

GOOD EVENING

ATTEMPTED HORSE THEFT.—This afternoon Mr. Chris Honck was going to his barn in the alley near the rear of the Blumberg block...

OREGON STUDENTS in eastern schools universally stand high. They are young men of brains who mean business.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—Astoria has set an example that it will be well for other cities to follow. Tolerant "doctors" who sell patent medicines from a wagon...

WHEAT continues to be 82 1/2 cents with a weak market. Again the remark of the Democrat many times made that the farmer who makes a rule of selling in October and November, not later, makes the money, is verified.

NEW MIND READERS.—A number of Albany young men are learning that they are mind readers. A drug clerk easily found a couple articles while blindfolded...

A MAD CHILIAN.—The Welcome says: "A Chilean employed at the coal bunkers in North Portland became so exasperated at the banterings of his fellow employes yesterday afternoon that he whipped out his curvo and pretended, at least, that he would immediately declare war against the United States unless the taunting ceased."

A BIG THING.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States meets at Portland in May. Several thousands of the representative ministers and laymen of this church will be in attendance from all parts of the U. S.

It is a big privilege to be able to get what you want when you go to a grocery store. Allen E. Brothers keep such a variety that they can always accommodate their customers.

At the closing party of Mr. H. J. Hopkins' dancing class Friday night at the opera house, will be given some new and interesting figures.

HOME AND ABROAD

Mr. John Giblin has sold his hotel business and bar to W. W. Howell.

Prof Russell's boy is a girl. It takes most fathers several days to find out just what the new arrivals are.

Carl King and his company gave a second entertainment at the opera house last night to a highly pleased audience. There is no question as to his wonderful genius as a mind reader.

Three stamps were arranged before Police Judge Porter at Corvallis and were sentenced to leave the city. One of them gave his name as Bob Johnson, and the editor of the Times gave his hands full saying he was the t-ramp.

Thos. Newton, the young man referred to as being arrested at Corvallis for robbing the bartender of the Red Front saloon, of a suit of clothes, was brought to Albany last evening, taken before Justice Humphrey, waived examination, and was held to await the action of the grand jury under $500 bonds. He makes No. 6 in the county jail.

All who are troubled with constipation will find a safe, sure, and speedy relief in Ayer's Pills. Unlike most other cathartics, these pills strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels, and restore the organs to normal and regular action.

Don't experiment with your health. You may be sure of the quality of your medicine, even if you have to take meal of your food upon trust. Ask your druggist for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and no other. It is the standard blood purifier, the most effective and economical.

At Mead's, the jewelers, is a good place to buy a filled watch. The latest styles in veerings have arrived at the Ladies' Bazaar.

Go to F. E. Allen when you want something sweet. Honey, maple-syrup, etc. Allen Bros always keep their customers supplied with fresh butter and eggs.

The Delarte corsets and Delarte waists furnish the basis of dress reform tending towards artistic and hygienic dressing. They secure comfort, development and grace. Ladies, who wish to examine Delarte goods, should address the agent who will call with samples, take pains in measuring and guarantee perfect fit. No trouble to show goods even though no order is taken. Address Mrs. A. M. Tall, box 60, Albany, Oregon. Agents wanted.

LOST.—A Holland Fountain gold pen some where in the city. Leave at this office. Reward.

CITY DIRECTORY OF ALBANY.—To be published by Obenauer & Smiley. The book will contain a street directory, a complete alphabetical directory of the residents, also a classified business directory. A guide to all public buildings, churches, halls, stores, societies and lodges. Also a complete list of the tax-payers of Linn county, together with the city, county and state officials, etc. Postal and telegraphic rules and regulations. With all other items of interest, necessary to make a first-class city directory.

A WARNING.—In promulgating esoteric cogitations or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your statements possess a clarified consciousness, compacted comprehensibility, coalescent consistency and a concentrated cogency. Eschew all conglomerations of flutulent garrulity, jejune babblement and assinine affectations. Be outspoken, tell people plainly, in common English, that Matthews & Washburn's is the best place to get first-class stoves, tinware and hardware.

With his new bakery Conrad Meyer is able to offer old and new customers everything first-class in baked goods.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT.—But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think. The object of this is to make you think about the subject of groceries. Conn & Henderson keep a first-class stock, at bottom prices, and as well have a fine line of crockery ware. Think about it and call on them.

How to MAKE MONEY.—Every man is the farmer of his own fortune and the harvest he reaps is entirely due to his own perseverance and industry. If properly sown, there is not one seed that promises him better returns than saving a dollar by buying groceries where you can always depend on the best goods and lowest prices. This you can do by dealing with Parker Bros., who always have on hand a large and select stock of groceries and baked goods. Try them.
