RETURNED FROM THE MINE.

Mr. C. G. Burkhardt, Dr. Geo. W. Maston, W. F. Read and H. H. Ames returned this morning from their trip to the Santa Ana mines, and notwithstanding the fact that they were almost exhausted, their broad smiles of satisfaction. They were sixteen hours going into the mines from Gatesville and thirteen and a-half returning, and one of the men returned to a Democrat man, that if $5000 in gold were piled before him he wouldn't make the trip again with the snow as it is now for the money. Instead of a crust it was yielding and snow shoes were used. They found the mill running awhile each day, but only seven or eight hours, the snow preventing rapid work. About 200 tons of ore had been run through the mill at a rate of 25 to 30 tons a day, of 24 hours. A clean up was made, which is regarded equal to the best expectations of the men, both in free gold and concentrates. No figures can be given at present. The contents of the richness of the mines is established, and arrangements will be made to push the interests of the company with all possible speed. Several more men were secured at once and sent into the mines. Besides three or four large bars of gold, which have been exciting general admiration, several beautiful specimens of free gold ore were brought to Albany.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The following new cases have been begun: T. G. Price vs. M. Scott, sheriff. Recovery of possession of personal property. O. P. Coshaw and J. R. Wyatt, attorneys for plaintiff. W. C. Cassell vs. Nancy Cassell. Action to set aside deed. C. E. Wolverson, attorney for plaintiff. The Oregon Furniture Co. vs. Thos. Brink. Recovery of money attached. J. K. Weatherford, attorney for plaintiff. In this case the property recently sold by Mr. Brink to H. F. Merrill has been attached, and a contest will probably follow. Claims amounting to about $2500 are reported in the hands of attorneys for collection from Mr. Brink. Monteth & Seitenbach vs. R. E. Houston. Recovery of money. H. H. Hewitt, attorney for plaintiff.

ANOTHER RAIL ROAD.

The Portland Telegram says: There is a well defined rumor in circulation that the Rio Grande Western Railroad company will build a line from Salt Lake City to Colburg, on the main line of the Southern Pacific, 15 miles south of Portland a distance of some 500 or 600 miles. A survey of this route was made some time ago, and a bill empowering a company to secure the right of way passed the legislature at its January session of 1891. One of the conditions was that fifty miles per year should be built, that of course, within the limits of Oregon.

PORTLAND.

The figures given by the Oregonian in its yearly review for 1891 show the following important facts: Bank exchanges, $102,590,169; number of new buildings, 2134, costing $6,647,455; wholesale trade, $138,127,000; manufactures, $30,854,698; real estate transfers, $11,020,608; post office receipts, $211,743; firms in business, 2231; capital invested, $76,000,000. Portland is in the swim in a very emphatic manner, and is backed by solid figures for the future work.

IN FAVOR OF THE O. P.

Yesterday at Corvallis in the case of the Willamette Valley & Coast Railway against the sheriff of Benton county, to enjoy the collection taxes, Judge Pipes decided that the law constituting the company from taxation was constitutional, and made the tax levied against the company valid. The effect of this decision is to exempt from taxation their property in Linn and Marion counties. The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

FOUR GOOD ONES.

There is a decided men here to Albany's prospects. Never are they brighter. Put the following things together and you have a phalanx of reasons for the statement that it would be hard to surpass: A big bridge; a fine sewer system; rich mines on the bottom and the extension of the Oregon line to Boise City, creating perhaps the best transcontinental line in the U. S. with Albany as the distributing point to the coast.

AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Preaching at the first Christian church, corner 4th and Jackson streets, each evening. Elder Wm F Cowdin at 7:30 o'clock. Subject for tonight, "The great Salvation." In what part of the bible is it revealed? For tomorrow night "The great Salvation—What is it." All are cordially invited to these services.

BIRTH IN THE LIST.

Linn county lists fourth in the list for having the greatest number of cattle according to the following: Union has 29,721 head; Harney, 28,002; Lane, 22,339; Linn, 20,143.

IN SEASON.

Spring comes early in Oregon. It is nearly here. If you would have a tailor made suit in season, and in the city call on Mr. Schiller in L. E. Blain's clothing department and get your measurements for the best to be secured. A line of suitings just received. Stylish, and staple goods, and fits guaranteed.

License was issued today for the marriage of E. L. Hughes and Rosa E. Watson, A. M. Holt and Nora J. Miller, C. E. Howland and Maggie Olsen.

Mattie Mitchell and Duke Rocheford could will be married at the time stated, the match not being broken off as asserted by some gossip monger.

Col. Hogg is expected in Albany tomorrow morning by way of Southern Pacific. He will take a special train and go to Corvallis, to be present at the sale of the Oregon Pacific in the afternoon.

Our old friend Ed Schenck arrived here from Albany on Thursday evening. Ed has about 70 head of well bred horses in his country, which stock he proposes to offer for sale on the most reasonable terms.

Miss Black, of Halsey, who was elected to a position in the Albany public schools, has declined to accept the position, and the same has been tendered Miss Lily VanOrnum, recently of Chico, Calif., who has already begun her duties.

The following advertisement appears in The Spectator, an Eastern insurance paper: "J. K. Elderkin, fire insurance. Lines placed throughout the U. S. in responsible companies. 321 Superior street, Toledo, Ohio."

Hon. D. R. N. Blackburn, one of the leading attorneys of Albany, came down yesterday afternoon on legal business. Judge Blackburn is prominently mentioned as a candidate for the supreme bench in the coming campaign, on the republican ticket.—Statesman.

MISSIS.

The Salem Statesman is authority for the statement that no one is empowered with authority to make any change in the state board of equalization footings. Even if it errors were known to exist in the totals, those errors will have to stand.

According to an exchange, even the school teachers sometimes strike: All have struck for higher wages. At the teachers' institute, recently held there, they organized a teachers' association and passed resolutions limiting the minimum salary to be accepted by any member of the association to $50 per month.

The Salem Journal says: The Farmers Alliance of Jackson county has passed resolutions that its members should support the Alliance papers, etc. That is right and proper. Farmers can do nothing wiser than to refuse to take newspapers devoted exclusively to defense of the interests of the corporations and their political tools. The farmers cause is, however, almost as badly served by the publications that array his interests as the only interests the county should consider. They are just as narrow and pernicious.

Iowa has passed a stringent but just tramp law. It declares that any male person sixteen years of age or over, who is physically able to work, who wanders about begging or idle and who cannot show reasonable efforts to secure employment, shall be deemed a tramp, sent to jail and put to hard work. While in jail he shall not be allowed tobacco, liquor, sporting or illustrated newspapers, cards or any other means of amusement.

According to Wells Fargo's report, handed us by Agent C. R. Winn, there was produced in the U. S. west of the Mississippi, $118,237,441 of gold and silver. Of this $1,088,000 was produced in Oregon. Montana is second with $28,003,037; Colorado first with $28,203,027; Utah third, California fourth, Idaho fifth, Nevada sixth, Arizona seventh, New Mexico eighth, Dakota ninth, Oregon tenth. Some day Oregon will not be so far down the list.

RAY SPEAKING, of Spokane, has charge of a series of meetings being held at the United Presbyterian church. He is a pleasant, forcible speaker, and a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet. Last evening his topic was, "The soul of man is come to seek and save that which is lost," which he presented with marked ability, making a strong impression on his audience. Services every evening this week, and at 2:30 p. m. to which the public is cordially invited.

It is a big privilege to be able to get what you want when you go to a grocery store. Allen E. Brothers keep such a variety that they can always accommodate their customers. This R saves running around. If it is O fruit season they have the goods. T In produce their stands are full of the latest and best. Their E stock of standard groceries is R always large, of the best to be S secured in the market.

HORSES WANTED.—L. Senders has just returned from San Francisco, and is now wanting to buy horses, weight from 1000 to 1100 pounds and from 1300 to 1500 pounds; age 5 to 8. Bring your horses or mares to Albany and you will find him at his feed and sale stable.

MARRIED.

HUGHES—WATSON.—On January 19th, 1892, at the residence of Geo. Thos. Hix, justice of the peace, Mr. E. L. Hughes and Rosa E. Watson, both of Linn county. The Democrat extends hearty wishes for the happiness of the newly-married couple.

HOWLAND—OLSEN.—On January 19th, 1892, at the residence of the bride, in Albany, by Judge D. R. N. Blackburn, Mr. C. E. Howland and Miss Maggie Olsen, both of Albany.

ON THE SOUTHERN BOUNDARY.

January 18th, 1892. F. A. Getchell, of Eugene, was here one day last week. His wife is very low with consumption.

Messrs. Conn, Marshall, Whitney and another gentleman, all of Albany, spent a day shooting along the Boundary last week. They were after ducks and geese, which unfortunately—for them—are not very plentiful this season.

E. J. Willoughby went to Albany last Saturday on business.

La Grippe has been prevalent here the past two weeks, in some instances entire families have been prostrated with it.

O. B. Allingham went to Monroe, Benton county, last Saturday, returning on Sunday.

George Fisher, of Eugene, was in this vicinity after beef cattle one day last week. He bought quite a number.

A good many plows were started here last week. The farmers are very much behind hand with their plowing, but if the present weather continues they will come out all right.

Miss Nellie Willoughby has been improving in health since the holidays.

Mr. See is building a residence in Colburg and will probably move there.

Mr. Allingham is fencing the lots he recently purchased in Colburg.

Mr. A. P. McNary visited his mother and attended to some business in Salem last week.

Hon. B. R. Holt is quite low with la grippe. Some doubts are entertained of his recovery.

W. W. Curtis has gone to Monmouth to attend the Normal school.

James McFarlane is spending a few days at his home near Brownsville, but will probably be here again next week looking after his cattle.

The remains of Mrs. C. C. Baber were laid to rest beside her father, Mr. Kitchin, in the Lewis cemetery, Jan. 5th. She had been sick about three weeks with some kind of fever. The family were living on the Jerry Hay island and were said to be in desolate circumstances at the time of her death. Her two little girls have been given homes by kindly disposed relatives.

Mrs. Philippi has been consulting Eugene physicians in regard to her arm, which she dislocated last spring. They said it could not be drawn back in place now without danger of bursting an artery and thought it best to let it alone, consequently she will always be a cripple.

Frank Taylor's team took a lively spin with a plow one day last week.

Mr. E. F. Wyatt has sold his farm here to a gentleman from California, for $20 an acre, to give immediate possession.

Harvey Somerville came home from Eastern Oregon last Friday.

Miss Menta Bossman is quite sick with inflammatory rheumatism.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT.—But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces millions, think. The object of this is to make you think about the subject of groceries. Conn & Hendrickson keep a first-class stock, at bottom prices, and we have a fine line of crockery ware. Think about it and call on them.

Ladies, do you wish your hair to stay in curl, if so get a bottle of French curline at Mrs. Hyman's.

REMOVAL SALE.

On or about February 1st we will move our large stock of goods into the room formerly occupied by Monteth & Seitenbach, on the corner of 1st and Broadalbin Streets, opposite Samuel E. Young's store.

It is our aim to make this room a model clothing store and we have placed the same in the hands of experienced mechanics with instructions to finish the room per our plans with the least possible delay.

One of the main beauties of the store will be the light, this we have an abundance of, and the light of day will shine in upon our large and fine stock of goods. You will be able to distinguish the most delicate colors at any time during the day in any part of the store.

The room will be divided into seven distinct departments, viz: 1. Men's clothing. 2. Boys' clothing. 3. Children's clothing. 4. Furnishing goods. 5. Men's and Boys' hats. 6. Boots and Shoes. 7. Trunks and Valises.

In order to have the stock reduced as low as possible before removing we have decided to make the biggest reduction ever offered to the public by any clothing house in the city, ONE-FIFTH OFF, TWENTY PER CENT OFF the marked price which is in plain figures. This is a grand opportunity, and take advantage of it.
