GOOD EVENING

WHEAT, 88 CENTS.

CHURCH ON WHEELS.—Probably everybody has read of the chapel car "Evangel," which John D. Rockefeller and other wealthy Baptists recently presented to the American Baptist publication society for missionary work in the west.

FREIGHT RATES.—Among the complaints against the S. P. railroad before the R. R. Com. is one of overcharge on goods shipped from Astoria to Springfield.

A. O. U. W.—The following officers were elected at the regular meeting of Safety Lodge, No. 13, A. O. U. W. last evening:

THE VOTE yesterday was the largest ever cast in Albany, though, not by considerable, a complete one.

FIREMAN'S ELECTION OCCURS next Monday and promises to be an interesting affair.

WHEAT dropped to 88 cents today, and a general weakness seems prevalent; but whether permanent or not, it will take a prophet to tell.

HORSES STOLEN.—One sometimes has to go away from home for the news. Here is a case from the Prineville News:

CORINTHIAN LODGE A F & M elected the following officers at their meeting Saturday evening to serve for the ensuing year:

LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF HEATING STOVES.

MATHEWS & WILSON'S

A HOME WHITE LAUNDRY.—Those not wishing to employ Chinese laundry can have their work finished in a superior manner at the City Laundry.

"AMERICAN AGENTS"—The regular price of the American Agent is $1.50 per year.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Judge Whalley, of Portland, is in the city. Mr M. Sternburg left last evening on a trip to San Francisco.

A J. Wilson, the man who didn't throw the bomb, at Russell Sage, though it was reported that it was possible he was the man from a resemblance, was in Albany last year.

The social announced for Friday night at the Baptist church will be held on Thursday night instead, owing to the service in the Chapel Car "Evangel" on Friday evening, as elsewhere mentioned.

Numerous changes have recently been made at the S. P. depot since Mr Jester resigned his position here.

The ballots for the successful ticket at Lebanon were headed Farmers Alliance, though it was the ticket opposed to the anti-license ticket.

Occasionally you hear thoughtless men remark that the republicans do all the scratching in elections, that the democrats vote straight tickets.

In a number of cases in the city election names were written without scratching out the other candidate, the intent being to vote for the former; but the law is plain on the subject, that neither name shall be counted.

THE LEBANON ELECTION.—At the election in Lebanon yesterday 150 votes were cast. The contest was an exciting one.

BAZAR.—The ladies of the Congregational church are busily engaged making preparations for the Bazaar entertainment to be given at the Opera House Friday next.

WAGERS TO GO.—Go to Parker Bros for eggs, oil and vegetables.

Don't go to the trouble of running all over the city, but go directly to Conn & Henderson and get what you want in the GROCERY line.

At Will & Stark's May be seen the finest stock of gold and silver watches, diamond and other rings, jewelry, silverware, &c. in the city.

CON STIPATION.

Affects half the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarsaparilla that acts on the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla.

Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Must modern, most effective, largest bottle same price, $1.00, $2.00 for $3.00.

THE ELECTION.

The election yesterday, notwithstanding the heavy rain and wind, was a lively one, a good vote being polled, though it is probable quite a number of votes were not polled.

Table with columns: 1ST WARD, 2ND WARD, 3RD WARD, TOTAL. Candidates include C. H. Stewart, W. C. Tweedale, Chas. Pfeiffer, Omer Henderson, Jason Wheeler, J. J. Graham.

MONEY TO LOAN.—I have money in sums of $500 to $20,000 to loan on improved farm lands in Linn and Benton counties, at lowest current rates.

Klein Beck have a large and choice stock of boots and shoes for sale at reasonable prices.

Remember F. M. French can show you a fine line of holiday goods, including gold and silver watches, silverware, jewelry, gold spectacles, canes and umbrellas, opera glasses, knives, forks and spoons, etc.

Conn & Underwood, successors to Whelan, are prepared to do first-class photographic work at their gallery on Second and Perry streets. Give them a trial.

No man likes to be bored to death, either in hearing about a thing or in being fooled in a poor article. On this theory we shall briefly refer to our elegant stock of CLOTHING.
