MINUTES

The Oregonian endorses the new speaker of the house of representatives. On a very neat calendar, containing a picture of its new block, are the words: "Bright, Crisp," etc. All great men.

The costumes for Belshazzar, which were examined this afternoon, were found to be as represented. They are elegant ones, many of them being entirely new, those of the head characters particularly being rich.

Albany has a first class white laundry, the proprietor of which has had an experience of twenty-five years. The Man About Town can vouch for the good work done. It is as well, if not better, than that of any Celestial, has no Chinese smell, and the clothes are not washed around a pole. It is opposite the St Charles Hotel, and deserves a liberal patronage.

THE FIREMAN'S ELECTION is proceeding this afternoon. The certificates of the secretaries show that 39 members of No. 1's, 30 of No. 2's and 45 of the H & L Co. are entitled to vote. 114 in all. As active exemptions are not allowed to vote, and in fact are not contesting it, this does not show the total membership by considerable.

THE LADIES BAZAAR.—Do not buy your Christmas presents without calling at the Ladies Bazaar, where there is a large and elegant stock of novelties suitable for the holiday trade. Some one will receive a Christmas present of an elegant French doll, one of the prettiest ever seen in Albany, now on exhibition at the Bazaar.

A HOME WHITE LAUNDRY.—Those not wishing to employ Chinese laundry work can have their work finished in a superior manner at the City Laundry, without sending it away from the city. Branch office at Birch's barber shop.

Now, what are you waiting for? Why not get right in and go Klein Bros, and buy goods from them for these tickets are nearly gone. Remember that is a very beautiful piano and who knows who will get it.
