

LOCAL RECORD.

ABSENT-MINDED CASE.—Yesterday morning machine man left Albany on a four days trip through the Forks of the Santiam. An excursion like that requires some preparation. The young man, including an overcoat for cold rainy weather and a duster for warm sunny weather. While preparing for his trip he took off his coat and vest and then on a chair. These he forgot starting, and went merrily along, thinking for his campaign with the rest of the city and other precincts. On reaching Jefferson he discovered for the first time that he was in his shirt sleeves, and not properly apparelled to machines. He returned to Albany, and made another start this morning in proper shape.

FIRE CERTIFICATE.—The Eugene fire department has just received some certificates, made to order in San Francisco, which the Guard describes as follows: 200 cost the city $200 and expenses charges. It is a beautiful design. The center panel has the blank certificate, and below a fire in progress and a hook and ladder company and engine company fighting the same. On the right and left hand panels are the city buildings; just above the right panel is a correct engraving of the Geary pool house, while on the other side is a city hall, with firemen and apparatus standing in front of it. The top is surmounted with the word "Oregon," and remains being crowned with honors.

FOOTFUL PRECOCITY.—When the young Williamette Valley was about to be in over the bar, at Newport, on her trip, a lady with a wee bit of a niece, four years old, sat on the beach and watched the tug Resolute as she passed over the bar to tow in the steamer. When the little tug came in with the steamer the little urchin cried out: "Oh, my, how funny it is that the little one is out to get the big one."

BURNED BY HOT GREASE.—Last Saturday a little 4 year old child of Mr. Yoder Woodburn was severely burned by falling in a pan of grease. Mrs. Yoder, while cooking placed the boiling grease on the floor expecting soon to put it away and the little fellow fell backwards into it, burning himself horribly from the waist down. The attending physician says he will recover.—Statesman.

OREGON CHERRIES.—The New York Herald tells its half a million of readers that Oregon cherries are so luscious that you fish your throat were a mile long. What a treat for a man with such a neck could go on in a Royal Ann cherry orchard.—Klamath Star. These cherries probably went from Linn county.

THE WEATHER.—The barometer was very low last evening, but this morning had jumped up 10 degrees, and having steadily since, also the mercury in the thermometer. As a great deal is at stake over the weather the barometer is being watched very closely, and every upward tendency is hailed with a shout of joy.

THE OLDEST ODD FELLOW.—William Armstrong, the oldest Odd Fellow in the United States, died a peaceful death at Salem, this morning. He was born in Auburn, New York, Jan 1, 1802, and was initiated into Odd Fellowship at Buffalo, N. Y., in September, 1834. He was nearly 90 years of age, and had been an Odd Fellow fifty seven years.

WORTH INVESTIGATING.—A fact it will be well for the City Council to consider that buildings sided or roofed with corrugated iron inside of fire limits, have standing with the Pacific Insurance Company. They are not considered any safer than exclusively frames, and should not be permitted inside of fire limits.

A NOTABLE SHERIFF'S SALE.—The famous Findley soda springs will be sold at Sheriff's sale next Saturday at 1 p. m., at the court house in Albany, and is attracting some attention. The property consists of over 200 acres and one of the best mineral springs in the county. Several have their eyes on the property.

ONE WAY.—A creditor in an exchange makes one way of getting pay for a debt, not being able to collect it in the usual way, he advertises, thus at least getting revenge, and sometimes revenge is sweet enough to be worth $80.

WALL PAPER, ETC.—I have just received a new line of wall paper and decorations. Have more than doubled my facilities for handling them, and will keep a much larger stock. Wall paper and border to match. Beautiful, and much cheaper than ever before. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

DELINQUENT TAX NOTICE.—School taxes are now delinquent. The clerk is making out the delinquent list which will be in the hands of the sheriff at noon as completed. Those who have not paid, had better do so before costs of collection are added. Last notice.

HAVE U noticed that Allen Bros' grocery store is always full of fruits, vegetables, etc., the very latest in the market. If there is anything to be had they have it.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

RE Hibber of Scio, was in the city today.

Henry Lyons, of Lyons, was in the city today.

C W Ayers, the architect and miner, is in the city.

W B Barr went to Salem yesterday to attend the funeral of Miss Nellie Boise.

Miss Fannie Strahan left this noon for the mountains by way of the Oregon Pacific.

Walter Montague, who has been with John Isom the last year, has located in Portland.

Postmaster F M Miller, of Lebanon, is in the city. He reports active operations on the Santiam canal.

Mrs J F Cires, of Paulina, Crook county, is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs D S Smith.

Mrs Mattie Freeman and son returned to Portland yesterday, after a visit with relatives in and near Albany.

Dr O'Dell, formerly of Sodaville, is now located at Upper Soda, where he is said to be doing a good business.

The DEMOCRAT acknowledges a call from Governor Pennoyer, who was in the city today on his way home from Me-hama.

R F Crosby, the wheat buyer, went to Corvallis today. Yesterday at that city he bought 10,000 bushels of wheat at 75 cents.

J W Gardner, the miner, arrived in the city yesterday noon from Coos county, by way of Yaquina bay, and will go to the Santiam mines.

E G Cameron, Corvallis' fast sprinter, was in the city last evening, for the purpose of getting up a race with a sprinter now in the city; but as he insisted on the race being run at Corvallis nothing was done.

Manager Win M Hoag is looked for from San Francisco tomorrow morning, and it certainly is to be hoped that the rumor that his pockets are to jingle with money for the employees prove true, if only for two or three months of back pay.

Daniel Bandman, who was in Albany a year ago representing several famous Shakespearean characters, is now a milkman in Sacramento. How have the mighty fallen, or rather risen, for selling milk is a very honorable business if the milk is not watered.

Among those who went to Yaquina Bay today were Miss Mildred Burmeister, who will go to the Stewart cottage on Nye Creek, A D McCoy who will join his family near the same place, Mrs Dr Chamberlin, son and daughter, Nellie Elkins and Mr Ed Blodgett who will locate with his parents.

A FRIGHTENED FATHER.—W D Fletcher had a great scare Sunday. He received a letter in unfamiliar hand-writing from Meacham the first words of which were: "Your little boy has killed my son with a knife." He was overcome for the moment, but finally summoned courage to read further and found that the writer wanted $30 damages. "That's pretty cheap for a son," he pondered, and at last a light dawned upon him—a sow was meant. Inquiry showed that Robin Fletcher had perhaps mortally wounded a sow which devastated the camp at Meacham, and the owner wanted damages, as the animal had a litter of pigs. Robin was duly arrested, and was prisoner in a mock trial at Meacham. He was not aware of the joke, and was somewhat frightened until the sentence was pronounced: "You shall wear a plug hat and stand-up collar for the remainder of your natural life!"—Pendleton E. O.

A SALEM JOKE.—A committee of Co H without the fear of the law or judge lynch went around Sunday night and routed out a lot of the militia boys with the report that the longshoremen were burning up Astoria, and that a special train was waiting to take them to the scene of carnage at midnight. A great many of the boys saw blood in the moon, made their wills, said a hurried farewell to parents and sweethearts, climbed into their uniforms and hastened to the fray. At the armory there was a congregation of many forms and courageous faces ready to march upon the enemy—when lo, it was all a hoax—and there was some swearing.—Journal.

GOOD TIMES.—A DEMOCRAT man was in a place of business yesterday, where a $20 gold piece was being used as a paper weight. A sign of good times. Keep a stiff upper lip, use XX's for paper weights, sell your wheat and don't be a clam.

NEW PROCESS.—Mrs A M Tait is now selling a new process for canning fruits and vegetables without cooking or sealing airtight. Samples of her work may be seen at Brownell's store.

ATTENTION.—The very latest news is that you can buy of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, for net cash, 15 pounds granulated sugar for $1.00 and 18 pounds Extra C sugar. All goods sold for net cash from 10 to 25 per cent less than regular price, as I intend to run at net cash store. Albany, Or., July 21, 1891.

NEW SPRING GOODS.—I keep a full line of spring and summer dress goods, in wash fabrics, prints, ginghams, seersuckers, etc. I have also a new line of summer plaids, besides other novelties in big and all wool fabrics. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

MINES.

A Portland insurance man who went to Spokane, said there were 1000 empty houses in that city. A Spokane man in Albany today says there are not over 25. A slight disagreement.

A clerk in an Albany store who was at San Diego during the famous boom of 1888 tells about how the mail accumulated so fast in the postoffice, the force being inadequate to the demands of the booming city, that finally one day four cart loads of mail matter was dumped in the Bay in order to get rid of it. This is told for a fact.

The following dispatch from Atlantic City to the New York World, is timely in view of the recent drowning accidents at Ilwaco and Clatsop: Misses Mary Dougherty, Annie Hennings and Margaret Gallagher, of Philadelphia, were bathing in the surf today, when the undertow dragged them beyond their depth. The screams of the drowning women attracted the attention of Life-saver Charles Davis, who swam to their rescue. The Parker Brothers also followed in a boat. The women were brought to the shore in a semi-unconscious condition. A purse was subscribed by the guests of the Oriental Hotel and presented to the brave surfman.

There is nearly always a fight with some of the circus men. At Seattle, says the Telegram, there was quite a little knock-out. The trouble was said to be over the delivery of a load of hay. One of the circus men objected to the hay being delivered at the time it was brought to the grounds and proceeded to enforce his objections with a tent stake. He, however, met with more than his match in a young fellow who is employed by the firm which sold the hay. One blow from the clerk's fist sent the circusman to the earth. It took him about half an hour to recover his senses. Meanwhile the hay was unloaded.

In view of the senseless attack made by the Salem Journal, a chronic kicker against everything but strawberries, on Governor Pennoyer, for appointing an ex-bank official to be attorney general, the following unbiased remarks from the Herald, are worth considering by the Journal: The appointment of Hon G E Chamberlain as the first incumbent of the office of attorney general for the state of Oregon will have no effect to tarnish the fame or political standing of any one. His appointment was highly creditable and he will fill the office with honor and justice and honesty, as he has every position he has yet occupied.

OAKVILLE.

The fruit tree agents are quite numerous at present, but owing to the scarcity of money, there has been very few orders taken so far.

Mr Barton, our local nurseryman is busily engaged budding Mr B has a good nursery and those wishing prune or peach trees should call on him; by so doing you can see what you are buying.

Miss Carrie St John, of McCoy, is visiting her aunt, Mrs H M Stone.

Miss Sarah Morrison has gone to Olympia, Wash, on a visit to her sister.

Mr R A Bamford unloaded the first load of new wheat at Fisher's mill, Corvallis. He is generally first in everything, unless it is lying.

The steam thrasher can be heard at all hours day and night, and the binders are all busy on spring grain. The busy season of the year is upon us.

Mr J C Mohr is repainting his house, and making other valuable improvements.

Mr C Stone has gone to the mountains to prospect for precious metals. We wish him success, for a good gold mine would help the farmers.

An Explanation.

Editors Democrat:

The article published in the DEMOCRAT of last Friday stating that our daughter Etha attempted suicide by taking carbolic acid on the evening of the 7th was incorrect in several particulars and we desire to correct the same. Etha was in the habit of putting the acid in her teeth for toothache, and on the evening in question she took the bottle to her room for that purpose. Her mother entered the room about 9 o'clock for a lamp and seeing her looking deathlike, spoke to her several times receiving no answer, and seeing the bottle of acid on the stand thought she had taken it with the intention of suicide. Mrs Cherry called me and told me that Etha had taken carbolic acid, to go for a doctor, which I did. When the doctor arrived he said there had been no acid or any other kind of poison taken; he pronounced it a spasm or fainting spell. So far as an attempted suicide there was none or no thought of any. She is a very obedient child and good to obey us. She is not allowed to keep company with a certain class in this city, but is perfectly willing to obey her parents.

Vincent, of 6 Terrace Court, S. F. writes: "I am 60 years of age and have been troubled with constipation for 25 years. I was recently induced to try Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. I recognized it at once as a herb that the Mexicans used to give us in the early 60's for bowel troubles. (I came to California in 1853.) and I knew it would help me and it has. For the first time in years I can sleep well and my system is regular and in splendid condition. The old Mexican herbs in this remedy are a certain cure for constipation and bowel troubles." Ask for

What is Home Without a Mother

"What is home without a mother," Sang the poet long ago.

What is life without good food? We should really like to know.

What's a boat without a rudder? Or a ship without a sail?

What's a goose without a gander, Or a "hoss" without a tail?

What's a life without a baby? What's a hen without a coop?

If your groceries don't come from Parkers' You may find you're in the soup.

What's a sermon without chestnuts? What's an old maid without hope?

What's a dago's squeaky organ, Without a monkey at his rope?

What's the need of all this rhyming, Unless to save you lots of fuss?

One thing sure you will be happy If you come and trade with us.
