

GOOD EVENING.

WINN'S SPEECH.—Yesterday we mentioned C. B. Winn's speech delivered before the republican convention in Portland. The following has been handed us as a correct version of this popular young man's effort, and we gladly give room to it:

Mr. President and gentlemen of this convention: I am filled with enthusiasm today. I feel that the great republican party is like the great American eagle; it spreads its influence from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean, and from the frozen north to the burning sands of the south. The proceedings of this convention will be heralded to the four corners of the world, and not only Chili will tremble with fear but all nations will bow to the rule of our great President Harrison, and if Harrison should fail we have another great man, Hon. H. B. Miller, of Grants Pass, who is ably represented by his brother, who is now clerk of the R. R. Commission. Gentlemen, this is a great feast.

A COMING INDUSTRY.—It is a fact worth wide publication that of a large number of specimens of sugar beets grown in various sections of our state subjected to analytical test by Prof. G. W. Shaw, the chemist of the state agricultural college—the best specimens came from the Rogue River valley in Southern Oregon, and were grown in Ashland. Samples grown by Mr. Albright, of this place, yielded 22 per cent of sugar, whereas the average yield in the European countries in which the beet sugar industry is a paying one is only from 11 to 12 per cent. If Southern Oregon can produce beets so rich in sugar, it is certainly worth while for our people to make an effort to induce capitalists to come hither and establish a factory. Factories have been put up in California and in other states where sugar beets will not make so good a showing as here.—Ashland Tidings. Experiments in the vicinity of Albany have also resulted well.

WIND RAILROADS.—Anything from Astoria about railroads is always of interest. They are as a rule the biggest exhibitions of wind that come to our notice. Here is one from the Town Talk: The latest railroad rumor is that E. L. Dwyer sent a dispatch to the trustees stating that there are letters in the mail which will explain his absence and the result of his work. Anybody who is anxious to know more may look up the rumor for themselves. Mr. Schofield, the "new" proposer, is at the head of the matter. We understand if the present proposition submitted by him is not entertained, he has another that may "work" us. Time will be called on "propositions" about February 1st, next Monday. A "railroad proposition" is a wind instrument, it bears the name of its inventor, Bill Reid, a native of Scotland.

THEY WERE FOOLED.—Having plenty of time for practising a healthy faculty of imagination, one of Ashland's facetious citizens set up a nice little story the other day about the discovery of a mammoth cave up Ashland creek, and so well did he tell the yarn that several "inductivists" are reported to have spent toilsome hours looking for the opening. A mammoth cave in the bowels of a granite mountain would be something worth looking for. It would rip a hole into geological science bigger than the cave.—Ashland Tidings.

DON'T DO IT.—If we remember rightly the editor of the Dallas Itemizer less than a year ago invested in a foreign building and loan association. Now he gives the following advice: "The very first building and loan association agent or any other agent that comes along asking you to take stock in something away off yonder—well, don't you do it, unless you want to run a big risk of getting an elephant on your hands. A large majority of all Oregonians who have invested in those far away concerns regret it. Better deal with home people and home institutions."

ENTERPRISE.—While in Cobb's office today we noticed among other nice work, commercial stationery for a firm in Texas, book work for Eugene, cards, letter heads, envelopes, etc., for different parties in Corvallis, letter heads for leading houses of Portland, circulars for Stayton and Shedd, work for Lebanon and Grants Pass, besides lots of fine work for our own city. Good work and low prices will tell.

NO CHINAMEN reside in Harrisburg, a fact over which that city is to be congratulated. The Courier says: Several of our exchanges state that the Chinese are celebrating their New Year's this week. Owing to the fact that the climate of Harrisburg is not conducive to the good health of the almond-eyed sons, there was no celebrating here. Harrisburg will not tolerate the heathens.

CONSOLIDATED.—Stayer & Walker and Mitchell & Lewis, two of the largest firms in the Northwest dealing in agricultural implements, wagons, carriages, etc., have been consolidated into one new firm. The new firm is to be known as Mitchell, Lewis, Stayer & Company.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.—Every man is the farmer of his own fortune and the harvest he reaps is entirely due to his own perseverance and industry. If properly sown, there is not one seed that promises him better returns than saving a dollar by buying groceries where you can always depend on the best goods and lowest prices. This you can do by dealing with Parker Bros., who always have on hand a large and select stock of groceries and baked goods. Try them.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

A B Seal, the Albany commercial traveler, was in the city yesterday.—Ashland Record.

Jan F Foxwell, who has been laid up in this city several days with a gripper, returned to Portland this noon.

S A Clarke has associated himself with D H Stearns, of Portland, in the business of land dealing and will spend most of his time in Portland.—Statesman.

Mr Charles Mueller went to Portland this noon to remain a couple weeks and attend to the business of his brother, who is confined to his home with illness.

Ed Cross, and A F Wagner, of Salem, returned home to day after a hunting expedition in the vicinity of Lebanon. If they killed anything it was probably left behind.

Mr and Mrs Chas Reilly, Dr Keene and Miss Nellie Eades, of Salem, were in Albany evening attending H J Hopkins closing ball, which was pronounced a pleasant affair. Sixty couple were present.

Dr G W Maston returned from Corvallis this afternoon, where he had been to attend a consultation of physicians in the case of the illness of President B L Arnold of the Agricultural College. He has the pneumonia, and it was doubted if he lived until tomorrow morning.

Rev J A Hanna made us a call a few days ago. He returned recently from Bay City, where he preached six months, and is now staying at the residence of his daughter, Mrs Norris Humphrey, a few miles west of Eugene.—Guard.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.—The third week of Evangelist Lindsay's meeting at the Baptist church, has been the most successful of all thus far, and he will remain over Sunday and possibly into next week. Between forty and fifty have declared their determination to accept Christ. Fourteen have been baptized and five others received for baptism. Mr Lindsay's subject tonight will be "The short bed and the narrow covering." On Sunday, services as follows: Morning prayer meeting at 7 o'clock, preaching at 11 a m and 7:30 p m. Sunday school at close of morning service. Free-will offerings for Evangelist Lindsay will be received tonight and Sunday night.

Rev Mr Lindsey the Baptist evangelist, will address young men at their meeting in the W C T U hall at 4 p m Sunday.

Rev Mr Parker of Woodburn will preach at the Congregational church tomorrow morning and evening.

At the United Presbyterian church the usual services will be held. Preaching at 11 a m. Sabbath school at 2:30 p m, followed by the junior society of Christian Endeavor. Regular meeting of Christian Endeavor at 6:30 and evening service at 7:30 p m, conducted by the pastor.

Preaching service at the Presbyterian church at 11 a m. The subject will be an answer to the question, "What is Christian Life?" Sabbath school at 12:15 p m. In the evening the services will be conducted by the C. E. society. A special program has been prepared. An address will be delivered by Rev E N Condit. All will be made welcome to these services.

OLD YAMHILL.—Yamhillers can thank their stars that they are not as other men are this year sure enough. While the county court let us down easy with a 17 mill assessment, including road tax and all, our Clackamas county neighbors will have to pony up with a tax of 25 mills and labor on the public highways as in the days of yore, besides. The man who casts his lot in Yamhill is a favored being anyway.—Graphic. Linn county is close at hand with only an 18 mill tax, which is pretty low these modern days.

NEW HEALTH OFFICER.—We understand Dr W H Davis, of Albany, has been appointed health officer for the port of Yaquina. The Dr is a first class physician and we welcome him among us.—Toledo Post.

STOOD UP.—Several nights ago Charles Metzger was stood up in a very tragic manner on the streets of Albany. It is now learned that it was done by some of his friends and intended as a joke.

A It is a big privilege to be able to get what you want when you go to a grocery store. Allen Brothers keep such a variety N that they can always accommodate their customers. This R saves running around. If it is O fruit season they have the goods. T In produce their stands are full H of the latest and best. Their E stock of standard groceries is R always large, of the best to be S secured in the market.

SMITH.—In Brownsville, Jan 22, 1892, of pneumonia, Mr George Smith, aged about 35 years. George was well known in this country. He lived at Springfield more than twenty years ago when his father built the wooden water wheel for the mill. He was a natural mechanic and machinist and was engaged as engineer in a sawmill at Brownsville at the time of his death. He was commonly known as "Fiddler Smith" by reason of his great ability as a violinist.—Eugene Journal.
