

AN EYE TO BUSINESS.—We hear by the mail carrier of a laughable incident which took place at the Wilsonville ferry last week, says a correspondent in the Oregon City Courier. Some time ago a young man—or rather a boy—crossed the ferry. He had no money, so the ferryman took his boots, which were nearly new, and sent him off barefoot. Last week the boy, accompanied by his father said, "I will not pay until you return my boy's boots." "Yaw, yaw, I mus' haf my moneys, six bits." "No, no, fetch the boots." Whereupon the irate ferryman snatched off the old man's hat and ran back on the boat, the old man protesting, "Give me my hat. I cannot go bare-headed from this place." After a good bit of wrangling the old gent paid the six bits to redeem his hat. Then the boots were brought forth much the worse for wear.

MONEY.—Here is the situation told by a Willamette valley exchange. Money is very scarce here to some and not to others. The banks do not lend on real estate security but on a personal note, endorsed, for a limited time. Hence, a person with 500 acres of fine farming land is not able to borrow a dollar an acre on it at the banks though they might lend him $1000 on his note if he has the reputation of meeting his obligations at the time they are due; but if he has not, the banks would be inclined not to bother with him, for they exact promptitude in those whom they accommodate.

According to the dictionary butte is pronounced with the short sound of u, hence speaking of our neighbor you say Knox's but. This fact was recently learned by an erudite Linn county professor, and is worth consideration.

Both air and water abound in microbes, or germs of disease, ready to infect the debilitated system. To impart that strength and vigor necessary to resist the effect of these pernicious atoms, no tonic blood-purifier equals Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

MRS. GRAHAM'S Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream

Is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautiful. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind, and prevents sun burn and freckles, and black heads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00, at all druggists and hairdressers, or at Mrs. Gervase Graham's establishment, 103 Post street, San Francisco, where she treats ladies for all blemishes of the face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her little book "How to be Beautiful."

Sample Bottle mailed free to any lady on receipt of 10 cents in stamp to pay postage and packing. Lady agents wanted.
