I recommend it as superior to any prescription

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and beneficial so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep 'Castoria' within easy reach."

'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

NO Impurities in Royal Baking Powder.

It is the only baking powder yet found by chemical analysis to be free from all impurities and absolutely pure. This perfect purity results from the exclusive use of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes which totally remove all the tartrate of lime. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and it is used in no baking powder except the "Royal."

Dr. Edward G. Love, formerly analytical chemist for the U. S. Government, who made the analyses for the New York State Board of Health in their investigation of baking powders, says of the purity and wholesomeness of the "Royal":

"I find the Royal Baking Powder composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substance.
(Late U. S. Gov't Chemist) "E. G. LOVE, PH. D."

Prof. Love's tests, and the recent official tests by the United States and Canadian Governments, show the Royal Baking Powder to be superior to all others in strength and leavening power.

It is actually economy to drink Beech's Tea. Being absolutely pure, it is much stronger than the artificial teas, about one third less of it, or about twenty grains, being equal per cup. As there are 7,680 grains to a pound, there will be seen to be between three and four hundred cups to the pound. As it is but 60 cents per pound, this is at the rate of about one fifth of a cent per cup. For sale at Allen Bros.

and Newt Warmouth. A light vote was polled.

Chandler are to be married this evening, so Dame rumor has said. We wish them success.

R M Brandley, S W; O P Coshow, J W; R N Thompson, treasurer; C E Stanard, fever.

We see by the session laws of 1891, an act commonly known as the Australian ballot system. Sec 2, of this act reads thus: It shall be the duty of the county court in the several counties of the state at the regular term in January preceding the general election to set off and establish election precincts within the county, etc. No wise and say, may it please the court, the proper place to divide Brownsville precinct is with the meanderings of the Calapooia River, this would give near 200 votes on either side of said river. Will you do it, gentlemen.

Cured of Neuralgia.
Lottie L. Dorean, East View, Westchester Co., N. Y., writes:

"I have been a great sufferer with pains in the back of my head, worse than any headache. I could not reach it with internal medicines at all and during the cold weather I have suffered excruciatingly. I finally thought I would try an Alcock's Plaster applied to the nape of my neck. In less than half a day the pain entirely ceased."

There were 19 votes cast in the Lebanon election.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Three Missing People

SEATTLE, Dec 15.—Bernard Noble, a prominent young man of Tolt, has disappeared and the whole community is greatly excited.
He is about 24 years old and a prosperous rancher. About a year ago, he sold his farm to C. W. Webster, his wife's father, and Dec.
1 he started from his home to go through the woods to his father-in-law's place, to collect interest due on the mortgage on the farm.
He has not been seen since. Webster says his son-in-law never came to his place, and parties are out searching the woods for him.
This disappearance is made the more exciting because of the strange disappearance of Jack Belshay, also a Tolt rancher. He came to Seattle three weeks ago, sold a lot for $1000 and collected $400 insurance on Good Templars' hall, which had recently been burned.
He has a valuable farm at Tolt, and it is not thought he has absconded. It is also reported that a Mrs Pingree, a wife of a hop raiser living seven miles south of Tolt, is among the missing, having been gone several days.

The Missing Crew.

MARSHFIELD, Or Dec 15.—From the time the dismantled wreck of the Maggie Ross was towed into Yaquina Bay the only topic has been, what has become of the crew of four men, five of whom have already been accounted for in previous dispatches. Nine days have passed since she crossed out over the Coos Bay bar for San Francisco. The story of her experience already related in these dispatches is substantially corroborated by Captain George Marshall, who has just arrived from the Umpqua accompanied by four of his crew, the other five having remained at Gardiner.

An Electric Strike.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 15.—The strike of the telegraph operators on the Southern Pacific division of Southern Pacific Company began at 10 o'clock this morning, but it is not yet known how many men are actually out. There are from 600 to 800 operators on the Southern Pacific system, but it is not known what proportion of that number are members of the Telegraphic Brotherhood.
The Southern Pacific claims that but a small percentage of the number on their system are members.

A New Brigadier General.

SALEM, Or Dec 15.—Governor Pennoyer today appointed General H B Compton, of Linkville, Klamath county, brigadier general of the Oregon National Guard to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of General J C Schoffner. He is to hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. Nearly five years ago, Governor Pennoyer appointed General Compton major general under the old law, and this was then the highest office in the state militia. Brigadier general is now the highest office. General Compton is county judge of Klamath county.

A Peculiar Railroad Accident.

LONDON, Dec 15.—There was a serious railroad accident at Accrington, Lancashire nineteen miles from Manchester, on the Yorkshire & Lancashire railway, today. A freight train overran the stops and burst into the wall of the freight depot. The building collapsed, burying several people in the ruins.
One dead body has been recovered from the ruins, and many persons rescued who were injured by the accident. The search of the ruins continues.
