Daily Democrat.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.—W J Jones can bless his lucky stars that he is not food for the fishes in the broad Pacific today, else tossed about on the beach, a sport of the waves, says the Eugene Guard. On Saturday, Nov 7th, he left Coos Bay for Florence a foot. He was told that he could easily wade all streams between Gardiner and Florence, and easily crossed Three Mile, Five Mile and Ten Mile creeks It was about 10 o'clock at night when he reached the Siuslaw, and instead of turning to the right on the line of the stage road, followed the beach on to the south spit. Coming to the shallow water of the south channel, thinking it was another small stream, he removed his clothing and commenced to wade it. With the bundle of clothing on his head he waded until suddenly he stepped into swimming water. His bundle went, and thinking it a small stream he struck out to swim across. Fortunately the tide was not running out very strong, and he reached the small sand island between the two channels. Fortunately that night the tide was only an average one. He shouted for help, walking back and forth to keep warm, until he became hoarse and exhausted, then sank naked to the sand, and recollection failed him until with daylight he regained his senses and realized his position, an arm of the sea on either side. He walked back and forth until about 9 o'clock Sunday morning, when Capt W A Cox observed him from his residence on the opposite side of the river. He took him off, half dead, and conveyed him to his residence when, wrapping him warmly in blankets, Jones was conveyed to the Morris hotel at Florence. He soon recovered from the effects of his terrible experience. A subscription was started and he was soon supplied with new clothing. The bundle lost contained $42.50 in money, also a $40 overcoat.

"August Flower"

For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician. He finally, after trying everything, said stomach was about worn out, and that I would have to cease eating solid food for a time at least. I was so weak that I could not work. Finally on the recommendation of a friend who had used your preparations with beneficial results, I procured a bottle of August Flower, and commenced using it. It seemed to do me good at once. I gained in strength and flesh rapidly; my appetite became good, and I suffered no bad effects from what I ate. I feel now like a new man, and consider that August Flower has entirely cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form. JAMES E. DEDERICK, Saugerties, New York.

MRS. GRAHAM'S
Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream

Is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sun burn and freckles, and black heads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1 00, at all druggists and hairdressers, or at Mrs Gervaise Graham's establishment, 103 Post street San Francisco, where she treats ladies for all blemishes of the face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her little book "How to be Beautiful."

A Severe Law.

The English people look more closely to the genuineness of their staples than we do. In fact, they have a law under which they make seizures and destroy adulterated products that are not what they are represented to be. Under one recent seizure thousands of pounds of tea have been destroyed because of their wholesale adulteration.

Tea, by the way, is one of the most adulterated articles of commerce. Not all of the bright, shiny green teas artificially colored but the majority of pounds of [illegible] tea leaves are used to smell, [illegible] and willow leaves are commonly used. [illegible] from old tea which have been used [illegible] that is. Even exhausted tea leaves used [illegible] are kept, dried, and sold over and over until their way into the American tea.

[illegible] to stamp out [illegible] but no law is too [illegible] it, but probably [illegible] any nation are these [illegible] in America.

Beech's Tea is presented with the guaranty that it is unadulterated and unadulterated; in fact, the entire leaf pure and simple. Its purity insures superior strength, about one third less of it being required for an infusion than of the artificial teas, and its fragrance and exquisite flavor is at once apparent. It will be a revelation to you. In order that its purity and quality may be guaranteed, it is sold only in pound packages bearing this trade-mark:
