ALBANY VS. JEFFERSON.—Saturday afternoon a shooting match occurred on the grounds near the depot between the members of the Mascot club of this city, and ten members of the Jefferson club, each firing at twenty clay pigeons. Following was the score, by which it will be seen that Albany won.

Table with scores for Albany and Jefferson in a shooting match.

ANOTHER DECISION.—Rev. Boerson has shown the DEMOCRAT a copy of a decision rendered at Freeport, Ill., by Judge Shaw, in which the rights of the Dubs faction of the Evangelical church are vindicated and established. It declares the Philadelphia conference to have been the legal conference, as against the Indianapolis conference, the former being the conference favorable to Dubs, the latter to Esler and Bowman. The decision covers a page and a half, and though not in its entirety gratifying to the Dubs faction, of which Mr. Boerson is the presiding elder in this district, the DEMOCRAT has never taken sides in the matter, and simply publishes this as a matter of news.

THE SAME GREENWOOD.—The Baker City Democrat refers to a former Albany man as follows: The Democrat feels sorry for Greenwood, a depot saloon man, whose time is so valuable that he suffered "such a great discomfiture to himself and business," by walking down to the city hall Tuesday evening to find out that a meeting of the common council would not be held. This individual's application for a license was refused at the last meeting of the council on the grounds of insufficient bonds. We might go further and state that Greenwood might consider himself lucky if he secures a license at all.

ALBANY REPRESENTED.—Albany is not generally far behind her neighbors. Today she sent her first subject to the new reform school. On complaint of Mrs. Heffron, Thomas Marie Heffron, aged 10 1/2 years was taken before his honor, Recorder Heuston, and committed to the school for five years. Marshal Hoffman left for Salem on the noon train with the boy, so sad that his mother, a widow, could do nothing with him. This is No. 2 from this county, Brownsville having sent No. 1.

A CROOKED TRANSACTION.—Saturday man, giving his name as L. A. Walker, fired a gun of Deyoes & Froman Bros., leading to reside near Albany. He took the gun to the Waverly house, where he sold it for considerably less than it was worth. Deyoes & Froman Bros. became suspicious of him and learned of the fact, when the man was arrested, and will be detained before Justice Coshaw tomorrow morning. He gave his name today as Michael Smith. What it will be tomorrow cannot be guessed.

ROBERT JOHN'S DEAD.—Last Saturday at Portland, Robert Johns, the well-known pioneer resident of Linn county, died in a hospital in that city after a long illness of a cancer of the stomach, at the age of 67 years. He was born in England, and came to Oregon across the plains in 1837, and has since resided most of the time in Oregon, though he has been in California considerably. He was a bachelor, and left relatives in Minneapolis, but none in Oregon. By strict frugality Mr. Johns had accumulated a fortune of about $50,000.

A YAMHILL HORSE.—A horse recently stolen in Yamhill county, and probably brought this way, is described as a light bay horse, 7 years old, white in forehead and white strip on nose, with saddle marks on back, weight 850 lbs. The man who it is supposed took the animal is Frank McDonald, 35 years old, sandy complexion, 5 feet 8 1/2 inches tall, dressed in slacks and stoga boots, claims to be a surveyor. A liberal reward is offered for him or horse.

A GUN ACCIDENT AT YAQUINA.—While hunting along the Yaquina River, near Yaquina city yesterday, Dell Savage, of this city met with an accident that will make him limber for several weeks. He was pointing towards a diver with his right hand for a friend with him to shoot, when he let his gun fall down, with his left hand, and in so doing the gun went off just as the muzzle pointed towards his left foot. A 22 calibre ball passed through the foot. Dr. Davis, of Yaquina, dressed the wound.

THE ORPHAN'S HOME was accepted today from the contractor, J. H. Campbell so as completed. As soon as painted and the furnace expected before this, is received, the home and hospital will be occupied. Already there is a demand for use.

LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF EATING STOVES.—MATTHEWS & WASHBURN'S

Joe Lane, of Halsey, was in the city today.

Mr. Peter Wilson went to MHI City this afternoon.

The Misses May, of Harrisburg, have been in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blair.

Mrs. Bair and Mrs. Kighten, of Peoria, are in the city, the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Major Johnson.

Mrs. Kitchin and daughter, Dean, returned Tuesday from a visit to her father, Mr. Wheeler, in Albany.

Rev. H. W. Young went to East Portland today to make arrangements for his work there. He will be pastor of a new congregational church just organized there, and besides preaching, will study under Rev. Clapp.

THAT GOLDEN WEDDING.—Recently the DEMOCRAT published a poem read at the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Smith at Oakville. The Salem Statesman mentions the wedding as follows: At the family home in Linn county, four miles above Corvallis, on December 29th last, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Smith celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding. They were married a half century ago—December 29, 1841, in Washington county, Iowa. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Alexander Young, and the person who at that time pronounced Isaac N. Smith and Nancy S. Young husband and wife was Wm. Hinckson, justice of the peace. The result of this union was nine children, seven of whom are living and all of whom—except Dr. J. N. Smith, of this city—were present at the golden anniversary. Dr. J. C. Smith, of this city, is another son. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who have just passed the fiftieth mile post in their married life, are enjoying good health, Mr. Smith being in his 80th year and Mrs. Smith in her 76th.

TURNER EXCITED.—The attention of the honorable county court was given Saturday to a hearing of the petition and remonstrance in the matter of the application of R. M. Thompson for license to sell liquor in less quantity than one gallon in Turner precinct for a period of six months says the Statesman. The matter came for hearing Saturday squarely on the merits of petition and remonstrance. W. M. Kaiser appeared for the petitioner and B. F. Bonham and J. P. Robertson for the remonstrants. Thirty-five witnesses were examined for the former and thirty-six for the latter. The action of the court in refusing the license was a clear victory for the temperance element of Turner. The court held that the petition fell six names short, nearly all of Turner was named Saturday on this case, being interested on one side or the other of the matter.

WILL BE CONTESTED.—The county court of Baker county is of the opinion that in the case wherein the State of Oregon is plaintiff and the County of Baker is defendant, the former will come out second best in the contest or in other words will be "in the soup" for the amount of something like $120,000, claimed as delinquent taxes due the state. Mr. Olsstead and H. E. Courtney have been retained by that county.

TONIGHT.—Prof. Rork will deliver an address in the interest of the Farmers Alliance at the court house tonight at 7 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

OREGON DEMOCRACY.

PORTLAND, OR., JAN. 11th, 1892.

Editors Democrat:

The organization of democratic clubs throughout this state is timely and will prove a great help in preparing for the political campaigns that are coming slowly but surely upon us. The issues that will be made by the two great political parties will be in themselves the most interesting and weighty that have been before our people for years. To solve the political problems involved will require patient study and a learned and forcible presentation of them. To be masters of the situation the democracy must make themselves familiar in detail with every political issue. The club rooms should not only be opened for reading and discussion, but should be the resort of every democrat who will labor for the promotion of democratic measures. The most intelligible democratic newspaper will rule the reader. One great question will be the tariff and but few of our newspaper writers seem to comprehend the subject. The coming will be a campaign of intellect against mud throwing of the past. Of this great tariff question there is no better exponent in or out of Oregon than the Albany DEMOCRAT. Tariff articles and tariff discussions that have filled the columns of the DEMOCRAT have been the ablest presented in our state. And it is a source of just pride to the democrat who reasons to find an editor among us who can expose the sophistry of the supercilious Oregonian on this subject. For it is a fact well understood, that for great pretensions, masterly false and reckless statements, plausible platitudes, and consummate ignorance of the subject of a high protection tariff, the editor of the Oregonian, as its champion in Oregon, is an amusing attraction. In the approaching contest he will find his level, and be no longer considered the Thomson of reason on the tariff issue by his heretofore thoughtless readers. He has become very transparent. The DEMOCRAT has done more to enlighten the newspaper reader on this subject than any other paper, and it is to be hoped that its influence may be extended all over the state. In the DEMOCRAT there has yet to appear a falsification of history or perversion in statement on this subject. Here is where the DEMOCRAT has the advantage in carrying conviction with its reasoning. It is the duty of democrats to extend the area of usefulness of the DEMOCRAT upon this issue depends our success. We speak from the card, for we have read with greater satisfaction criticisms and leading articles on the tariff in the Albany DEMOCRAT than in any other paper. And we venture this is the verdict of its many readers. It should go into every democratic family and be on the table of every democratic orator.
