BELSHAZZAR TO-NIGHT.

BELSHAZZAR A SUCCESS.—A large and delighted audience witnessed the presentation of the cantata Belshazzar at the opera house last night. It was probably the greatest amateur success in the history of the city. It was presented smoothly and without hitch.

A FAMILY DISTURBANCE.—Shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the screams of women attracted a crowd to the stairway leading to the upper story over Squire Farrar & Co's and Gilbert & Patton's store.

A RUNAWAY FERRY BOAT.—This forenoon, when the ferry boat at this city was in the middle of the stream, the cable gave away at a point where it had been spliced and the boat floated down stream.

HEAVY INDEBTEDNESS.—County Clerk Payne, at the request of the State Board of Equalization, has footed up the total amount of mortgages on real property in this state. The figures are not pleasant to contemplate.

THE KEY TO SUCCESS.—That is what we all want. It isn't luck, for there is no such thing. It is principally being careful about small things.

THE LADIES BAZAAR.—Do not buy your Christmas presents without calling at the Ladies Bazaar, where there is a large and elegant stock of novelties suitable for the holiday trade.

OLD PEOPLE.—J. V. S. is the only Sarsaparilla that old or feeble people should take, as the mineral potash which is in every other Sarsaparilla does not enter of, is under certain conditions known to be enervating.

AT WILL & STARK'S.—May be seen the finest stock of gold and silver watches, diamond and other rings, jewelry, silverware, etc., in the city.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Wm. Cyrus, of Seio, is visiting in the city.
Editor Bert Van Cleave, of the Toledo Post, is in the city.

CONNY SUPERINTENDENT.—Bessett went to Boise today to attend a local institute there. Also Miss Eva Williamson.

MR. GREEN McDONALD, of Seio, a veteran of the Cayuse war, who on occasions thought his time had come, was in the city today.

MR. AND MRS. J. A. GROSS are now at Los Angeles, and a letter from Mr. Gross to an Albany friend states that he is in good health and having a good time in glorious winter weather.

TEST CURRAN arrived in Albany yesterday from the Sound, and is the guest of his brother, C. A. Curran. He will remain a week or two.

REV. S. G. IVINE went to Portland this noon and will preach there on Sabbath. Tomorrow he will visit with his son, O. H. Irvine, in McMinnville.

A FUNNY ITEM.—A "funny" item comes from Dallas, according to a Salem ex. The other day Taylor Dunn was selling a feed-chopper and, while exhibiting the good qualities of the machine in question, he slipped his finger too far under the chopper, which, in its descent, nipped off the tip end of the finger.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—A good audience greeted the New Orleans Company in the opera house last evening when they produced that time-honored drama "Uncle Tom's Cabin," dramatized from the book of that name, and which need to rivet our attention in youth's bright summer days.

THE KEY TO SUCCESS.—That is what we all want. It isn't luck, for there is no such thing. It is principally being careful about small things.

THE LADIES BAZAAR.—Do not buy your Christmas presents without calling at the Ladies Bazaar, where there is a large and elegant stock of novelties suitable for the holiday trade.

KELOGG SCHOOL.—The Kellogg school of dress cutting at corner of West and Baker in the Ralston house is now open. Lessons not limited. Ladies are invited to call and examine the system.

FINE SUITINGS.—Mr. W. R. Graham has just received a fine line of suitings from the East, which are as fine as anything every brought here, embracing the latest patterns.

OLD PEOPLE.—J. V. S. is the only Sarsaparilla that old or feeble people should take, as the mineral potash which is in every other Sarsaparilla does not enter of, is under certain conditions known to be enervating.

HEALTHY.—Mrs. Holden an estimable and elderly lady of 80 years of age, S. F., was for months declining rapidly as to seriously alarm her family.

MINNITS

Our exchanges have published lists of heavy tax payers for nearly all the counties of Oregon. It is an interesting fact that in only one of them has the name of an editor been seen.

THE HARRISBURG COURIER makes an attack on the car Evangel, and its manager, recently in this city, which is entirely uncalled for and very small in spirit.

S. P. COSTELLO applied for a license to sell liquor in North Salem, not a part of the city, publishing the petition in a Stayton paper. This was found out by the people of the precinct and a remonstrance was presented to the county court with 371 names, while there were only 234 on the petition.

THIS IS AN AGE OF INVENTION. One could tell blindfolded that the following invention, a peculiar one, came from San Francisco. Geo. Y. S. Wada is the genius, and the invention is simply a toy, which is so constructed that two jointed figures, representing prize fighters, may be caused, by the working of certain levers, to make the movements of actual prize fighters engaged in a contest with one another.

LEBANON.—The Compton brothers, of Albany, have bought two lots from Dr. Courtney, west of the railroad, and each will build a dwelling house.

AT THE LAST MEETING OF THE A. F. and A. M., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: E. E. Hanscock, W. M.; Dr. C. M. Duckett, S. W.; J. C. Gordon, J. W.; F. M. Miller, secretary; Dr. J. S. Courtney, treasurer.

THE ONE INDUSTRY above all others which is needed in Lebanon is a flouring mill. Families living within four miles of this place go to Albany for their mail and while there make their purchases.

MARRIED, at the home of the bride's father, in Waterloo, Wednesday, Dec. 15, T. L. Rice and Miss Hattie Gross. Both parties are well and favorably known in Linn county.

HOLIDAY GOODS.—A fine line of holiday goods may be seen at G. L. Blackman's. His plush goods particularly are fine, embracing a variety of handsome articles, which should be seen by all buying holiday goods.

WHAT A TASTY appearance that piano at Klein Bros. would give your parlor. That young daughter of yours would be too proud of it. Go and ask Klein Bros. about it. Really it will cost you but a few dollars. This is no joke. Go and see them.
