

The officeholders machine in Indiana has given President Harrison the delegates from his own state, but it cannot give him the electors.

Indiana is a democratic state. The plurality at the last election was nearly 20,000. The congressional delegation stands eleven democrats to two republicans, with an aggregate democratic plurality of 23,000. The legislature is democratic on joint ballot by 66 majority. Since the adoption of the secret ballot put a check on the Dorsey-Budley method of carrying the state by organized bribery, it scarcely needs the bitter republican dissension revealed in Thursday's convention to assure the state to the democrats, with a popular candidate and a sound platform.

The republican resolutions are Bourbonism on the tariff, defiance in defense of the billion dollar congress, cravism on silver and ironclad for the dispenser of spoils, Benjamin Harrison.

The silver plank is noteworthy, as representing the republicanism of the president's own state. It declares that—

We are in favor of honest money, of a dollar that, whether it be gold or silver or paper, shall be of like value in the payment of debts.

Is not the 70-cent silver dollar, or its paper representative, of "like value" with the gold dollar in the payment of debts? A government fiat, adopted by a republican congress and signed by President Harrison, makes it a legal tender and receivable for public dues. Would not the proposed Bland silver dollar be "of like value in the payment of debts," if his bill should pass? This is the objection of honest, sound money men to the free coinage of these dollars. But they would, under this resolution, be acceptable to the Indiana republicans.

A republican Hoosier is a very uncertain quantity.—New York World.

Boies, of Iowa, was a presidential possibility a month ago. Today he is more nearly a probability than any talked of candidate. Even in the Empire state, where Cleveland men and Hill men can unite on nothing else, they can and do agree on the proposition that Boies is the man for the democratic party to select if the choice is to go outside of New York state.

More great newspapers are supporting Boies than any other man. More good feeling exists toward Boies in all camps than towards any other man. Less can be urged against Boies than any other man. There is greater certainty that Boies can carry Iowa than any other candidate can carry any doubtful state. Boies is more like Cleveland in political principles and more like Hill in personal popularity than any other candidate. He is stronger in New York than Hill or Cleveland, and just as strong in Illinois as Palmer. The whole party can unite on him and have confidence in him. He belongs to the west, is acceptable in the east and he is unobjectionable in the south. In all states he is as strong as his party and in some he is stronger. Though new in politics, he is neither inexperienced nor youthful.

Boies is the man of the hour—the man born for the occasion. Cleveland men will relinquish their favorite with regret. So does the World-Herald, but the mantle of Cleveland could not certainly fall upon a better successor than the reform governor of Iowa.—Omaha Herald.

A dispatch from Indianapolis says: The executive committee of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association held a secret meeting here last night and cited D. Johnson, secretary of the association and editor of the Richmond News, to answer a charge that he had published free trade editorials.

Johnson brought with him the files of his paper for a couple of months, and he asked his censors to point out the objectionable editorials. This was done by the committee and Johnson was taken severely to task. The committee men said that while they recognized that they did not have the right to attempt to control the editorial expressions of the republican papers of the state they did think they had the right to take exceptions to the expressions of a paper edited by an officer of the association. They advised Johnson to resign.

Johnson replied that he was writing and printing his sentiments, and that so far as he could learn, his views were endorsed by his constituents. He would, therefore, not agree to modify his course. Johnson further said to the committee that it did not elect him secretary of the association and, therefore, could not depose him.

The committee was forced to admit that Johnson's position was correct, and voted to defer action until the midsummer meeting of the association.

Mr. Johnson returned home determined to resume his attacks upon the McKinley bill. CONSIDER, thou art a Jew. Matthews & Washburn keep the Jewel and other first-class stoves, and there is no better way to be consistent than by investing in one of them. Matthews & Washburn's motto is to keep the best, and their prices are always reasonable. Large sales speak for the manner in which these facts are appreciated through Linn county.

A. B. McILWAIN has just received direct from the manufacturers, new designs in carpets, oil cloths, linoleums and window shades, which will be sold at reduced prices. He is also receiving a fine line of men's shoes, in late styles, at 25 to 75 cents per pair less than regular prices.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Parker, of Portland, is in the city, the guest of Hon J. K. Weatherford.

License was issued yesterday for the marriage of W. H. Hennings and Perle E. Mackey.

On Friday evening of next week the local Christian Endeavor Union will give a free social and entertainment at the U. P. church, which promises to be a nice affair.

Dr. G. W. Maston will leave tomorrow morning for Chicago and New York to take a post graduate course in one or both of the post graduate Medical colleges of those cities.

Mr. E. S. Barrows and family have gone to Santa Barbara, Calif., for the benefit of the health of Miss Jessie. Mr. Barrows will return in two or three weeks, but Mrs. Barrows and daughter will remain several months.

Mr. Jos. Davy, from near Albany, has rented one of Mr. Guy's buildings (the one formerly occupied by Peterson & Garland) where he has opened a feed store. A feed store is something we need here and we hope it will be a success.—Express.

The docket of the Circuit Court to convene in McMinnville March 28 shows O. H. Irvine, formerly of this city, to be interested in nine or ten cases. A good start after a residence of only a few months there. Ramsey & Fenton seem to have a majority of the cases now. J. E. Magers, a brother of Bert Magers, of this city, also has a long list of cases.

C. W. Ayers, wife and children arrived from Portland Sunday. Mr. Ayers went on over to the Scott valley mines Tuesday. Mrs. Ayers and children will remain in Ashland for several weeks, but will probably go to Scott valley for the summer. Ashland Tidings.

CON STIPATION.

Affects half the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarsaparilla that acts on the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It relieves it in 24 hours, and an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to C. E. Elkington, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco; J. H. Brown, Petaluma; H. S. Wain, Geary Court, San Francisco, and hundreds of others who have used it in constipation. One letter is a sample of hundreds. Elkington writes: "I have been for years subject to bilious headaches and constipation. Have been so bad for a year back have had to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache. After taking one bottle of J. V. S., I am in splendid shape. It has done wonderful things for me. People similarly troubled should try it and be convinced."
