CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

LOCAL RECORD.

VERY MUCH TROUBLED.—The Salem Journal is so much interested in the appointment of the ex-cashier of the Linn County Bank, of this city, as Attorney-General of Oregon, that the editor has written to the Comptroller of Currency at Washington to learn if it is a fact. As the Democrat has already stated Mr. Chamberlain had no connection with the bank at the time of appointment regardless of tape requirements that may have been omitted. Even if he had Oregon is fortunate in securing an attorney general of his ability and integrity, in whose hands the interests of the laboring people of Oregon as well as of all other classes are absolutely safe. Don't be small, Mr. Journal.

SMOKED IN BED.—A young man must be getting very careless when he will go to bed with a lighted cigarette in his mouth and go to sleep. But such a case in our city Tuesday night, by one of our most estimable young men. He went to bed and being in bed, lighted a cigarette and soon was asleep from the effect of the narcotic, which set his bed on fire. And on being awakened by the smothering heat and scorching fire, he was surprised to find his bed in flames. He at once set to extinguish the fire, but they being too far gone, was compelled to carry the bed down stairs.—Halsey News. The kind of accident happened in Albany about a year ago.

FRUITS AND FLOWERS. published by D. H. Stearns, of Portland, E. R. Lake, editor, a credit to Oregon. It is a magazine of art, written up in a style equal to any of the best. Both typographically and editorially, every citizen of the state at all interested in the subject should help keep up by subscribing at once. The price is only $2. No 2 is before us, and we unhesitatingly end so it. Among other things it contains one or two articles by Geo. D. Barton, of Oakville.

POORLY PRESENTED.—There was a good sized audience Saturday evening at the performance of "Lost in London" by Newton Beers. The audience was generally disappointed. Newton Beers is an actor of considerable merit; but his support as a whole is very weak. Outside of the good scenic effect: Lost in London is not well presented. Some of Mr. Beers' support is fair; but the male comedians are not even entitled to that credit. With fourteen parts in the play there are only six in the troupe, a display of economy necessary during the summer months.

EXCURSION TO NEWPORT.—Another and probably the last of the cheap excursions will be given Sunday, August 16th. Train will leave Albany at 7 a. m., arriving at Newport at 11 a. m., returning leave Newport 5:30 p. m. and arrive at Albany at 9:30 p. m. Those who wish to stay longer may remain until Monday or Tuesday and return on the regular trains by paying 50 cts. additional. The season is now at its height. Fine surf bathing, fishing and boating. Tickets for round trip including boat fares only $2.50.

WILL GO TO VICTORIA.—Saturday evening at a meeting of Albany Hose Co. No. 1 it was decided to send a hose team to Victoria to the annual tournament. There are some first class local runners in Albany, and as there are strict rules in reference to professionals, the firemen here think a good team would stand a chance of winning a few first class prizes. The company made a good selection for manager, W. H. Warner, a rustler in every respect. Active training will be begun tonight.

WORK TO BE STARTED UP.—Mr. R. Wakefield, of the Portland Bridge and Building Company, is getting everything in readiness for beginning work on the new bridge at Albany. Pile-driving will be begun as soon as the pile can be delivered on the ground, and the King Iron Bridge Company, of Cleveland, O., has been instructed to send forward the iron work as soon as possible.—Oregonian.

THAT AWFUL UNDERDOG.—Mrs. F. W. Parker of Astoria, was drowned at Clatsop beach yesterday, the irresistible underdog doing the work. A man and wife with her, came near meeting the same fate. Under the present arrangement it seems absolutely unsafe to bathe at Clatsop and Ilwaco. Yaquina Bay is destined to become the resort for people who wish to bathe in safe waters.

WALL PAPER, ETC.—I have just received a new line of wall paper and decorations. Have more than doubled my facilities for handling them, and will keep a much larger stock. Wall paper and border to match. Beauties, and much cheaper than ever before. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

DELINQUENT TAX NOTICE.—School taxes are now delinquent. The clerk is making out the delinquent list which will be in the hands of the sheriff as soon as completed. Those who have not paid, had better do so before costs of collection are added. Last notice.

HAVE U noticed that Allen Bros' grocery store is always full of fruits, vegetables, etc., the very latest in the market. If there is anything to be had they have it.
Fruit, Berries, Cabbages, Turnips, NEW Potatoes.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A. D. Nash, of Corvallis, was in the city today.
F. C. Standa, of Brownsville, was in the city Saturday.
W. H. Queener, of Stayton, is doing Albany today.
Miss Mamie Campbell, of Sellwood, is in the city, the guest of her mother.
Mrs. Tip Humphrey and children, of Seaside, are visiting friends in Albany.
N. B. Sprenger and family have just returned from a week's visit near Woodburn.
Prof. J. M. Flaugh, of Lacombe, is in the city, also Prof. J. R. Geddes, of Mill City.
Mrs. M. O. Brink, of Newport, is in the city, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Curl.

Red Wells, of Corvallis, was in the city today. He reported 77 cents being paid for wheat.
Mr. Earl Race is at the Bay rusticating. During his absence E. G. Beardsley is at the desk at the St. Charles.

Mrs. S. H. Dodd, of Salem, and Mrs. Story, of East Portland, are in the city, the guests of Mr. D. B. Nontelth.

Rev. Metayer, of the Catholic church, is at the Mud Springs of Northern California, for the benefit of his health.
Mr. Newton Beers, the actor, is a cousin of Dr. Beers, of Wasco, the husband of nee Ollie Kirkpatrick, of this city.

Mr. Bert Magers, Allen Bros' popular clerk, left this noon on a visit with relatives at Stayton, Salem, Dallas and McMinnville.
Mrs. Henrietta Brown, Mary Stewart and Mary Gasten went to Newport Saturday and will be at Mr. Stewart's Nye Creek villa.

Rev. L. J. Trumbull, of La Grande, district missionary for Eastern Oregon, will conduct services at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, says the Pendleton E. O.

Last Friday evening a party was tendered Miss Beattie Saltmarsh at the residence of Mr. Chas. Kiefer. It is reported a fine affair highly enjoyed by those fortunate in being present.

Among those who went to Yaquina Bay today were F. E. Dorrie, Claire Vunk, D. Doughter, Mrs. G. F. Simpson and daughter, Mrs. E. E. Parris, Miss Briggs and Miss Steilmacker.

The partnership of Morin & Phelps, publishers of the Halsey News, has been dissolved. Mr. Phelps retiring. Mr. Morin will run the paper. Mr. Phelps left this noon for Portland and Hillsboro.

W. B. Ware, of this county, recently learned that his sister, whom he had not seen or heard of for twenty-five years, was at Drain, Douglas county, and he lost no time in starting for that place, leaving here yesterday morning.—Statesman.

Gov. Penoyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, of Lansing, Ia., Mr. J. H. Albert and daughters, Mrs. J. M. Patterson, G. W. Gray and daughter, J. J. Shaw, Mrs. G. Van Wagner, spent Sunday at Mehamas, favorite resort of the Governor's.

CROOK COUNTY.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hahn and family started on Wednesday for Portland where they will reside in the future.

Last Monday another of Mr. and Mrs. John Savage's children died with diphtheria, making four in all who have been cut down in little over a week.

Roe Hodges started on Tuesday for Sacramento with 120 head of horses. He will go down the east side of the Cascade mountains, and expects to get his horses to Sacramento in prime condition for market.

The boys had as well get their tin cans in training. Our jolly old liver man, Sam Smith, started to Webfoot last Wednesday, and rumor says that when he returns he will be accompanied by blooming and blushing young bride.—Review.

ALBANY IN IT.—One Night last week at Newport an entertainment was given at the public hall for the benefit of the reading room. The program was a good one, several from Albany taking part. Chas. H. Mueller had a German song and a mandolin solo, Rev. E. R. Pritchard a song, Miss Eva Simpson a recitation. Johnny Spangler gave a cornet solo, Miss Condon, of Eugene, was heard in a recitation, Prof. Parvin of Salem in a song.

A SWIMMING MATCH was the attraction at Waterloo yesterday. The contestants were two young men named Devine and Card. The former won with ease. They had swum a week before, Devine winning then but Card having an excuse, another race was made. A third contest will probably be made.

TAXES.—Have you paid your city taxes. Well, you'd better attend to them at once, as the tax collector informs the Democrat they are about delinquent and must be paid. The money is wanted. Dog taxes are also overdue, and a man is being secured to kill all of the animals on whom the taxes are not paid according to law.

Pay your city taxes.

DIED.

CHAMBERLAIN.—On Sunday, Aug. 9th, 1891, in Albany, Mr. Malin D. Chamberlain, aged 74 years. Mr. Chamberlain came to Albany about a year ago from South Dakota. He was a native of New York State, and was a man highly esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and eight children, five of whom, J. R., H. C., Bert, Mrs. W. R. Blain and Mrs. E. A. Schiffer reside in Albany, and three daughters east of the Rockies.
Funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence in the First Ward.

RESULTS.

Paraguay is a great country. Street cars in its few cities do not run from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. in order to let the men rest, and the other men rest all the time by allowing the women to do the work.

The most miserable people in the world are loafers. A man to be happy must have something to do. If there are any loafers in Albany let them cease the practice even in this midsummer weather.

The badger captured at the U. P. church Saturday proved to have escaped from Red Hughes, by whom and Mr. John Isom, Jr., it was recently brought from across the Cascades. It was secured by the owner.

Yaquina Bay is bound to become the popular resort for bathers. There is no undertow there, and both the Newport and Nye Creek grounds are safe. Nothing like an accident has ever happened at either place. Portland people should take notice of the fact.

Mrs. Lynn Linton, a prominent writer, calls the women's suffrage agitators, like Mrs. Dundy, for instance, "wild women," and is in favor of that being the general definition for them. The idea is so startling that the Man About Town is powerless to make any comment until he has investigated it for several months.

A magazine writer has figured out the fact that $80,000,000 prayers have been offered in the churches of England for the Prince of Wales, and yet he was recently disgraced by the baccarat scandal. The prayers were read out of books, and the trouble is the people never kept their gun powder dry. No wonder it wouldn't explode.

The greatest boom failure in the history of the world is probably that of Pasco. Keep your eye on Pasco for only three seconds and you can see the whole town, an almost depopulated place, with a $15,000 school house in the midst and about half a dozen children to enter it. It makes one's eye balls ache to watch the spectacle. The bubble is burst, and it is time to quit making bubbles.

The Review of Reviews is one of the greatest magazines published, rich in illustration and material. It is veritably a busy man's magazine. Being made up from all the leading magazines of the world, containing the leading illustrations and a synopsis of the leading articles, it presents just such features as the public should want. The price is only $2 a year, and people wishing to keep track of all the current literature of the day, condensed, should take the Review of Reviews, published at Astor Place, New York City.

BROWNVILLE.

August 10, 1891.

W. B. Blanchard, of this place, while preparing to cut some grass, accidentally fell on his scythe, cutting his shin in bad shape, and is now reclining on the bed for repairs.

A tramp on last Friday watched Mrs. E. L. Power, of this place, leave home, when he got the key, hidden by Mrs. P., and proceeded to unlock the house and help himself, but was disturbed and routed by the neighbors, leaving town with some in hot pursuit. He got away by running through back ways.

The new hotel is an assured fact. Mr. F. H. Dolan bought the building on the lot, which will be moved as soon as it can be done, commencing today. The hotel will be just opposite the store of R. N. Thompson, a good location.

J. B. R. Morelock is in southern Oregon. J. M. John and W. W. Waters and families are here. Too much Washington. Thus our chickens come home again. They belong here and we hope they will stay and help us build up Brownsville.

We don't like to be outdone by Salem or Junction so we have had our storm, also occurring on the 5th, consisting of hail and rain, not the hardest we ever saw but as hard as we care to see. We are too prone to forget just how hard some former storm was and say the hardest we ever saw.

An American citizen, if you please, of African descent, has been doing the city for the past week selling pencils and begging. He is cut off just below the knees and is an object of pity going on crutches.

Thrilling will be in full blast this week, but was cut short last week in trying to keep up with our friends. We will allow them to get ahead of us now if they want to while we get down to business.

LYONS.

August 8th, 1891.

The late rain has done but little damage to the grain and hay in this section.

Harvest will commence next week. Some little grain has been cut already.

Wm. Hammer has the frame of his house up and intends enclosing it this next week.

Our school will be out in two weeks.

There is quite an excitement over the returning prospectors from the Little North Fork. A party of 10 or 12 leave here for that district Monday, to be gone 10 days or 2 weeks, and if they report favorably a company will be formed and work commenced this fall. Free milling quartz is said to be found in abundance and placer mining good. The Portland parties who bonded the Gold Dollar mine for $1200 are now at work and intend opening it this summer. The mines are about 35 miles from here and 23 from Gales.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Harvest weather now for certain. People who want to be healthy and water yesterday reported big crops there. Umatilla has the most alfalfa of any county in Oregon, the water being twenty feet deep. The body of Nellie Boise was recovered Saturday at Ilwaco in what is known as Dead Man's hole.

Trains began running on the O. P. east of Albany today under the new program, arriving at 9:40 and leaving at 12:40.

Arrangements are being made for three games of base ball between Jefferson and Seaside, to be played at Albany, for $250 a star, the winner of two games to have the money. If this is not correct the Seaside Press will please call us a liar and correct it.

The rain last week seemed to be a very peculiar affair, jumping about in spots and striking most anywhere. Mr. Mike Hoff, residing two miles beyond the Calipsoa bridge, on the Oakville road, never stopped running his blinder during the week, only a few drops of rain falling. In some places it rained in torrents for a few moments.

Who Knows Him?—J. A. Culbertson, writing from Iowa, Kan., says: "I had a brother named C. S. Culbertson, in some milling company in your city, who worked as a laborer, and was about 21 years old. Can you give me any information as to the boy. Our mail has been coming back to us for six months." Any one knowing anything about such a young man will confer a favor by notifying Mr. Culbertson.

ATTENTION.—The very latest news is that you can buy of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, for net cash, 15 pounds granulated sugar for $1.00 and 15 pounds Extra C sugar. All goods sold for net cash from 10 to 25 percent less than regular price, as I intend to run at cash store. Albany, Or., July 21, 1891.

Just 24.

In just 24 hours J. V. S. relieves constipation and sick headaches. After it gets the system under control an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to W. H. Marshall, Brunswick House, E. P.; Geo. A. Warner, 521 California St., S. F.; Mrs. C. Melvin, 126 Kearny St., S. F., and many others who have found relief from constipation and sick headaches. G. W. Vincent, of 6 Terrence Court, S. F. writes: "I am 60 years of age and have been troubled with constipation for 25 years. I was recently induced to try Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. I recognized it at once as a herb that the Mexicans used to give us in the early 30's for bowel troubles. (I came to California in 1839,) and I knew it would help me and it has. For the first time in years I can sleep well and my system is regular and in splendid condition. The old Mexican herbs in this remedy are a certain cure in constipation and bowel troubles." Ask for
