FIREMAN'S ELECTION.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT there will be an election held in a city of Albany on Monday, the 14th of December, 1891, for the purpose of electing a Chief and Assistant Chief Engineer of the Albany Fire Department, serve one year. Said election to be held between the hours of 1 o'clock and 6 o'clock p m, in the hall of Albany Engine Co. No. 1. Dated this 1st day of Dec., 1891. L M CURRI, M D PHILLIPS, Secretary.

NOTICE TO STOCK-HOLDERS.

Notice is hereby given that the annual stock holders meeting of the Farmers & Merchants Insurance Company of Albany, Linn county, Oregon, will be held at this company's office in the city of Albany, Oregon, on Wednesday, January 8th, 1892, at the hour of 2 o'clock p m of said day, for the purpose of electing nine directors of said company, to serve for one year, and to transact any other business as may regularly come before said meeting. By order of the President! Dated December 1st, 1891. J. O. WHITMAN Secretary.

No graver mistake could be made by democrats than to loosen the obligation by which they are pledged to secure a radical reform in the present robber tariff scheme. To waver now in the great contest, merely to strengthen some candidate for the presidency, would bring certain, swift, inevitable defeat. If the democratic party should waver one jot or tittle in its heretofore unselfish purpose to reduce the tariff to a revenue basis, then, while unswerving democratic reformers might not laugh when overwhelming defeat came upon it, yet they would feel that it had met the just retribution visited upon it for its cowardice and unfaithfulness. But all talk about the election of Crisp to the speakership being an indication of a return to Randalism is all folly and bosh. Crisp is just as true and ardent in his devotion to tariff reduction as Mr Mills. But the DEMOCRAT would expect and hope for the defeat of the party if it should now desert its tariff views.

ORGANIC CHANGE

All attempts of democratic and Hermann papers to draw some expression out of Mr Geer have failed so far.—Salem Journal.

Indeed! when the time comes that nothing in the way of "expression" in words, (in words mind you,) can not be drawn from Geer, the Garrulous, then may we reasonably conclude that some radical, some organic change has occurred affecting his mental or moral make up. The idea, that, for a single moment, the Garrulous is without a "diarrhea" of words is too absurd for serious consideration. I Geer will not talk it is because he has lost the power of speech. That is the only comfort in the matter for the Journal.

The Albany DEMOCRAT, Portland Telegram, Pendleton East Oregonian, Wasco Sun and other democratic papers that now oppose free silver coinage, as being bad policy, are respectively asked to publish the silver plank of their late democratic platform.—Salem Journal.

The DEMOCRAT will cheerfully comply upon the condition that the Journal will first get the leading republican papers of this state, such as the Oregonian, Statesman, Plaindealer, Pendleton Tribune and State Journal to publish the silver plank in the last republican state platform of this state.

The country is now to be subjected to a new class of "calamity croakers" of which the New York Tribune is the representative and fit leader in the east, and the Oregonian on the western slope. These "calamity croakers," after years of zealous and industrious effort to down Governor Hill by any means, fair or foul, have now attempted to frighten people into support of their bitter and unrelenting war against that indomitable democratic leader by denouncing him as "the most dangerous man in public life in the United States today." Well, he is dangerous; dangerous to the further domination of the republican party. And this is all these croakers mean, and it is this fact that disturbs their very souls.

The executive committee of the national democratic committee met in Washington Tuesday, and issued a call for a meeting of the national committee to be held at the Arlington hotel in Washington, January 21st, to decide upon the time and place for the holding the next national convention.

At Will & Stark's May be seen the finest stock of gold and silver watches, diamond and other rings, jewelry, silverware, &c, in the city.
