ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

Democrats of Line county should bear in mind that next Saturday is the day for holding primary meetings, and next Tuesday is the day fixed for holding the county convention. Since 1866, with a few partial breaks, the democrats have held the management of Linn county in their hands. They have been faithful to their trust and hence they have been retained in power. Of course a few mistakes have been made, but these are almost unavoidable. Next Tuesday they have an important duty to perform. Upon the work of that day depends the success of the party in June. There must be an open, fair, honest convention and capable, honest men must be selected as candidates. This course followed and the democratic party of the county will march on to victory in June. The democratic party is the party of the people, but this must be shown in works as well as in profession. Hence can didates in whom the masses have confi dence must be selected. 'The DEMOCRAT has no candidates to urge upon the con vention. It seeks to urge the convention to make no mistake but to keep faith with the masses in the nomination of a good ticket. We have no fears that the convention will make a mistake on this point, but the duty devolved upon the DEMO-CRAT as a democratic paper, constrains us to warn democrats of the importance of doing their work well. There is much confusion in local politics, and democrats should purrue such a course as will show It to be the true, steadfast friends of the people and thus entitled to their support.

A DEMOCRATIC REPORM

Senator Palmer represents a reform which is perhaps as vital to the future of this country as any other now being agitated in the political arena. He is the representative of the democratic party in urging it. It was that party which, in the Illinois campaign of 1890, took the initiative in the work of breaking away from old traditions and exemplifying a new method of choosing United States senators which should come nearer to the people as the scurce of all po-

The colossal fortunes which have succeeded the civil war period, and which have debanched senatorial elections in many states. have made such a change a vital necessity. In control of a senate chosen by caucus the money power could, by the corruption of legislators and the skillful manipulation of votes in a few doubtful districts in doubtful states, perpetuate its power, no matter how frequently or emphatically the people in the election of the president and members of the house of representatives might express their condemnation of it and their desire to overthrow it. An illustration of this may perhaps be afforded ere long, by the defeat in the republican senate of all tariff reform measures originating in the lower house.

Reform in the election of senators is a necessary part of the general plan of reform indorsed by the democratic party.

A dispatch from Atlanta Ga. says: A dispatch from Atlanta Ga, says:

The majority of the Georgia alliance men will not desert the democratic for the people's party. This was demonstrated at an alliance meeting held today. The speakers were Congressman L. F. Livingston, president of the Georgia alliance, N. A. Wilson, vice-president of the alliance, both of whom have just returned from the St. Louis conference, and ex-State Senator. St Louis conference, and ex-State Senator Z T Zachery, a prominent alliance man. All the speakers declared it would be folly for the farmers, who compose the majority of the democratic party, to leave for the new party, whose main strength lifes with the republicans in the west and porthwest. northwest,

The campaign committee of fifteen, head-ed by Senator Colquitt and ex-Senator Brown, appointed to push the canvass of Senator Bill for the presidence, has issued an address to the people, setting form Mr Hi.l's many good qualities, and saying the be has been recommended to the demoracy at large by the New York convention as the man who can most surely carry New York state. Various towns in Georgia have already organized Hill clubs, and the movement for the New York senator will," is stated, assume great strength

A dispatch from Huntington, W. Va., says:

Gov Fleming, Congressman Capehart and other prominent democrats from all parts of the state attended a meeting here today to form a league of clubs for the Fourth Congressional district. A resolu-tion declaring allegiance to Senator Hill was almost unanimously defeated, while Cleveland's name was greeted with rousing cheers.

Waterson of the Louisville Courier-

Journal, says: The way things have been shaped in New York it would be suicidal for the New York it would be suicidal for the democracy to nominate either Cleveland or Hill for the presidency. Senator Hill as a presidential candidate will encounter difficulties which never presented themselves during his previous candidacies. Hill cannot carry a single northern state, unless it be New York, at all. Kentucky will instruct her delegates to vote for John G Carlisle. Next to Grover Cleveland he is the most prominent exponent of tariff

Let every delegate to the county convention next week bear in mind, that no other thing contributed so much to the great democratic victory in this county two years ago as the vive voce voting in nominating candidates. Let every delegate make up his mind to support that system of voting next Tuesday.

Mr McKinley says: "You can't make wool free on the sheep's back and tax it on our backs," Then the tariff on clothing is a tax? Thanks for the admission.

THREATS, INDEED.

If the threat is carried out by the friends of Mr Cleveland of cramming him down the "throat of his opponents," there is likely to be considerable "throat cutting" in No-ember.—Portland Dispatch.

Threats, indeed! Pray tell us who o Cleveland's friends ever made a threat to cram him down the throats of "his oppon Has Cleveland's friends shown this 'cramming' disposition by seizing upon party machinery and rushing in in a very inseemly way into a midwinter convention to secure delegates? We trust the Dispatch will be explicit. Tell us who made the threat to "cram." Tell us when and where the threat was made. Suppose one of Cleveland's "opponents" should come up to the national convention with the 72 delegates from New York and a possible 200 besides, and Cleveland should come up with enough from the other states to secure his nomination; would that be considered cramming Cieveland down the throats of his 'opponents?" No, there has been no threats Does the Disputch seek to prejudice its readers against Cleveland by giving publicity to such unfounded charges? We trust not, and yet it looks very much like it-

The following are candidates for the ofdemocratic county convention: For county clerk, C E Stanard, Brownsville: C C Hack, eman, Lebanon; N P Payne and J P Galmard, Albany. For Sheriff, C C Jackson, Halsey, and M Scott the present incumbent.

For county judge Geo Humphery and J J Holod results in the standard and standard for the st For county judge Geo Humphery and J J Whitney of Albany. For county treasurer: H Farwell, Brice Wallace, Alex Montgomery and W B Smith. For assessor J E Michael, Santiam; W J Ribelin, of Halsey, and H S Williams, of Jordan. School superintendent; G F Russell; F M Mitchell and L M Curl. For surveyor: EJO'Connor. For commissioner: J M Hassler and Wash Philips. For the legislature these names are mentioned: W R Bilyeu, A Blevins, C J Shedd, M A Miller, A W Stanard, OP Cofhow jr and W P Elmore. For recorder E E Davis and Walter McGhee.

The democratic party has a majority of the popular vote in the United States; of that there is no doubt. It also has a ma. jority of the votes in states that cast a majority of the electoral votes. The only thing that can defeat the democratic party next fall is a bad blunder or a serious division in its own ranks. If these occur, the men who are responsible for it will not be easily forgiven by the democrats of the country .- Telegram.

The democratic and republican county con mittees of Umatilla Co. have made arrange ments to give a course of instruction to the udges and clerks of election under the new law regulating the conducting of elections. The election officers are all to meet at Herpner and hold a mock election where all may learn the mactical way of conducting elections. This cught to be done in Lien county also
