ASTORIA OR SALEM.—Here is an interesting little spot from the Town Talk of Astoria: The Salem Journal, in reviewing the financial status of Salem, says: "There are cities in Oregon with not over a third of the population of Salem that have fully as expensive a city government as Astoria, and near the population of Salem, has a city government that costs twice as much." The Talk will wager that the writer of the above is a new comer, and has never been in Astoria; that he knows nothing of this city or its people. With all the extravagant habits that our public officials possess, if it came to a matter of exchange we would not swap one of them for a dozen of the kickers and cormorants that surround the jameless capital. We have moushucks, but they are daisies compared with the faded old soreheads who live in the beautiful graveyard of Salem. The population of Salem may be swelled a little by the inmates of the penitentiary and insane asylum, but even with this addition she lacks many a peck of reaching the population of Astoria. Get off the perch, You're not in it.

THE R R WILL HELP.—The following from the Prineville News is a good illustration of the confidence of people in a railroad to assist in building up a country: Prineville is now, and has always been, a market and supply depot for a large scope of country. We expect a railroad in the near future, and following that will come an influx of population that we have never experienced. In the past few years the great trend of immigration to this state has been in what are usually called the favored portions of Oregon. We mean that they have settled principally in the Willamette valley and along the Columbia river in the northern part of the state, but now the attention of this swarming immigration is being directed to the interior or inland grass portion of our own Inland Empire. We expect a benefit from this forthcoming run of immigration. We believe there are great things in store for Crook county.

CREDIT COURT.—The following new cases have been begun: Monteith & Seitenbach agt C W Houston, Recovery of money. H H Hewitt, attorney for plaintiff. Louis Blumauer and Emil Frank agt W J and B E Davenport, Foreclosure, mortgage. J K Weatherford, attorney for plaintiff. R S Sabin agt A J Aehison, Recovery of money. J K Weatherford, attorney for plaintiff. H A France agt Orville France, Divorce. Blackburn & Watson, attorneys for plaintiff.

A FIGHTER.—Mr Gus Brown, now of Salem, writes an Albany man in reference to a match here, either in fighting or wrestling. Mr Brown claims to be the recognized champion light weight pugilist of the coast, and champion of 126 to 128 catch as catch can wrestler of America. He has won 75 battles and 100 wrestling matches. Here is a chance for some ambitious pugilist or wrestler to get done up brown.

ALL ROADS TO ALBANY.—Let's have all roads lead to Pendleton. Good roads pay says the E. O. The idea is a good one. Already nearly all railroads lead to Albany, cars coming from five directions, and we should also be ambitious in reference to our other thoroughfares. The roads leading into Albany should be made a credit to the gem city of the valley.

WIFE BEATER FINED.—Yesterday afternoon, learning that there was a warrant issued for his arrest for assaulting his wife, Elias Crewse, appeared by attorney, before Recorder Henton and paid a fine of $10 and costs. It is to be hoped Elias, nor any one else in Albany, ever does such a thing again.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr Thos Brink, the furniture dealer, has sold his furniture and business to Mr H F Merrill, in whose name the business will be run for the present.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.—Every man is the farmer of his own fortune and the harvest he reaps is entirely due to his own perseverance and industry. If properly sown, there is not one seed that promises him better returns than saving a dollar by buying groceries where you can always depend on the best goods and lowest prices. This you can do by dealing with Parker Bros., who always have on hand a large and select stock of groceries and baked goods. Try them.

F W Achison & Co handle the celebrated Portland cement walls for cemetery lots. These walls can be furnished at half the cost of any other and are far superior.

Ladies, do you wish your hair to stay in curl, if so get a bottle of French curling at Mrs Hyman's.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Geo Finley, of Crawfordsville, is in the city today. W L Jones, Jefferson's expert wing shot, is in the city. Mr Ike Hyman, the old time clothing merchant, of San Francisco, is in the city. F B Marshall, Perry Conn, Dr Lheniger and J R Whittney are hunting ducks in southern Lin.

Mr Jasper Galifford, wife and daughter, of Albany, made a short visit here the first of the week. They have just returned from a trip to California.—Eugene Register.

Fifteen or twenty three linkers went to Corvallis today to institute a new encampment there to fight. J F Backensto will have charge of the exercises.

Sherril Mackey, of Corvallis, and J W Bradford, of Seal Rock, were in Albany today on their way home from the mountains, where they had been trailing Ed Scott, the escaped prisoner from the Benton jail. They got as far as Independence, and were satisfied Scott had been there; but he had too much of a start. They experienced some tough walking in snow half crust.

WHAT A MERE DID.—The annual meeting of the Upper Willamette Lumber Manufacturers' Association was held in this city last Saturday, and J C Goodale was re-elected president and A Wheeler secretary. Many have considered the past season a quiet one in the matter building, but the sales of the association last year amounted to $32,000 as compared with $29,000 in 1890, and $41,000 in 1889.—Eugene Register.

KEEPING THE DEVIL BACK.—About half a dozen teams made up the Chinese funeral procession this afternoon. The ceremonies at the cemetery were after the usual Celestial fashion, many things described, including the scattering of burnt papers for the devil to jump through.

BE IN SEASON.—Spring comes early in Oregon. It is nearly here. If you would have a tailor made suit in season and in style call on Mr Schuller in L E Blain's tailoring department and get your measure taken for the best to be secured. A fine line of suitings just received. Stylish designs, staple goods, and fits guaranteed.

Young Miller, the son of Joaquin Miller, pleaded guilty to the charge of attempting to rob the United States mails in California, and was sentenced to two years' imprisonment at San Quentin. When that expires he will be brought back to complete his term in the Oregon penitentiary from which he escaped, and where he has about a year to serve yet.

CLEAN MEETING.—All members of the democratic club, and all who desire to become members, should come out to the court house this evening promptly at 7 o'clock.

A B is a big privilege to be able to get what you want when you go to a grocery store. Allen E Brothers keep such a variety of things that they can always accommodate their customers. This B saves running around. If it is fruit season they have the goods. If in produce their stands are full of the latest and best. Their E stock of standard groceries is always large, of the best to be secured in the market.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT.—But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think. The object of this is to make you think about the subject of groceries. Conn & Hendrickson keep a first-class stock, at bottom prices, and as well have a fine line of crockery ware. Think about it and call on them.

CALL AND SETTLE.—All persons indebted to G L Blackburn will please call and settle within ten days, as he expects to leave for Portland, and after then all accounts will be left for collection.

HORSES WANTED.—L Senders has just returned from San Francisco, and is now wanting to buy horses, weight from 1000 to 1100 pounds and from 1300 to 1500 pounds; age 5 to 8. Bring your horses or mares to Albany and you will find him at his feed and sale stable.

Mrs W R Blyen purchased a fine French burr walnut piano, of Will & Link of the popular J Bauer & Co manufacturer. If you are interested in fine pianos call on Will & Link, who handle only reliable instruments.

Fruits and Flowers published in Portland has begun its second volume. It is a credit to Oregon, and fruit raisers, and flower raisers too, and all who are interested in such things should support it by their patronage, a good rule would be to stand by the meritorious and set down on the worthless. Fruits and Flowers comes under the former in a decided manner.

DIED.

SMITH.—In Halsey, on Jan 11, 1892, Cora Baldwin, wife of W D Smith, aged 19 years, 5 months, 19 days. The deceased was a member of the U P church and was a young woman of estimable, christian character.

The San Francisco Examiner gets off the following, which will read like humor to most who peruse it: During the three months ending with December, forty-five deep water ships entered the port of Salem, Or. Forty of these sailed under the British flag, while only one flew the stars and stripes.

A Eugene man is having his hands full dodging creditors. The Guard says, Attorney Geo B Dorris, this afternoon, filed two more attachments again at the Markus cigar store, making the aggregate amount $6,300. He has also commenced a suit against Rose Nettle to set aside the transfer of the goods from Mrs Markus to her, alleging fraud; and also enjoining her from bringing action against Sheriff Noland for the possession of the property.

John Stanko, a well-known Hungarian, and Mrs Kobush were united in marriage on the 12th at Pueblo, Col., and were on their way home in a hack, accompanied by Andy Martin, who had officiated as best man at the wedding. When near the crossing of the avenue and the Santa Fe tracks, the driver noticed a passenger train approaching and attempted to pass in front of it. He succeeded in this but was struck by an engine going in an opposite direction. The hack was demolished and Martin and the bride thrown under the wheels of the engine. Both were badly mangled and cannot recover.

REMOVAL SALE.

On or about February 1st we will move our large stock of goods into the room formerly occupied by Monteith & Seitenbach, on the corner of 1st and Broadalbin Streets, opposite Samuel E. Young's store.

It is our aim to make this room a model clothing store and we have placed the same in the hands of experienced mechanics with instructions to finish the room per our plans with the least possible delay.

One of the main beauties of the store will be the light, this we have an abundance of, and the light of day will shine in upon our large and fine stock of goods. You will be able to distinguish the most delicate colors at any time during the day in any part of the store.

The room will be divided into seven distinct departments, viz: 1. Men's clothing. 2. Boys' clothing. 3. Children's clothing. 4. Furnishing goods. 5. Men's and Boys' hats. 6. Boots and Shoes. 7. Trunks and Valises.

In order to have the stock reduced as low as possible before removing we have decided to make the biggest reduction ever offered to the public by any clothing house in the city, ONE-FIFTH OFF, TWENTY PER CENT OFF the marked price which is in plain figures. This is a grand opportunity, and take advantage of it.
