& The Welcome in an outburst of enthu slasm over the very hopeful prospect before the democrats for the election of the next president says that both Wisconsin and Michigan provide for electing electors by congressional districts. It is in error. Only Michigan nas that arrangement that so disturbed Harrison.

A dispatch from Philadelphia, says:

The Cleveland Pattison forces won ¹²Ee Cleveland-Pattleon forces won a sweeping victory at the democratic pri-maries in this city to-night, and by win-ning this battle they have practically se-cured control of the ten national delegares and also of the state convention, which will send eight delegates at large. The leaders of the Cleveland-Pattleon forces, marshaled under Secretary of State Harrity, have captured all of the conven-tions in the five congressional districts.

tions in the five congressional districts. Congressman McAleer, the leader of the Hill faction, was knocked out in his own district, which Samuel J Randail had pos-district, which Samuel J Randah had pos-session of for so many years. McAleer has been working in harmony with Squire McMullen and the Quay men for years. To-night the straightout dem-ocrats took a hand in the game and won oute early.

This victory is much more significant because of McAleer's friends having last week taken a bold and public stand against Cleveland.

The Hill men held a conference to alght and arranged to contest half the seats at to-morrow's convention in the hope of ki ocking Cleveland out.

J J Richardson member of the national democratic committee from lowa says: "Our people are for Boies and Cleveland. I do not mean by that a ticket with Boies at the head and Cleveland for second place, but that we are coming to believe that Governor Boies will be the strongest candidate that the democratic party could put into the field for president. His name is certain to be presented to the Democratic Na tional Convention. He can carry lowa for the democratic party, of which the proof lies in the fact that he has crrried it twice when he was himself a candidate for Gov ernor. If the convention is in such spirit that it will insist on nominating an eastern man our people will be for Mr Cleveland We are told that Mr Cleveland has the mass es of democrats in New York favorable to his renomination, but that the democratic The president has finally sent his message on the Chillian trouble to congress He goes over the grounds fully traversed by the public press heretofore but adduces nothing new of importance. The difficulty Is one that should, and we believe will, be settled by diplomacy or arbitration. To punish so small and insignificant a nation as Chili, would, under the circumstance, cost over two hundred million Jollars. It does seem that in this collightened age these difficulties, such, at least as this one, should be settled without an appeal to the arbitrament of the sword. Between individuals every enlightened man says difficulties should be settled without an ap-peal to duelling. And there is just as much reason for nations settling their differences in the same way. It would not be particularly creditable to the United board says: As usual, it was the honest, straight-forward way. It was simply to obey the law, not only in regard to mortgages but in regard to all other classes of property as well: Assess all at its full cash value, as the law requires. Then all this technical talk about discrimination and equity, and every device and trick and subterfuge and sophis-try by which the capitalist manages to evade paying taxes, would have had no whale paying taxes, would have had no change to exist. But no assessor in all the state was found who had the courage and the moral honesty to obey the law, and set a most-needed good example, and so the whole business is in a worse muddle than ever ever. This is both honest and level headed. No man should ask that another's property should be assessed at its cash value unless he is first willing that his own should be.

ITS FUNNY.

The World's Washington special says that two weeks ago, Mr Cleveland decided to announce a positive and final withdrawal from the presidential contest. He com municated his determination to a few of his intimate friends. They urged him vehemently not to do so. Finally, against his own inclination, he agreed to postpone the announcement for a short time.

Its funny that this news (?) was not learned by the World right in New York where Cleveland lives and the World is published. May be its only the outcropping of a scheme to shove Cleveland off the track. The World is a mighty good paper in some respects.

MATTHEWS & WASHBURN.

A SOUTHERN OPINION.

Mr Hill is rightly regarded as one of the most successful political leaders in New York and possesses remarkable ability-of a certain kind but he does not enjoy the confidence and respect of the country, and he could not be elected president if he should be nominated. He would be able to carry the southern states, but he could not carry the country. In our opinion, Mr Hill has been grossly misrepresented and deserves much more of the respect of his party than he possesses; but it is well to look at the situation as it is. His organs throughout the country have been sounding his praises as a presidential possibility for the last three years, but outside of New York and possibly one or two southern states there is no assurance that he will be able to carry a single state in the convention, and if he should be nominated there is good reason to believe that he would lose the states that are necessary to the election of the democratic ticket. The only hope of the democratic party is in a strong candidate upon an honest platform. As Senator Vest says: "It is Cleveland and Boies, or Cleveland and Oray; but always Cleveland,"-Charleston (S C) News And Courier.
