

WASHINGTON.
(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28, 1891.

Senator Sherman has written a letter that is far from taking the rosy view of the republican prospects in Ohio that is prevalent, in the republican press. It was written to a republican departmental official and was intended to be personally shown by the receiver to every republican in Ohio that is employed by the government. In it the senator says that he regards it as imperatively necessary that every republican voter of the state of Ohio, now temporarily in Washington, shall at once return to the state in order to help brace up the weak-kneed members of the party who are showing a disposition either to vote against their old party or to stay at home. In consequence of this letter it is said that the department officials have intimated that all voters employed therein may take thirty days leave with pay whether their annual leave has all been used or not. Evidently Sherman isn't figuring on any fifty thousand majority.

Speaking of Ohio, it is creditable to the prominent republicans now in Washington, that they, to a man, condemn the recent attempt by certain members of their party in Ohio to make Governor Campbell's private business transactions the basis of an attack upon him.

Attorney-General Miller, if rumor be true, is again to be made the victim of Indiana politicians by being compelled to give up the seat upon the Federal bench which Mr Harrison had promised him in order that another Indiana republican—John M. Butler, once the law partner of the late ex-Senator McDonald—may be provided for. This is hard lines for Mr Miller who has ever since Mr Harrison became president had his mouth puckered up preparatory to taking a life time suck at the public teat. As a patient waiter he is a success.

Representative Mills' opponents for the Speakership, have, some of them, tried to make it appear that in his recent speeches in Ohio he took a different position on the free coinage of silver from that which he had for a long time previously occupied. This is an attack upon the rugged honesty of Mr Mills that his friends resent. One of them said: "Mr Mills' Ohio speeches do not announce any change whatever in his views touching free coinage. He opens his speeches with the distinct statement that he is now and ever has been a free coinage man. What he does say, however, and with great emphasis, is that free coinage will not produce the far reaching effect that its warmest advocates hope for, and that it will not relieve the distress under which the country is alleged to be suffering. This, Mr Mills says, can only be accomplished by lighter taxation and a freer foreign trade. Now, so far from this being a new pronouncement of Mr Mills, it is just what he said in an address delivered before the legislature of Texas—a free coinage body—only the Texas statement was, if anything, a more earnest appeal than that contained in his Ohio speeches against relying on relief from free coinage. When it is remembered that Mr Mills' ambition is to be elected to the senate by the legislature of Texas, it can easily be seen that the bold stand he took before that body, which was composed of men the most of whom will have a vote on the question of his selection as Senator, was just like the man, and that his Ohio speeches are only in the same line."

It is now said that it is a neck and neck race for the democratic vacancy on the Interstate Commission between Representative Culbertson of Texas and ex-Representative Clements, of Georgia. The latter gentleman was thought to have been ahead until a delegation of Washington negroes filed a protest against his appointment, because they mixed him up with his colleague, Mr Grimes, who a year or so ago left a Washington hotel at which he was boarding because a negro was seated at the same table at which he was eating his dinner. They thought it was Mr Clements, and told Mr Harrison they would consider it an insult to the negro race if he was appointed. Under ordinary circumstances this would amount to nothing, but just now "nigger" influence is mighty strong at the White House.

Winds are caused by the unequal density of weight of different portions of the atmosphere here. This is mainly due to differences in temperature. The high wind that accompanies a thunder storm at the close of a hot day is due to the fact that the atmosphere, which has been heated during the day, is now rapidly rising, while the cooler atmosphere around is rushing in.

Pimples.

The old idea of 40 years ago was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. These all the old Sarsaparillas contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiation or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthy digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 406 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

The Road to Wealth

Cannot be successfully traveled without good health. To reach wealth or any coveted position in life requires the full possession and operation of all the faculties of the human system. These conditions cannot exist unless the physical being is in perfect working order, and this is impossible when the liver and spleen are torpid, thus obstructing the secretions, causing indigestion and dyspepsia, with all of their accompanying horrors.

English Bantling Tonic
acts as a healthy action, resolves the chronic engorgements, and promotes the secretions, cures indigestion and constipation, sharpens the appetite, tones up the entire system, and makes life worth living.
