

Daily Democrat.

A HOG CASE.—Our citizens last Monday had the opportunity of seeing the efficacy of law as it is frequently administered in our courts, in the case of Hawk vs Morris. It seems that the former gentleman owned some swine that were determined to live in Morris' grain field, but he objected and locked the hogs up. Mr Hawk wanted his swine, but as no settlement could be effected, it was decided to let our courts determine what should be done, hence the suit Monday. The attorneys employed were from among the best this portion of the valley affords, J R Wyatt, of Albany, being retained by Mr Morris, and L Blyeu, of Eugene, for Mr Hawk. Both were determined to win, and from 1 o'clock until late in the evening Justice L Douglas and the jury were bored with testimony, some bearing on the case and other bearing on nothing at all. But the jury failed to agree and were discharged. The following morning the principals in the case effected a compromise, but not before they had each spent more money than the hogs were worth.—Harrisburg Courier.

"August Flower"

What is it For? This is the query perpetually on your little boy's lips. And he is no worse than the bigger, older, balder-headed boys. Life is an interrogation point. "What is it for?" we continually cry from the cradle to the grave. So with this little introductory sermon we turn and ask: "What is AUGUST FLOWER FOR?" As easily answered as asked: It is for Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver. Nothing more than this; but this brimful. We believe August Flower cures Dyspepsia. We know it will. We have reasons for knowing it. Twenty years ago it started in a small country town. To-day it has an honored place in every city and country store, possesses one of the largest manufacturing plants in the country and sells everywhere. Why is this? The reason is as simple as a child's thought. It is honest, does one thing, and does it right along—it cures Dyspepsia.
