NEXT TO COUR D'ALENE.—Before he had heard of the splendid showing made by the new mill in the Santiam mines Legh Harnett wrote in the Eugene Guard: This year there will be three good mills at work—one, a ten stamp mill, in the Santiam district, one at Gold Hill and another at Bohemia. I hold, the reliability of the mines at Santiam, Gold Hill and Bohemia, is established beyond all gainsaying. The Albany Company's mines at Santiam, without the mill; the Poorman and Defencia at Gold Hill; the Annie and other mines at Bohemia, are, today, as they stand in their grand development, worth from $150,000 to $300,000 each and in any live mining market would sell at these figures without asking. I hold, therefore, the day of uncertainty, as to the character of our mines, has passed away forever; for those mentioned are practically developed; and in size of vein and richness or ore, I maintain without fear of refutation, rank next in the northwest, to the greatest mines of the Cour D'Alene.

WILL GO TO CORVALLIS.— Mr Robert Huston, who has been the efficient book keeper of Stewart & Sox for two or three years, has purchased Mr Bogue's interest in the hardware firm of Simpson, Bogue & Co., in Corvallis, and will locate in that city in February. He is a first-class business man and Corvallis is fortunate in securing him for a permanent resident. The Times says: "Mr Huston needs no introduction at our hands. He is an old Corvallis boy and the fact that he has bought an interest in one of our leading business houses is ample evidence that he has had a hankering to come back."

IT REMINDED HIM.—Chief Gerry, of the Spokanes, is dead. The Oregonian mentions the fact of his having been humbled years ago by Col. Wright, since which he never displayed so much spirit. Mr Andy Hunt, of this city, who has seen the Chief, and was up in that country awhile after the humbling, says it was probably because the Chief lost his favorite pony. It seems that in order to subdue the Spokanes all their horses were corralled and shot, and Mr Hunt remembers seeing the immense pile of bones afterwards in Dead Horse hollow, or some such savage name.

LUCKEY HIT.—J C Luckey, Indian agent at Warm Springs, is not only guardian of the Indian's property and rights, but of their persons as well. This was quite forcibly illustrated (upon his head) recently. A white man and an Indian were fighting at the agency, when Mr Luckey ran in to stop the fight, and received a heavy thwack from a stick in the hands of the white man, knocking him down, making a severe wound on his forehead, while the son of the forest escaped unscathed.—Ochoco Review.

THAT SHOE FACTORY.—Carl Karr started east yesterday to purchase the machinery for the shoe factory to be started at Crawfordsville. He will visit Chicago, New York and other cities during his absence and he hopes to be able to get back in about twenty days. The factory will be a big thing for Crawfordsville and southern Linn county. Carr is a thorough shoe man and will be the Douglas of Oregon before two years.—Corvallis Times.

SPEAKS FOR OUR CLIMATE. — County Commissioner B W Cooper has handed the DEMOCRAT several apples just picked from a tree in his orchard. They are absolutely sound and solid, a fact that speaks for the mildness of our climate and are the better flavored for having remained out. Few localities in the U. S. could report a like circumstance on the 20th of January.

THE COUNTY COURT convened in the court house this forenoon and made a tax levy of 18 mills, the same as last year, a good showing in view of the fact that the county will help pay for the bridge at this city this year. The tax is divided as follows:

State, 5 mills.
Schools, 5 mills.
County government 8 mills.

AT HYDES' MARKET.—Fresh salmon at 8 cents per lb; fresh smelt at 6 cents per lb; fresh sturgen at 5 cents per lb; fresh dressed cat-fish 10 cents per lb, also some fresh carp. Poultry dressed to order.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT.—But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think. The object of this is to make you think about the subject of groceries. Conn & Hendricson keep a first-class stock, at bottom prices, and as well have a fine line of crockery ware. Think about it and call on them.

BE IN SEASON.—Spring comes early in Oregon. It is nearly here. If you would have a tailor made suit in season and in style call on Mr Schiffler in L. E. Blain's tailoring department and get your measure taken for the best to be secured. A fine line of suitings just received. Stylish designs, staple goods, and fits guaranteed.

KELLOGG SCHOOL.—The Kellogg school of dress cutting at corner of First and Baker in the Ralston house is now open. Lessons not limited. Ladies are invited to call and examine the system.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

There were only twenty marriages in Crook county in 1891.

Father White, the genial Salem priest, was in the city today.

Prof Riddle, the phrenologist, has been lecturing in Halsey.

Jas F Powell passed through Albany today as fireman of Engine No. 4, on the Southern Pacific.

A D Barker has been confined to his home for nearly two weeks with inflammatory rheumatism.

Peter Jackson and Geo Godfry, the famous pugilists, passed through Albany this morning, at least their names are registered at the Depot Hotel.

That was all a mistake about Col Hogg coming to Oregon to attend to the Oregon Pacific reorganization. It sent representatives for that. The organization was all done practically in the east.

Mrs Fred Whittier has begun a suit for divorce against her husband. It will be remembered that Fred and Allie run over to Vancouver to get married, and such marriages don't generally end well.

Joseph Koch, the draughtsman, has returned home from Albany, having completed his work at that place. He will immediately commence work on the voting precinct map for the county.—Eugene Guard.

J H Cox arrived here Saturday from Albany to look after his interests in this county. He has been appointed administrator of the estate of his brother, Joe Cox, and will arrange to settle up the affairs of Cox Bros. in this county as soon as possible.—Ochoco Review.

THE O P SOLD.

Special to DEMOCRAT.

CORVALLIS, Or., Jan 20, 1892.—The Oregon Pacific was sold at 1 o clock for one million dollars to Zeph Job, only one bid was made. Unlaid rails were sold seprately [illegible] tons for $30 a ton.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the regular public examination of teachers, for Linn county, will take place in Albany, commencing on Wednesday, Feb. 10th, at 1 o'clock, p m and continue until Friday noon Feb. 12 h. All teachers must positively be present at the time of commencement, as no one will be admitted after examination who is not so present.

G. F. RUSSELL,
County School Supt.

THE BEST CHARITY.—Rev H H Brown got off some excellent ideas in his sermon on charity, says the Journal. "The cheapest thing to do for the poor is to put them at work at wages that will enable them to live, pay from its taxes, and it will come back a hundred fold in the prosperity employed labor brings. The poorest charity is that which temporarily relieves but does not put the individual in the way of helping himself. Work must be found or made, and therefore a board of charities must be an employment office, and the city, county and state must give to unemployed labor public work to do."

J E BANGS is in the city arranging for the appearance of the Carl King combination in this city on next Monday. There has been a dearth in theatrical performances and no doubt our citizens will give Carl King a big house. The Oregonian says: Carl King is a young man under 30, with a light complexion, the hue of ruddy health and of well proportioned figure. He is full of nervous force and energy, has an easy manner upon the platform, and unlike Bishop, does not lose his temper when things do not go to suit him. His feats of thought reading, are simply astonishing and almost lead one to suppose he possesses a supernatural power.

THEY ARRIVED.—Three pair of Chinese pheasants ordered by A M DeSpain from the Willamette valley have been received, and are now being cared for by Al at his home in Pendleton. The birds are in fine condition, and if left unmolested when turned loose there will soon be plenty of pheasants in this locality. They are extremely wild.—Pendleton E. O.

MISFITS.

The wheat market has had a slight depression and that cereal is now quoted at 82½ cents. 1200 bushels of oats were sold Tuesday at 35 cents.

Different places in the U. S. are seeking notoriety by asking the U. S. to be allowed to take the front ranks in the war with Chili. What's the matter of Albany.

As will be seen by a special dispatch the O. P. R. R. was sold to Zeph Job, of Corvallis, this afternoon. Of course Job merely represents the bondholders. A private letter from the O. P. office states that the road will be reorganized. It is a settled fact that it will go ahead.

A Salem paper has a way of its own, and not a very bad one. Here it is: "Sidney Dell, now of Astoria, has taken the Statesman to task for not publishing an article he sent us. We didn't read the article. We just read Dell's name at the bottom of it. All people who have been long in Oregon know Dell."

The matter of securing election booths by the different counties is an interesting one. The Ochoco Review says: The contract for constructing election booths for this county has been awarded to Ed Harbin for $4.80 each. At this price the 67 booths required will cost the county $321 60, besides the cost of delivering them at the different polling places. The county court of Wasco has done somewhat better, having contracted with Glass & Proudhomme, of Portland, to furnish that county with with 75 booths at $2 65 each.

Bad pennies generally return. Here is a case of a good $10 piece returning. The Astoria Town Talk says: O J Peterson is the luckiest man we met today. About two months ago he dropped a ten-dollar gold piece on the walk in front of Wingate & Stone's real estate office on Third street, and after it circled around him a time or two to aggravate him, it toppled through a crack and did the McGinty act—went down. After the lapse of two long months Mr Peterson concluded he would make an effort to rescue the golden shiner, so he put on a pair of long-legged rubber boots and when the tide was out this morning he proceeded to wade under Astoria till he reached the spot directly under where the tenner dodged, and there it was found quietly nestled in sweepings from the real estate office.

REMOVAL SALE.

On or about February 1st we will move our large stock of goods into the room formerly occupied by Monteith & Seitenbach, on the corner of 1st and Broadalbin Streets, opposite Samuel E. Young's store.

It is our aim to make this room a model clothing store and we have placed the same in the hands of experienced mechanics with instructions to finish the room per our plans with the least possible delay.

One of the main beauties of the store will be the light, this we have an abundance of, and the light of day will shine in upon our large and fine stock of goods. You will be able to distinguish the most delicate colors at any time during the day in any part of the store.

The room will be divided into seven distinct departments, viz: 1. Men's clothing. 2. Boys' clothing. 3. Childrens' clothing. 4. Furnishing goods. 5. Men's and Boys' hats. 6. Boots and Shoes. 7. Trunks and Valises.

In order to have the stock reduced as low as possible before removing we have decided to make the biggest reduction ever offered to the public by any clothing house in the city, ONE-FIFTH OFF, TWENTY PER CENT OFF the marked price which is in plain figures. This is a grand opportunity, and take advantage of it.
