REMOVED.—W E McPherson has removed his loan and insurance office to opposite the Masonic temple, where at present he has plenty of money to loan on Albany real estate.

NOTICES.

A kodak girl is said to be a terror at Chautauqua. She is especially numerous, and her camera is pointed at everything. Lovers have a hard time of getting out of her range. It matters little whether the subject be religious or romantic, or the spot sacred or very ordinary, the kodak girl will be found around and taking in her lens to a proper focus and adjusting her sights.

The government is now building a 10,000 ton cruiser at San Francisco, to be called "The Oregon." She will carry a crew of 460 men and will in all respects do honor to our state, being as modern as the latter part of the nineteenth century can make her. She will cost, according to contract, $4,000,000.

The following was handed in by a friend with the request to publish it, says the board: "Mrs Lucian Mayberry, of Little Rock, Ark, is the happy mother of 39 boys all born within a married life of 37 months. There are two sets of triplets and two pairs of twins. They are all well formed, bright and healthy in body and mind. Mr Mayberry is a prosperous merchant and says he feels like the head of an infant asylum. Mrs Mayberry is a pretty blond, plump and hearty and barely 24 years of age.

The following from the Portland Mercury is a pointer for Albany men also, owing a few dollars: "The only man in town that has any money, at least that we know of, has grown disgusted. He cornered a granger in a room he took for a 'sucker,' and tried to sell him a lot in one of the many fake additions to the city of Portland. He tried to make the gentleman believe that a lot in his addition was worth $150, when it really was not worth $25. And because he was not successful in blindfolding the old gentleman, he grew so angry that he started in the direction of the Williams river 'spitting nickies.'"

OBITUARY.

Sarah Tenney married to Elijah Duncan. She was born in North Carolina, moving to Kentucky in an early day, and on some occasions was forced up in times of the Indian troubles. She removed to Tennessee and was there married in 1815 at the age of 23. Her intended husband, Elijah Duncan, was in the battle of New Orleans, and after the battle was married in the same year, in the month of June, and thence removed to Missouri, where he died in 1852. She has lived with her son in law, Jas Fitzwater, and Nancy Fitzwater, her daughter, since 1859, being 32 years. She removed with them to Oregon in 1864, and lived with them in Linn county, eight miles east of Lebanon. Her children, grand children and great grand children number near 170, according to the best information we have.

At the age of 13 she made a confession of religion and joined the Baptist church, and the last 14 years of her life has been a member of the church of Christ. Her religious experience has been a blessed one and left a bright testimony in favor of the religion of Christ.

She sang his praises in the hour of death, even her last breath quivered the praises of Jesus whom she loved. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth. Yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them." She died Aug. 12th, 1891.

A man near Albany says the West Side, was deeply impressed with the idea that children turned loose, subject to mud and rain, sun and dust, were the healthiest; so, to secure the health of his own children he hauled them a load of sand to wallow in.

Pimples.

The old idea of 40 years ago was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsaparillas contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and beautiful digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. E., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

What is Home Without a Mother

"What is home without a mother," Sang the poet long ago. What is life without good food? We should really like to know.

What's a boat without a rudder? Or a ship without a sail? What's a goose without a gander, Or a "hoss" without a tail?

What's a life without a baby? What's a hen without a coop? If your groceries don't come from Parkers' You may find you're in the soup.

What's a sermon without chestnuts? What's an old maid without hope? What's a dago's squeaky organ, Without a monkey at his rope?

What's the need of all this rhyming, Unless to save you lots of fuss? One thing sure you will be happy If you come and trade with us.
