Best Lecture in the city.

A NEW ORGANIZATION.—Several well known men have received the following notice which shows how the organization is effected and explains itself.

Headquarters Amalgamated Association of Lairs, Albany, Oregon.

Mr. DEAR SIR:

It having officially come to the knowledge of this Association that as a liar you are without a peer in the west, and your record as a single handed liar having been thoroughly investigated and found to fully sustain your general reputation, and your character for mendacity warranting us in our action, this Society has conferred upon you the honorary degree of L. in C. of T. P., meaning 'Liar in Chief of the Pacific,' and you are hereby appointed 'Grand Delinver' or 'lying for the State of Oregon,' with headquarters at Albany, Oregon, and assigned to the staff of the Grand Liar of the Universe, as Aide-in-Chief.

Approved: By order of His Majesty, The G. L. of the U.

ANANIAS, Secretary.

MULHATTON, Grand Lecturer.

In the matter of the estate of C. O. Patton, bond of administrator filed and approved and J. H. Washburn, Porter Elmore, and G. C. Cooley be appointed appraisers.

In the matter of the estate of Jeushua Moore, final account approved and administrator discharged.

In the matter of the estate of Alexander Downing, Geo. Humphrey appointed guardian ad litem for the minor heirs, guardian filed answer and order made to sell real estate as prayed for.

In the matter of the estate and guardianship of H. G. Spencer, a minor, annual account filed and approved.

In the matter of the estate of Mary J. Burkhardt, citation ordered issued to F. A. Burkhardt citing him to appear at 10 o'clock a. m. Jan. 4, 1892, and show cause, if any, why the order heretofore made appointing him administrator of said estate should not be revoked and George Humphrey appointed.

UPS AND DOWNS.—The official census shows the following increases in population in Linn county between 1880 and 1890: Brownsville precinct, 39; city, 447; Fox Valley, 94; Franklin Butte, 319; Liberty, 16; Orleans, 7; Santiam, 323; Scio city, 69; Shield city, 309; Sweet Home, 295; Waterloo, 325; Sodaville, 6. A decrease of 106 is given Brush Creek; 164 Halsey precinct and 36 city; 315 Harrisburg precinct. As several new precincts have been formed the figures may not fully explain the situation in every case.

A GOOD RECOMMENDATION.—According to the official census, Harrisburg's population decreased 9 from 1880 to 1890. A gentleman from there tells us there is not a vacant house in the place. It has lost a few previous to last year. It has gained a good many since. Sheriff Scott informs us that there is not a cent of delinquent tax due in the precinct, among present residents there, a rare recommendation for its thrifty residents in view of the size of the delinquent list.

A BOYS' SUIT.—Several days ago two boys, residing opposite Corvallis, having a grudge or something else, against another boy, S. B. White, whipped him in a manner to leave the signs of the combat. White swore out a warrant for the arrest of the two boys, and this afternoon they were being tried before Justice Coshov and a jury of six peers. Like all such cases this one has two sides.

A NEW TOWN.—County Surveyor Culver, Douglas Minto and Henry George, the baseball player start on the 11 a. m. train for a point on the Santiam river on the O. P. railroad half way between Gatesville and Niagara, to lay off a town. The owners of the townsite are Harry and Douglas Minto and they have not named it yet.—Journal.

HOLIDAY GOODS.—A fine line of holiday goods may be seen at G. L. Blackman's. His plush goods particularly are fine, embracing a variety of handsome articles, which should be seen by all buying holiday goods. After a prosperous season the citizens of Linn county will desire to present their friends with the best to be obtained. Mr. Blackman can accommodate them with as fine a line of holiday goods as is to be seen anywhere.

THE KEY TO SUCCESS.—That is what we all want. It is not luck, for there is no such thing. It is principally being careful about small things, for instance, the buying of the best quality of groceries, fruits and produce for family use, at the smallest cost. This counts in the long run. Those who deal with Conn & Henderson report bargains both in quality and price. They also have a fine line of crockery ware, toys, etc., suitable for the holiday trade, which it will pay the public to call and see before buying.

THE LADIES' BAZAAR.—Do not buy your Christmas presents without calling at the Ladies Bazaar, where there is a large and elegant stock of novelties suitable for the holiday trade. Some one will receive a Christmas present of an elegant French doll, one of the prettiest ever seen in Albany, now on exhibition at the Bazaar.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Arch Allen went to Salem this noon.

Miss Estella Stites of Eugene, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. G. L. Blackman returned this noon from a trip to Portland.

Miss Sedgwick, one of the teachers in the public schools is sick with a gripple. Mrs. Thrall wields the birch in her place.

Frank Power, a graduate of the Albany college, now in an abstract office in Whatcomb, Wash., was in the city today on his way to Brownsville, on a visit with his brother.

Last evening an interesting eloquent occurred from this city. Owens McMahon, aged about 20, an employe in the woolen mills, and Miss Cora Owens, a sixteen year old girl, bought tickets for Sacramento and left on the overland for that place, without previous announcement.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—This well-known play, as given in Fargo Monday night and in Moorhead last evening, by the Midaugh, Pfaff & Goodwin Co., was a noticeable variance from Uncle Tom's Cabin, as generally thought of by the public, says a paper of that city. Those who attended the entertainments above mentioned were agreeably surprised at excellence of the performance. Many attractions in the way of specialties were introduced during the play, and especially between acts, notable among which were: Mamma's Baby, by the well-known comedian; Charles Alexander's musical act; the great child dancer, Miss Lizzie Mosher, and the Essence of Old Virginia, a dance characteristic, by Miss Edna Clare. These specialties by themselves are well worth seeing. Mrs. Jessie Midaugh rendered a vocal solo in a charming manner, which elicited applause. Henry Pfaff's cornet solo was a feature of the evening, and he was compelled to almost tire himself out in meeting the demands of the audience. "I am a lawyer, and my name is Marks," as reiterated by Billy Woods, was simply great, and his makeup and acting in this part were perfect. Taken as a whole, or in parts, this company is far above the average, and they are certainly deserving of their seeming success. In addition, an excellent orchestra accompanies the company, their overture at the beginning of the performance being roundly applauded, and with the fine uniforms in which they appear, and splendid music, their daily street parade is fine, and never fails to attract the attention of admirers of good music. At the Opera House next Monday evening.

BRIDGE WORK.—Today the bridge contractors bought 250 ferry tickets and began hauling gravel for the first and second piers of the bridge on this side of the river. The casing for the fourth pier has been sunk, and work is being pushed generally.

BIG POTATOES.—Mr. Mespelt brought five bushels of potatoes to Albany today, every one of which weighed two pounds or more. He received double price for them on that condition.

THOSE FINE CHRISTMAS SLIPPERS at Klein Bros. are so tasty and neat that Jay Gould would be proud to wear them. But remember about that piano. When after Christmas you find out that some one has really become the possessor of that piano for only a few dollars you will never forgive yourself. But ask Klein Bros. about it. Don't wait now.

At the Indian school at Chemawa, there are twenty-one boys and twenty-four girls on the sick list, the majority of whom suffer from a gripple. The only death during the recent spell of sickness was a Hoopa valley Indian, who died from pneumonia.
