

WASHINGTON.

(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9, 1891.

Preposterous as it may sound, it is never, theless true that some of the most unscrupulous republicans are actually seriously entertaining the idea of stealing the seat in the senate to which Hon. Calvin S. Brice was elected by the legislature of Ohio. As yet this movement is confined to sounding republican senators to ascertain if they will vote to reject Senator Brice on the ground that he is not a citizen of Ohio. Those engaged in this despicable work suppose that it is a secret, and if upon a count of noses, they find that they cannot control enough votes to succeed in the barefaced theft, it will not be openly attempted. Fortunately the republican majority in the senate is a small one, and some of the republican senators are honorable enough and independent enough to do what they believe to be right, even to the extent of defying a republican caucus. It is these men that will prevent this political crime, if it is prevented. It is not known what Mr. Harrison thinks, but it is claimed that Secretary Foster is in favor of it, and that he is aiding in sounding the senators as they arrive here. It is difficult to believe that the republicans in the senate, much as they would like to add one more vote to their rapidly waning majority, will resort to such a method of doing it. Still, one must have a very short memory who who will dare to predict to a certainty that it will not be done. But the prediction may be safely made that if it is done the honest people of this country will see that it is followed by the speedy punishment of those who are guilty. Partisanship may under certain circumstances be excused, but dishonesty never. If Senator Brice has not a clear title to his seat no member of the senate has.

Senator Faulkner, who is a conservative and level headed man, has this to say on the presidential outlook: "I think that if the delegation from his own state to the national convention want him nominated, Mr. Cleveland will be the nominee. But if factional differences in New York shall make it evident that no citizen of that state can secure unanimous support, the chances are that the nominee will be sought elsewhere, as it is absolutely necessary that the man nominated shall be able to carry New York state."

Representative Mills' headquarters for the speakership campaign are already open, although the number of congressmen in town is as yet small, but increasing with the arrival of every train. The headquarters of Messrs. Crisp, McMillan and Springer will be open this week. As it is just four weeks today to the opening of congress the candidates for speaker will have to hustle for all they are worth from now on. The sudden death of the son of Representative Crisp cast a momentary gloom over that gentleman's prospects, but the activity of his friends will prevent his temporary absence from the scene of action resulting in any harm to him.

Among the republicans who are in hot chase after some of the fat official plums soon to be distributed by Mr. Harrison, is ex-Speaker Kiefer of unsavory memory, who is now in Washington to urge his own claims for something. It is said that he isn't over particular as to what office shall be given him, just so there is a good, healthy salary attached to it. His chance for an office is not regarded as very good. The administration already has about all it can carry of this kind.

Mr. Blaine is very much disturbed, so his friends say, over the news from Brazil, which he fears may overturn the reciprocity agreement with that country. If the meager news we have had be true there is ample cause for his alarm, as it is certain that if the foreign influences in Brazil shall turn out to be powerful enough to destroy the republic, they will be strong enough to break any arrangement that has a tendency to divert trade which Europe has heretofore controlled, to the United States.

There is trepidation among the high officials of the government service, because of the belief that a shake-up is contemplated by Mr. Harrison, who thinks it will be beneficial to himself to replace some of them with better politicians and better Harrison men.

McKinley's friends here are indignant at the idea advanced by some of the Blaine men, that the Ohio man would be willing to play second fiddle to Mr. Blaine, or to anyone else. They say that McKinley's name will be presented to the national convention as a candidate for president, and that he will accept nothing else.

Gov. Boies is much talked of by democrats here, and one hears the prediction on all sides that he will be heard of when the democratic national convention meets. Senator Palmer, of Illinois, is one of his chief eulogists.

Brewers in Philadelphia ascribe the falling off in the consumption of beer this year to the abundance of fruit. It was particularly noticeable when watermelons were in such great supply.

The following are the five largest cities in the United States by the census of 1890: New York, 1,515,391; Chicago, 1,099,830; Philadelphia, 1,046,961; Brooklyn, 806,353; St. Louis, 451,770.

The length of the Niagara Falls tunnel will be 3530 feet, and it has been excavated about one third of this distance.

A mass meeting of the democratic voters of the city of Albany will be held in the Circuit Court room at the Court House on Saturday evening, December 5th, 1891, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Mayor, Marshal, Recorder and Treasurer, to be voted for at the regular annual city election to be held on Monday, December 7th, 1891.

In just 24 hours J. V. S. relieves constipation and sick headaches. After it gets the system under control an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to W. H. Marshall, Brunswick House, S. F.; Geo. A. Werner, 321 California St., S. F.; Mrs. C. Melvin, 136 Kearny St., S. F., and many others who have found relief from constipation and sick headaches. G. W. Vincent, of 6 Torrance Court, S. F. writes: "I am 60 years of age and have been troubled with constipation for 25 years. I was recently induced to try Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. I recognized it as at once an herb that the Mexicans used to give us in the early 50's for bowel troubles. (I came to California in 1850,) and I knew it would help me and it has. For the first time in years I can sleep well and my system is regular and in splendid condition. The old Mexican herbs in this remedy are a certain cure in constipation and bowel troubles." Ask for
