SUPREME COURT DOCKET.—Following is the Linn county docket for the supreme court now in session in Salem: Iva Templeton, appellant, vs Linn county, respondent; State of Oregon, respondent, vs E. P. Rogers, appellant; Maria A. Rawson, appellant, vs Chas. J. Stuart, respondent; Chas. H. Dodge & Co, appellants, vs Wm. St. John and Cynthia St. John, (respondents) defendants.

Mr. Louis Viereck has purchased the house on the Sox lot on Second street, on which a livery stable is to be built, and is moving it to his corner a block south. Bill Nye tells of a case where an editor had to leave town for omitting to mention such an item, hence our promptness in the matter. Ruetner & Conn are doing the moving.

AN OLD SAYING is, "spend not all you have, believe not all you hear; tell not all you know; and do not all you can." Do not look for blood in a turnip or stoves in a confectionary store; but go to Matthews & Washburn's store, they are hardware store and examine their stock of goods, if this is the line you want. If you buy you will not spend all you have; you will believe what you hear because you can also see; you will know too much to tell it all and you will not do all you can because the stove you get will do the work and save many a savage expression and extra step.

LOST.—An opportunity to get the best groceries at the lowest prices, by failing to call at Conn & Hendricson's. No one ever fails to receive their money's worth who trades with them. Found a grocery store, where one always receives good goods. Full weight, the lowest prices and the best treatment to be had—Conn & Hendricson's. Large sales, small profits, prompt attention all go to make their store a popular one for the masses. Make it a rule never to buy groceries, produce, fruit, etc., without first calling at the store of CONN & HENDRICSON.

ROAD EXTENSION.—The Junction City Board of Trade is agitating the question of the extension of the wide road from Corvallis to that city. The Willamette Real Estate company promises to give $5000 toward this end, and we have no doubt that the Southern Pacific will build the road this year if offered sufficient inducements.—Ex.

THE BUILDING SEASON.—Mr. F. F. Sox has let the contract for building the new brick livery stable on Second street to F. Conn. Work was begun on the same this morning. The building will be 50x100, two stories high with a handsome front, and will be completed as soon as possible, having been rented by Straney & Moore for a term of years.

DID YOU SEE THEM.—The finest line of Boston clips, butter cups, ribbon candies, etc., just out at Mueller's candy and refreshment parlors.

Cashier Archibald, of the Linn County Bank, who recently met with an accident, is at his post of duty, with his head in several slings, presenting a very warlike appearance.

GUIDE TO CHICAGO.—"The Artistic Guide to Chicago and the World's Columbian Exposition," is the title of a new book just out. It gives a concise history of the great city by the lakes from its settlement in 1837 to the present date. It is embellished with dozens of beautiful half-tone illustrations made from photographs, a bird's eye view of the city and a grand bird's eye view of the World's Fair grounds, and building. Every family should have one. Mrs. A. M. Tall, agent.

CONSISTENCY, thou art a Jewel. Matthews & Washburn keep the Jewel and other first-class stoves, and there is no better way to be consistent than by investing in one of them. Matthews & Washburn's motto is to keep the best, and their prices are always reasonable. Large sales speak for the manner in which these facts are appreciated through Linn county.

The L. E. Blain clothing company here just received an uncommonly large stock of hats of all the latest styles and grades, and are prepared to fit and suit the most fastidious.
