Two distinguished republicans, ex-Senator Ingalls and Jay Hubbell, discussed presidential politics at the Grand Pacific, at Chicago the other day. Neither one of them is for Blaine, and Mr Hubbell will assist ex-Senator Palmer to put the quietus on Gen Alger in Michigan.

"Harrison," said Mr Hubble, "will make it mighty interesting for those who think he is unpopular."

"Yes," assented Mr Ingalls, "and I am more of the opinion than ever that it will be Harrison against Cleveland the next time. Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay, and James G Blaine are exceptions to American politics. They have all had a popularity and a following that was pheonominal and inexplicable. Therefore, if Mr Blaine felt well enough to contest the matter with Mr Harrison he could easily carry off the nomination, but there is no danger of it. The business of the state department has lately been of a very delicate and important character, and if Mr Blaine were physically able to attend to it you may be sure he would be in Washington and not in Maine. I do not care to say more, but I am sure he is not among the possibilities."

This is good doctrine and good democratic doctrine. Not gold alone. Not silver alone. Not paper backed by government promises. But honest money made of gold and silver, or of paper based on gold and silver and convertible into them. The gold equal to the silver in intrinsic value, and the paper only a device for convenience of use, but representing, dollar for dollar, coin available for its redemption on demand. A currency not varying in volume according to the caprice of legislatures, at one time appreciating in purchasing power because artificially contracted, and again cheap to the point of worthlessness because wantonely inflated, but steadily expanding as the needs of business dictate because the mints are open for its free coinage.

It is a little odd, to say the least, when American tin-plate mills—in the columns of republican newspapers—are as thick as manufacturing lobbyists in Washington when the tariff is to be revised—it is a little odd under such circumstances that the volume of imports of American tin plate should be steadily rising. The McKinley schedule for tin plate went into effect July 1 of this year. During July 100,000 pounds of Welsh tin plate paid duty at the Chicago custom-house. In August 295,000 pounds were entered and in September 638,510 pounds, or almost as much as was imported in June, when importers were straining every nerve to get stocked up before the McKinley gate was shut.

It is said that, during the attempt to cut a canal through the Isthmus of Panama, 200,000 ounces of quinine were used annually in combating malarial fever.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

WHERE TO GET THEM.—When wanting an organ or piano call on G L Blackman where you can select from a first class lot.

The Road to Wealth
Cannot be successfully traveled without good health. To reach wealth or any coveted position in life requires the full possession and operation of all the faculties that nature has endowed us with. These conditions cannot exist unless the physical being is in perfect working order, and this is impossible when the liver and spleen are torpid, thus obstructing the secretions, causing indigestion and dyspepsia, with all of their accompanying horrors.
DR. HENLEY'S English Dandelion Tonic exerts a specific influence over the liver, excites it to healthy action, resolves its chronic engorgements, and promotes the secretions; cures indigestion and constipation, sharpens the appetite, tones up the entire system, and makes life worth living.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Cold Blooded Murder.

KALAMA, Wash Oct 12.—Last Friday, sixteen miles above Woodland, on the Lewis river, Robert Day murdered T C Beebe. Day's 16-year-old boy had accused Beebe of knocking a horn oft Day's ox. Beebe slapped him and told him to go home. Day returned from a hunting trip and went to Beebe's logging camp to find out about it. He was told that it did not amount to anything, and that his boy had returned to work. Not satisfied he started out to find Beebe. He overtook Beebe and the latters cousin about half a mile distant, and asked him if he had slapped his boy. He said yes. He then asked him if he had said he would as soon slap him as not. Beebe answered that he would. Then Day raised his rifle and shot him dead. He asked Beebe's cousin if he wanted any of it, but the young man took to his heels.

Right in Seattle.

SEATTLE, Oct 12—W S Parsons, an employee in the Lake Union tunnel, was sand bagged and robbed of $40 by two highwaymen in North Seattle, on his way from work, about eight o'clock this evening. At the corner of Sixth and Wall streets he saw two men standing close together and as he approached, they parted to allow him to pass. As he did so, one of them grabbed his hat and pulled it down over his eyes while at the same instant the other one struck him a blow across the back of the neck with some heavy weapon presumably a sandbag. Parson's dropped to the sidewalk unconscious, and laid there some time. In feeling in his pockets he found that all the money he had on him had been taken.

A Good Reason.

SALEM, Or Oct 12.—Circuit court convened today in the regular October term. The docket is steadily growing, containing now 115 cases. In the breach of promise suit of Mary Goodenough vs Elvin Daley the defendant filed his answer and counterclaim. Daley denies that he induced Mrs Goodenough to come west for the purpose of marrying him. He says, in the complaint, he was surprised to find her a silly, garrulous old woman," she having claimed to him that she was of an engaging and attractive appearance."

A Steamer Secured.

NEWPORT, Or Oct 12.—Since it became known that the Wilmington would carry no more freight on this route, people are at a loss to know what to do. The Chanch has given no satisfaction during the summer. The matter is now settled to the entire satisfaction of all shippers along the coast. The steam schooner Mischief, Captain J J Winnt, will hereafter attend to the trade from San Francisco to Portland.

A Last Spike.

SEATTLE, Oct 13.—The last spike on the Seattle & Montana road was driven today, two miles north of the Stillaguamish river. There were no cermonies attending the occasion, but a message was received at Great Northern headquarters to the effect that Engineer Watson had made a short speech.

TO TEA DRINKERS.— Probably three fourths of the teas consumed are "Green Teas" Unpleasant as the fact may be, the bright, shiny green so familiar to us all is not the natural color, but is due to the facing or glazing of the tea with Prussian blue, Indigo and other mineral colors.

That coloring hides the effects of poor teas is undoubted; but is it healthful, and does it not call loudly for the importation of a brand of pure, uncolored, unmanipulated tea?

It was this condition of affairs that prompted the placing of Beech's Tea before the public Being the absolutely pure, uncolored leaf it is different in color from any you ever used. It draws a canary color of a delightful fragrance that is a revelation to tea drinkers, and its purity makes it more economical than the artificial teas, less of it being required per cup Sold only in packages, 60 cents per pound. Ask for Beech's Tea, pure as childhood, for sale by Allen Bros., Flinn block, Albany.

NOTICE.—Mr Julius Gradwohl informs the DEMOCRAT that his Golden Rule Bazaar will be known hereafter as Julius Gradwohl's Bazaar.

Testimony of a Painter.

T H Backus, 105 Carlton avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "Allcock's Porous Plasters are undoubtedly the best external remedy manufactured I make this assertion to the public from my own personal experience of their wonderful virtues. Suffering from severe pains in my side and chest, contracted through a severe cold, I applied a couple of Allcock's Porous Plasters upon going to bed at night. The results was, that in eight hours after applying them I could get up and walk about with very little pain or ache, when the night previous I could neither get up nor down without help, nor stoop to remove my shoes. I have since used them in my family for various ailments, and have never known them to fail to give almost immediate relief."
