GOOD EVENING.

THE OREGON PACIFIC.—In response to a dispatch Col. Hogg came to Albany last night on a special train and took the overland for San Francisco, an important business. Manager William M. Hogg was also in the city and spoke very confidently in reference to the road crossing the Cascade into Crook county during the coming year. The payment of the $1,000,000 will be delayed for a few days. The money is ready for payment but will probably not be placed in the hands of the sheriff for several days yet. One of the improvements in the O. P. traffic will be a new steamer in the short time.

A PECULIAR SUIT.—Prineville is a peculiar town and has just had a peculiar suit. The News says: On Monday of this week our town marshal had Hiram Gibson arrested on a complaint that the aforesaid Hiram refused to assist the aforesaid marshal to carry a drunk man to jail. The case was very properly dismissed by Justice Bell on a demurrer. This is only another case that makes the taxpayer feel for his pocketbook. Good deal like our own, isn't it gentle reader? The marshal has the fun and we pay the taxes.

MR. BAY'S OF THE WELL KNOWN FIRM OF BAY & JEFFRIES, OF PORTLAND, who was in the city considerable recently on account of the ferry street contract secured by that firm, has been something of the world. He was born in England in 1835. In 1861 to 1862 he was engaged in railroad work in South Africa. From 1862 to 1867 he was building railroads in Australia. From 1867 to 1881 he was building railroads around San Francisco. Since that time he has been a resident of Portland.

SCOTT'S OVERCOAT.—Marshall Serraford came to Albany this noon, bringing with him a well known tin-horn gambler named George Stewart. He was met at the noon train by Marshall Minto, of Salem, who took Stewart to that city. The change was made on an overcoat, which was found on the person of the prisoner. The young man took the matter very coolly, not seeming to care about the matter at all.

SPokane has greatly and has men with massive brains. One of them runs the great house. He cancelled the engagement with Patti because the brilliant idea came into his brain that it would take so much money away from the city people wouldn't have any left to go to other entertainments of less magnitude. As a result Patti gave up the Pacific coast trip entirely.

"A LEGAL DOCUMENT" abounds in pure humor and legitimate fun from the rise of the curtain to the close of the last act, and this company seems to have been picked for their special adaptability to the character which they sustain.—Minneapolis Tribune. At the open house Thursday night, February 25.

MR. H. R. YOUNG went to Seattle this noon to look after his suburban interests there. A motor line is building directly through land owned by him and others of this city, and the prospects are increasing for a big thing for owners of property in that vicinity, which also gets the great Northern now to be built between Seattle and Spokane.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.—Every man is the farmer of his own fortune and the harvest he reaps is entirely due to his own perseverance and industry. If property owners, there is not one seed that promises him better returns than saving a dollar by buying groceries where you can always depend on the best goods and lowest prices. This you can do by dealing with Parker Bros., who always have on hand a large and select stock of groceries and household goods. Try them.

WORTH TALKING ABOUT.—Hot words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think. The object of this paper is to make you think about the subject of groceries. Conn & Henderson keep a first-class stock, at bottom prices, and as well have a fine line of crockery ware. Think about it and call on them.

HARNESS, SADDLES, ETC.—Our orders are placed with eastern factories, and we purpose putting in the most complete stock of goods ever shown in our line, in the upper valley. We buy direct from first hands for cash and guarantee to compete with Portland prices. The display horse stands in our door opposite the First National bank. O. C. McFarland.

OUR ability in CATERING to wants should not be LOST sight of when you need the best stoves in the market, as well as furniture and hardware generally. We can furnish them at bottom prices. MATTHEWS & WASHBURN, the stove men.

PAINTING.—Miss Noble Richards will organize a class in painting on the 1st of March. A good opportunity for superior instruction. For particulars call at her residence at 6th and Jefferson streets.

Decide the largest and choicest variety of team food in the city. Sun dried, baked feed, clover, lucerne, English breakfast, etc.

For bargains in stoves, hand saws, etc., go to E. W. Ashland's, Albany, Oregon.

May I have some of your grocery trade this month? Hark, why not, P. E. Allen.

Conn & Henderson have just received a choice lot of sugar cured hams. Try them.

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL.

Hon. T. J. Black, of Halsey, is in the city. Miss Lulu Webber, of Portland, is visiting with Albany friends.

Miss Minnie Vanhorn, is in Hillsboro the guest of Hon. T. H. Tongue.

Miss Augusta Palmer, of Salem, is visiting friends in Albany.

After an absence of four months at Albany, J. R. Ream is again with Eugene friends.—Eugene Guard.

D. H. Looney, a prominent Marion county republican, one of the leading candidates for sheriff of that county, was in the city today on his way home from Mill City, where he had been on business.

The ball given by the Philharmonic society last evening at the opera house is reported an enjoyable affair, attended by a large number. Music was furnished by the popular Parsons' orchestra, and refreshments were served in the style by Mr. C. H. Mueller at his parlors in the Blumhertz block.

Yesterday W. H. Alexander, who has for the past two years made Oregon his home, is flying in Salem the greater part of the time and being in the employ of the Union Title Abstract Co., received a telegram from his father at Paris, Mo., urging him to return to Paris and take the management of a large hotel and shoe house which Mr. Alexander, Sr., had just purchased. Mr. Alexander leaves for his new old home on March 1st, much to the regret of his large circle of friends in this city.—Salem Star-Courier.

The Young Ladies' Hatchet club gave a Geo. Washington leap year party at the pleasant home of Judge Flinn last night. A delightful evening was passed. Games were played and partners for supper were secured by following up the cords of a mysterious spider's web, on the end of each of which was a prophetic card and a ribbon corresponding to one worn by one of the young ladies. A delicious repast was served in a manner conferring credit on the young ladies. The young men were presented with favors in the shape of handsomely decorated hatchets, and returned the compliments of the evening by passing suitable resolutions. Those present were Misses Mildred Farmer, Ava Baltimore, Eva Simpson, Marie Candlish, Sophie Nelson, Olga Hewitt, Annie Vanila, Nona Irvine, Annie and Ora Flinn, and Messrs. Floyd Harris, Edgar Blodgett, P. J. Smiley, Luther Elkins, Elliot and Clem Irvine, Claire Vank, Ezra Horton and Van Wilson, besides a Democratic man.

A most important case is now before the supreme court of the state of Oregon, involving the constitutionality of the act creating the office of county recorder.

The Coming Century, Mrs. Dandway's magazine, though she had sold out, has suspended publication for the present century. So far as Oregon is concerned Mrs. Dandway is not "in it," speaking metaphorically.

Spokane will get the Great Northern; but it took an immense number of subscriptions, of from $2500 down. Monday & Tuesday, formerly of this city, are in it for the liberal sum of $150 and W. M. Wolpert for $100.

The suit of the Freestone Distillery against A. Wagner and F. P. Tallman, involving suits due for four barrels of certain brand of blended whiskey, which was not up to sample, went against the distillery. The agent of the company was the only witness for the stand for plaintiff. He gave the case away by admitting that he could not tell by tasting whether a certain brand would be according to sample or not. It was officially determined poor stuff according to the findings of Judge Hoise, who is a good judge of law whether he is of poor whisky or not.—Salem Journal.

High Appellate, known by everybody, was invited to be present at the Portland republican convention, now a chestnut. He didn't go; but wrote the following note to Ross Ayer, which shows how a man feels after being kicked out of office: In answer to your favor I have to say that it is very unpleasant to be compelled to answer your most respectful request in the manner which I have received a character of treatment at the hands of the present administration which would render it very improper for me to undertake such a task as to which you invite me. The fact is I have been dismissed and excommunicated by the people of America. Bishop Newman, all of which proceed. Bishops were promptly sanctioned and excommunicated by his excellency the president of the United States. The good old party, therefore, being no longer dragged down and encumbered by my earthly and worldly weight will now rapidly rise up, purified and sanctified, ready and prepared to meet the millennium; while I in the meantime may be permitted, perhaps, to stand afar off and see the Lion eat straw like an ox.

The Oregon Pacific Case.

SPECIAL TO DEMOCRAT. CORVALLIS, Feb. 23.—Zephin Job filed petition for continuance of confirmation of sale, for sixty days, alleging he had been unable to procure money by reason of the suit begun in the United States court. The matter was continued until 5 o'clock, but Judge Pipes will undoubtedly grant petition.

Mr. S. H. Friendly informs us that he acquired very particularly of H. B. Miller, who claims to have seen E. R. Luckey at Salem Feb. 21. Mr. Miller states that he was on the local train with Luckey Feb. 1st, and talked with him. He left the train at Salem and met Luckey the next day, and asked him how long he should stay in Salem. Luckey replied only a few hours. He is positive beyond a doubt that it was Mr. Luckey, whom he met.—Eugene Guard.

AN OLD SAYING is, "spend not all you have, believe not all you hear; tell not all you know; and do not as you can." Do not look for blood in a turnip or stoves in a confectionary store; but go to Matthews & Washburn's store, buy and hard-ware store and examine their stock of goods, if this is the line you want. If you buy you will not spend all you have; you will believe what you hear because you can also see; you will know too much to tell it all; and you will not do all you can because the stove you get will do the work and save many a savage expression and extra step.
