"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osmond,
Lowell, Mass.
"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kinchloe,
Conway, Ark.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Archer, M. D.,
211 St. Charles St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of this preparation in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular medicine, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

The democracy as a rule are solid on tariff reform. The editor of a small local sheet published not a hundred miles from here, who thinks there are no differences between the democratic and republican parties on the tariff question, should increase the size of his name.

The object of this is to make you think about the subject of groceries. Conn & Henderson keep a first-class stock, at bottom prices, and as well have a fine line of crockery ware. A Slasher Caught.
NEW YORK, Jan 17.—"Jack, the Slasher," that mysterious individual, who since December 29, last, has amused himself, by cutting the throats of drunken men with a razor, and has been the terror of night travelers in the Fourth ward, was captured at an early hour this morning red-handed. He inveigled his victim, a drunken man, to an unfrequented street and then catching the man around the neck with one hand, with the other he drew a keen razor across his throat. He then slunk away, but an officer, who had been watching him for some time and who had been unable to come up in time to save the drunken man from injury, gave pursuit, and with the aid of other officers soon captured "the slasher." The prisoner's name is Henry G. Down. He is well connected, so far as his family is concerned; but his habits have long made him a social outcast, and for two years at least, he has had no other home than the cheap lodging-houses on the Bowery.

On a Big Scale.
WASHINGTON, Jan 17.—The plans of operations in the South Pacific continue to be discussed by the war experts of the navy department, and there is a very active cooperation between the war and navy departments as to the plans and preparations for the defense of our own coasts, and as to the transportation of troops to the Chilean coast. These plans contemplate a much larger display of force than has hitherto been deemed necessary. Instead of a fleet of fourteen or fifteen vessels and 10,000 troops, it will be found, if a declaration of war comes, that the authorities have a plan which will make it possible for the concentration of a fleet of twenty-five or thirty vessels and the transportation of 100,000 men to the seat of trouble.

The Dead Cardinal.
LONDON, Jan 17.—Not less than 50,000 persons visited today the body of Cardinal Manning, lying in state in the chapel le Arden in the cardinals house at Westminster. Most of the visitors were working people, and many of them testified, had their affections for the departed prelate, an affection apparently which had nothing to do with religion, as it was evident that a large majority had come irrespective of religious faith.

A Rare Man.
STOCK CITY, Iowa, Jan 17.—A bold but unsuccessful attempt to rob the transfer mail wagon was made this morning at 6:10 in an alley back of the Sioux City postoffice building. The remarkable courage of J. C. Newell, the driver, frustrated the designs of the would-be robbers, and they were compelled to seek safety in flight, leaving the booty behind.

The Rebels.
DEL RIO, Tex Jan 16.—A prominent stockman from near Langley reports he saw twenty-six revolutionists cross the Rio Grande yesterday, also that a Mexican told him the band had captured Pascuas Blanco's ranch in Mexico, sixty miles from Dryden, and that fighting was going on in that vicinity. The Mexican told him there were 2500 rebels in that region, all armed and in good fighting trim.

Just Like Americans.
BUENOS AIRES, Jan 17.—Great frauds have been discovered in the purchases of materials for public works. It is hinted that president Pellegrini is involved in the frauds.

There is nothing more healthful than onions. The trouble is that persons are afraid to eat them because they make the breath unfragrant. But there is a less fragrant breath than that freighted with onions. We mean the breath of a person with a foul stomach. Take him away! let inwardly cry when he whippers in our ear. Does that your breath is pure. Take a few Boddage's Pills, and so much more lively, stomach and lungs is and your breath will be sweet.
