MISSETS
WHEAT, 50 CENTS.
How many people are there who pronounce any proportion of their words correctly, not merely by reason of clipping and mousing, but by ignorance of good usage? We find them everywhere, and they lay the accent on the first instead of on the second syllable of acclimate, for example; they pronounce the second syllable of acoustics, coo, instead of cow; they do not put the accent on the last syllable of adept, as they should do; they leave the u round out of buoy; they pronounce duke with the sound of oo instead of with the simple long u; they emphasize the first instead of the second syllable of enervate, and sound the t in often. They are astonished to know that precedence has the accent on the second syllable, and placard on the last; that quay is called key; that sough is suf; that the z instead of the s sound is to be given in sacrifice, and the reverse in rise; that subtle and subtile are two different words; that the last syllable of tortoise is pronounced "is" instead of "us"; that it should be used and not us; that it is not the "zoo," but the zoological gardens where one goes to see the chimpanzee and not the chimpanzee. Thus ejaculates an exchange. In view of an approaching pronouncing bee, the above will be of interest. In these days of uncertain pronunciation it is safe to say no one can "stand up" long on selected words.

We recently published a letter from Mr A B Cumming of this city to an Iowa paper. On account of a lack of space we omitted the last paragraph, on the silver question, which we now give in full: "Here we have a full illustration of the workings of that mysterious fraud, called 'Silver Demoralization,' in this way: England buys Idaho and Colorado silver for seventy-five cents on the dollar—sends this silver to India where it is converted into Indian rupees worth 103 cents on the dollar; then she takes this appreciated Indian coin and buys Indian cheap wheat, at about 50 cents per bushel; the premium on the silver pays the transportation of this wheat from the plains of India to Liverpool. This is hard wheat and it requires soft wheat to grind with it—the kind of wheat raised here. Now England wants the wheat market of this Pacific Coast country and it is all shipped in English bottoms. Now comes the English buyer and says to the farmers of this country 'I can buy Indian wheat for so much laid down in Liverpool, we cannot pay you any more.' And England buys Oregon wheat, the finest wheat in the world, for 80 cents a bushel—and in common years for 60 cents—when the wheat is virtually worth $1.25 per bushel. This is how England beats the American farmer with American law. This is the leading reason why England is opposed to Bimetallism and Remonetization of the silver dollar, and the poor American grangers, in general, and those of the Pacific slope in particular, have to sweat because they do not understand the question as to what is the difference between full remonetization of money and fraud. They will learn, by and by, to understand what constitutes money; when they do, England will not buy Oregon fall wheat for 80 cents per bushel, in face of the fact that the people of the earth are struck with a scarcity of bread stuffs."

Just in the Nick of Time.
Mrs Lydia A Nelson, Luther, Lake county, Mich., writes:
"LUTHER, Mich, March 6, 1890.
"The Allcock's Porous Plasters you sent me came just in the nick of time. We have all had the 'Grippe' and, of course, we all had to have a plaster over the lungs. I verily believe they kept me from having inflammation of the lungs, or something else, when I had the 'Grippe,' and perhaps saved my life.
I never intend to be without them as long as they are made.
Please send me another dozen, as the last are all gone but one. I gave several of them away, but they all did good in every case, so far as I could learn."

Annual Meeting.
SALEM, Or Nov 18.—At the annual meeting of the State Board of Agriculture the board made a general revision of the premium lists and rules and regulations, and premiums in several new departments were added. A special programme for the state fair of 1892 was also arranged. There are to be eighteen races. The purses are ample and the entries promise to be large. J S Apperson was re-elected president of the board, and J T Gregg secretary. The opening date of the fair was fixed for the second Monday of September. The secretary was authorized to prepare statistical information of the resources of Oregon at the expense of $1000.

The Farmers' Alliance.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov 18.—The longer the alliance remains in session the further apart grow the various factions. This appears to be the situation this morning. It seems to be impossible to settle the various organizations down to any definite expression, or any united policy. The third party fight is on in earnest and every move is with more or less direct reference to this main issue. A split in the alliance on the subtreasury and land loan principles now seems inevitable. The open meeting of the alliance this morning was a complete fizzle and lasted but a few minutes.

Immense Purses.
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich Nov 18.—Don J Learners, president of the Grand Rapids Horsemen's association, tomorrow will offer $100,000 for a great week of races at the meeting of the Michigan Horse Breeders in Grand Rapids the last week in August, 1892. He offers a $50,000 purse for a race for the stallion championship of all ages, to be trotted by Palo Alto, Stamboul, Allerton, Nelson, Delmar and Pat Downing. In addition, Learners offers $25,000 for a race for Arion, Monbars, Ralph Wilkes, and Bermuda Boy, 91 races will be given on different days.

Killed by Wolves.
ST PAUL, Nov 18.—News reached this city late tonight that three children of Andrew Gulick, near Brighton, were killed by wolves this afternoon. Prairie fires early in the fall drove a large number of wolves down from the north. The children were wandering into the woods this afternoon and were attacked. Before aid could reach them the bodies were partially devoured. Armed men killed eleven of the wolves and a regular expedition will start tomorrow.

A World's Fair scheme.
CUMBERLAND, Md Nov 18.—Workmen are busily engaged in tearing down John Brown's fort at Harper's Ferry. One of the contractors stated that a stock company of Chicago capitalists had purchased the fort and every brick and piece of brick will be sent to Chicago on a special train of seven cars this evening. The building will be reconstructed on the world's fair exposition grounds in Chicago.

Rather Warlike.
VIENNA, Nov 18.—Well-founded reports are current here that the Russian government has ordered 40,000 troops dispatched to the Polish frontier, and that the number of barracks huts in that vicinity are to be largely increased. In consequence, it is reported that the Austrian government has ordered a large number of officers and men dispatched to strengthen the frontier guards.

WARD MEETINGS.
The committee would recommend that ward meetings be held on Friday evening, December 4th, 1891, at 7 o'clock at the following places:
First Ward—Up stairs in the Circuit Court room at the Court House.
Second Ward—In the County Court room at the Court House.
