the Northwest. The exhibits of their products are not very extensive, but are creditable enough. The whole exhibit is not such as one would expect from big San Francisco houses.

PROBATIONERS.—Three traveling musicians did Albany today. One of them did a combination very ingenious in their act. It consisted of a bagpipe, bass drum, snare drum, cymbals and triangle, which he manipulated all at one time. The other two played some kind of a string instrument.

SMITH THINKS there is no such place as first class groceries, fresh produce and baked goods as at Parker Bros. So do some, Brown and many other people. They say they not only get good goods at reasonable prices; but as well splendid treatment. Try Parker Bros. and you will come a regular customer, and what Smith thinks you will all think.

TAXES.—Have you paid your city taxes. Well, you'd better attend to them at once, as the tax collector informs the Democrat they are about delinquent and will be paid. The money is wanted, and taxes are also overdue, and a man is being secured to kill all of the animals whom the taxes are not paid according to law.

WALL PAPER, ETC.—I have just received new line of wall paper and decorations, are more than doubled my facilities for handling them, and will keep a much larger stock. Wall paper and border to match. Beauties, and much cheaper than ever before. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

DELINQUENT TAX NOTICE.—School taxes now delinquent. The clerk is making at the delinquent list which will be in the hands of the sheriff as soon as completed. Those who have not paid, had better do so before costs of collection are added. East side.

C. W. Cobb, job printer, Flinn Block.

HAVE YOU noticed that Allen Bros' grocery store is always full of fruits, vegetables, etc., the very latest in the market. If there is anything to be had they will have it.

Pat. Berries, Cabbages, Turnips, New Potatoes.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Governor Penoyer is at Coos bay. Ed Goin, of Seia, was in the city today. Hon. Binger Hermann has been visiting the Stulaw.

Geo Hill, the Union Pacific man, was in the city today.

Hon. T. H. Ford, of Salem, returned home today, taking one of the front cars, in order not to get left.

Mr. John Robson and family left this noon for the east on a visit to Mr. Robson's former home and other places.

Hon. Jeff Myers was in the city today, for the first time since his eastern trip. Mr. Myers had his eyes and ears open while gone.

Adam Appell, of Portland, is in the city. As Mr. Appell probably gets more puns than desired on his name the DEMOCRAT has none to offer.

News was received yesterday of the death of Dr. J. N. Norris, a brother of Mrs. W. S. Miller and Mrs. Rebecca Young, at his home in Birmingham, Iowa.

Assessor H. S. Williams was in the city yesterday. He has just completed the field work, and will begin on the roll as soon as the books are received from the secretary of state.

Dr. I. N. Woodie left this noon for the east to be gone two months. The doctor has a patent tongue adjustment that is proving a fine thing, and will probably dispose of the right to eastern manufacturers.

(D. R. N. Blackburn, Judge; R. W. Cooper and Wm. Burnbaugh, Commissioners.) C. D. Montague, and Kitts family, $10 disallowed.

Assessor allowed one month further time to complete assessment roll.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes O. P. Coshaw, G. C. Cooley, B. Moss, etc.

THE BUSINESS of the S. P. R. Co. at this place, for the month of June amounted to over $9000, an increase of over $2000 over the corresponding month last year.

The plant for the ice works has arrived. The old brewery building on Ninth street is being remodeled and an addition is being built on the back end. Everything will be ready for the manufacture of ice in about thirty days.

There are four prisoners in the county jail, and they tried to make their escape Sunday night by picking the lock with a fine steel wire. They were evidently assisted by parties on the outside. Their game was discovered by Deputy Sheriff Croner and they have been kept in the cell a few days.

A case was tried before Justice Kinsey this morning, wherein the Marsh Manufacturing Co. of Chicago, sued E. Schwarzschild to recover $50 for goods furnished. It appeared that the goods had been carelessly packed and were badly broken, and Mr. S. refused to accept them. Justice Kinsey gave a verdict to the defendant—Register.

LOST IN LONDON.—The Minneapolis Tribune recently said: "A large audience last night at the Pence was immensely pleased with Newton Beers' company and his spectacular production of 'Lost in London.' The scenery is new and exact, the stage being nicely set and the illusion well maintained. The company is a good one, Newton Beers seeming to be Job Armrod in reality, which is clever acting, for Mr. Beers is a young man and his personal identity is thoroughly such; Miss Jessie Lee Randolph, a favorite in this city, met with a cordial reception and her artistic methods show considerable improvement. Miss Kate Beverly presents a true picture of an eccentric English old maid and drew out considerable laughter. A. C. Mercer is a good heavy actor and his Gilbert Featherstone is well done. The comedy scenes are funny and the entire performance most entertaining." All the grand scenic effects carried by this company will be positively shown at the Opera House Saturday night.

REMOVED.—P. J. LaPorte, the shoemaker, has removed his shop from near Vierick's barber shop to the building just opposite the Russ house, next door to Brown's barber shop. He invites all his old customers, and new ones as well, to call, as he is prepared to do work in his line in first class order.

Whips, robes, nets, etc., etc., at McFarland's.

"Lost in London" by Newton Beers and his talented company Saturday night will be a theatrical treat our citizens should not miss.

One half dollar reduction on every pair of Ludlow's fine shoes. A good line of them at S. E. Young's.

MARRIED.

STARR-GOLTRA.—At Portland, at the residence of John Goltra, brother of the bride, Wednesday, Aug. 5, 1901, Benson Starr, of Olympia, and Laura L. Goltra, of Albany.

The future home of the young couple will be made at Olympia, to which place they went. Mr. Starr is in the stationary business.

MINUTES.

The Eugene Guard has discontinued its associated press dispatches, business not justifying it. The Statesman and Journal are now the only papers in the city getting these dispatches, something that takes lots of filthy lucre.

The following appears in the Portland council proceedings: P. H. Raymond gave notification that the new Vancouver boulevard in Albina would not benefit his property and he did not propose to allow the city to cut ten feet off his front yard unless the court decide so.

The Oregon Pacific has done a good deal for this part of Oregon, and the public appreciates it, but the road must do the square thing with its employees or it can never have the good will of the people of the Willamette Valley, whose sympathies are universally with the men who have earned their money and not been paid.

A passenger going through Albany a day or two ago, knowing he had twenty minutes to spend, took a stroll down town, getting back five or ten minutes late, and wondering why the train had left. There are people in this world, fully grown, who should not be allowed to travel without a guardian.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Pay your city taxes. Trains now run to the front under the new time table.

Just received at the Ladies Bazaar the "Sensation," the latest novelty in hats.

One of the handsomest residences built in Albany this season is that of Mrs. V. B. Winn.

Mr. Watt Monteth has sold his saloon in this city to Mr. Harper Croner. Mr. Monteth will make Portland his home.

Col. J. C. Shofner, of Portland, has been appointed Brigadier General of the N. G. of Oregon, succeeding General Siglin, resigned.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.

Shortly after midnight it rained in a lively manner for a few moments, and since then the weather has been characterized by heavy clouds with an occasional sprinkle. The temperature remains between 60 and 70.

The successful firm of Crisman & Osburn has dissolved, Mr. E. E. Osburn becoming sole owner, while Mr. Crisman retires. The business will be kept up as in the past.—Salem Journal.

Our contemporary names H. H. Hewitt for the district judgeship of the third district. Judge Boise is a candidate for the position again, and Geo. H. Barnett, of Salem, also would like the position, one worth striving for.

VanCleave & Zyys is the name of a new lost black firm. They will run two stands, one opposite the Revere House and the other near the corner of First and Broadbald streets. You can depend on them for a good shine.

C. W. Cobb, successor of Paisley & Smiley, is sending out work to all parts of the valley. He has first-class facilities and is displaying the advantages of them. Parties desiring work in the job printing line should first call on Mr. Cobb before ordering.

A piano at Klein Bros. Boot and Shoe store. Parker Bros. grocers.

S. A. Hulin, druggist, French's corner. Fine groceries at Conn & Hendricson's. C. W. Cobb, job printer, Flinn Block, does first class work.

See that elegant piano at Klein Bros. Boot and Shoe store. A fine line of crockery ware at Conn & Hendricson's.

Drinks delicious cold soda water at C. E. Brownell's.

For bargains in monuments, headstones, etc., go to E. W. Achison & Co., Albany, Oregon. Fresh bread, cakes, pies, etc., every day at the Delmonico restaurant. Leave your orders.

See W. F. Read's line of dress goods and silks before buying elsewhere.

NEW SPRING GOODS.—I keep a full line of spring and summer dress goods, in wash fabrics, prints, gingham, seersuckers, etc. I have also a new line of summer plaids, besides other novelties in biges and all wool writings. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

All goods sold for net cash from 10 to 25 percent less than regular prices, as I intend to run a set list cash store. Albany, Or., July 21, 1891.

A new line of window shades from 50 cents to $1.50 each complete, at Samuel E. Young's.

IN MEMORIAM.

James Franklin Hail was born in Missouri January 27th, 1862, and died June 26th, 1891, at Albany, Oregon.

How slender is Life's silver cord; How soon 'tis broken here; Each moment brings a parting word, And many a falling tear.

And though these years to mortals given, Are filled with grief and pain, There is a hope, the hope of Heaven, Where loved ones meet again.

There is no Death. What seems so is transition; This life of mortal breath Is but a suburb of the life Elysian, Whose portals we call death.

Our respected and beloved Brother Hail has been taken by death from the Militant membership of the Epworth League.

Brother Hail was a man highly esteemed by all who knew him, and one who lived his daily life in accordance with an exalted conception of the teachings of Christ, in whom he sincerely believed.

The church is sorrowfully bereaved by the untimely decease of a devoted and intelligently zealous disciple, whom while yet in the full vigor of young manhood, death has so suddenly claimed.

We extend our sympathy and condolence to the relatives of our departed brother.

By the committee of the Epworth League, of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of Albany, Oregon.

A Necessity.

The consumption of tea largely increases every year in England, Russia, and the principal European tea-drinking countries. But it does not grow in America. And not alone that, but thousands of Europeans who leave Europe upon arriving in the United States gradually discontinue its use, and finally, cease it altogether.

This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless teas. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated tea-drinkers of Europe, the finer teas find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our taste for tea does not appreciate?

In view of these facts, is there not an immediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be uncolored, unmanipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in every respect. It has, therefore, more inherent strength than the cheap teas you have been drinking, fully one third less being required for an infusion. This you will discover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor is delightful, being the natural flavor of an unadulterated article. It is a revelation to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark:
