

A PRISONER ESCAPED.—At the last term of the Circuit Court Ben Morris was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 for assaulting his father-in-law at Sweet Home. In default of payment he had served about a fifth of a year in the county jail. When he was released he was ordered to give $500 as a bond for his good behavior. Morris was released on his own bond. He was a well known character in the county and was a member of the Grand Jury. He was a member of the Grand Jury. He was a member of the Grand Jury.

WANT IT BAD.—Here is one from Vale: "The completion of the Oregon Pacific through Vale is an event anxiously awaited by the people here. A large part of this state through which this road will run is without any railroad facilities whatever. This portion has a genial climate and much mineral, lumber and agricultural wealth as yet undeveloped." And another from Prineville: "No late news from the Oregon Pacific. Everything seems to be on a standstill, while the people here are straining their ears to hear the snort of the iron horse as he looks over the summit of the Cascades and wishes for a bit of lunch-grass. Col Hogg, why don't you run your little road over here, so that you can turn your steed out on the range, and grow wealthy by carrying the freight of this country?"

PLEAD THE PAPER ACT.—Of all the ridiculous resolutions for a party to pass that by the republican county convention of Marion county. Here it is: "Resolved, That the public roads of the state are in a deplorable condition, and that it is the duty of our state legislature to do all in their power to better them, and that the legislative delegation from this county be instructed to secure such legislation as will favor city and county improvements." In other words, while other counties like Marion are attending to their own roads, the party in power of that rich county pleads the paper act like a few small counties, and wants the state to attend to its roads, even its city improvements. For shame.

CREEKY DURAND.—A Portland dispatch of last Saturday says: Ezra Durand, of the Du and Organ Company, who ran away from this city some six weeks ago after swindling a large number of his brethren in the church by selling valuable stock in his company and by forging many notes, is now in the City of Mexico and writes that he is making $500 a month selling pianos and says if those whom he swindled will agree not to prosecute him he will come back and pay up. His delinquencies are estimated at from $50,000 to $150,000.

THEY WILL TRY.—The Salem Board of Trade met this evening and discussed the matter of offering a subsidy of $100,000 for a competing transcontinental railroad. The board ordered an advertisement inserted in fifty eastern papers. The board has a communication from the head of a colony in Mississippi, who wants to come here to grow grain and fruit, claiming that there is no longer any money in raising cotton. —Cor. Oregonian.

ECONOMISING.—Chas Hogan, who has been in the O.P. office at Corvallis several months, is in the city, being one of twenty or thirty hands along the road, the company is economising on. Mr Hogan is a faithful, reliable young man, but being one of the last men employed, had, of course, to be sacrificed.

A CHORAL SOCIETY.—Next Friday evening at 7:30 a meeting will be held in the college chapel for the purpose of organizing a choral society. It is desired to secure one hundred voices if possible, and have a chorus that will be a credit to Albany, which already has the distinction of having the best male organization in the valley. All interested in music should attend and help to make the society a success.

A SCHO CASE.—Geo Humphrey Esq. went to Seio today to defend Mr Wid Blyen, of that city, in a case of the state against him on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, the particulars of which were not obtained.

SCHOOL LITERARY.—The literary society of the public school will hold its second public meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:15, April 5th. Friends of the society are invited.

YOUR ATTENTION is called to our line of Parisienne costumes, capes, jackets, blouses and trunks, which is now complete. They are tailor-made and guaranteed to fit. The cloths are of the latest fabric. Very truly,
SAML E. YOUNG.
Opposite the Russ House, Albany, Or.

Last Wednesday Mr and Mrs A Lytle removed to Eugene where they will make their home. We are sorry to lose valued friends such as Mr and Mrs Lytle. That they will surround themselves with kind friends and neighbors, is the wish of their numerous friends here.—Prineville News.

Mr Sims who came down on the O.P. from Mid City today reported that it was thought in the neighborhood of Mr Hester, father of the two children in the city seeking aid, that he was going insane, and that it was reported that he drove the children away from home; but this is a different story from that told by the children, and may not be correct. The boy and girl, anyway, are entitled to assistance.

TANGENT.
TANGENT, APRIL 4, 1892.

There has been considerable moving done here in Tangent the last few days. Mr Powell has moved into the Cochran house and Jesse Moses has moved with his family to Albany.

Marriages.—Mr George Simpson and Miss Anna Wood were united in marriage at the residence of W H Settlement on Sunday, March 27th, Rev H B Elworthy, pastor of the E E church officiating. A good many relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony, and on Monday evening some of the Tangent band boys gave them a serenading. Mr Simpson being a member of the band. A fine supper was served for the occasion. Mr Frank L Fisher and Miss E Ballard of Philomath, were married near Corvallis, March 27th, and on last Friday they returned to their home in Tangent. Mr Fisher will be employed in Smith & Moses' nursery, while Mr Simpson is our enterprising butcher.

The judge of the district court of Tangent passed sentence on the prisoner on last Saturday night at the literary society. His sentence was at hard labor in preparing a speech for the society or a song or a fine of 25 cents. Our society is growing in membership, and is the largest league in the United States working under the rules of the Youth's Companion. Our question for next week, is resolved that the liquor traffic is more destructive than war. Leaders are as follows: Affirmative, Ben S Mills, Nathan Barber, David Bridgefarmer, Negative, George Kuttie, Mac Jenks, F M Mitchell.

There will be easter services held at both churches here this year.

YOUNG AMERICA.

THOSE GYPSIES.—The Salem Journal tells the following about the gypsies now in the city: One hundred and fifty people witnessed a foot race between Lew Evans, a blacksmith at Knight's shop and one of the Scotch gypsies of South Salem. It was forty yards for $5. The gypsy won in 4 1/2 seconds. He stopped stark naked and ran like a deer. The gypsies ran foul of a Salem horse owner who was too much for them. He had a horse not worth 16 cents, as a two hours drive lays him up for two months. But he was soared and fed to look slick and the gypsies gave a pretty good cayuse for him. They traded the 16 cent horse to a farmer today for a plow animal.

A good many cases of measles are reported in Albany.

IT'S NECESSARY.—The necessity for advertising is very apparent to any reflective mind. If an owner wishes to sell his property he must let some one know his wish—if he kept his intention to himself he would also keep his property to himself. To advertise means "to apprise, inform, make known, announce, promulgate, publish the fact that Parker Bros carry a first-class stock of groceries, produce and baked goods, which can always be depended on to be fresh and in season. The fact is one worth advertising.

"A MUCH MARRIED WOMAN."—Mrs Fowler, of this city, was married last January to her sixth husband, and strange as it may seem five of them died exactly two years from their marriage day. Her present husband is hale and hearty and says he does not think Mrs Fowler will be able to get her seventh husband so long as he buys his groceries fresh from F. E. Allen, opposite the Masonic Temple.

CONN & HENDERSON LEAD.—They have the groceries, the produce and the good treatment. They lead in prices and quality. If you want standard groceries, call on them; if you want the freshest produce do not pass by their store; their teas and coffees are the best. A good way to save money is by dealing with them. It will count in a month's trading. Try it.

The democrats also elected six out of eight aldermen, giving them control of the city council. The republicans elected the treasurer by a small majority and also a police magistrate.

Junetion held an exciting school election Saturday. The west side was victorious by 26 majority, therefore the new school house will be erected in the M.M. addition. The question of issuing $7000 worth of bonds for the purpose of building the new school house, carried by 157 majority.—Guard.

Camps of the Muscles Cured.
John I Wool, of Stratford, Ont., was cured of cramps in the legs by wearing Alcock's Porous Plaster. Mr Wool says: "Some three months ago I was taken very sick with severe pain in the small of my back over the kidneys. The pain was excruciating. I applied an Alcock's Porous Plaster over the affected region and had relief almost within an hour. At the same time, in conjunction with this trouble, I had very great nervous disturbance, affecting my legs with cramps so I could scarcely sleep. Meeting with such success with my back I applied a plaster under the knee on each leg, and in three days was completely cured, and have never been troubled in either way since."

A man who has always been a republican tells the Journal that he intends to vote the democratic ticket this year. He is a bricklayer and his excuse is that men have been brought here from Portland to do a large job of brick laying, while he has his home here to pay taxes on and his family to support and thinks he should be given a chance to work when there is any to do.—Salem Journal. The reason is a peculiar one, but the end no doubt justifies the means.

Judge John M Daly, of Dallas, came down from McMinnville yesterday, as is his custom when a republican convention is being held. He says the fight between Boise and Burnett, the republican candidates for the judgeship of the Third district, is very close and it is hard to tell which has the advantage. This district is a republican stronghold, and candidates for positions are numerous. However, he is confident a democrat will be elected. McJim and Bingham are candidates for prosecuting attorney in the same district, and both are making a hard fight. He does not know who is on top, as both candidates claim the delegation.—Oregonian.

A WORD EXPLANATORY.

The DEMOCRAT disclaims all responsibility for the appearance of the name of the "Royal" in the list of baking powders inserted in this paper recently.

The statements in the article referred to, unfavorably reflecting upon the Royal Baking Powder, have been investigated and proved entirely untrue.

A careful examination shows that the reports from which the quotations in said article are alleged to have been made, where they refer to the Royal Baking Powder or its constituents, class it as a cream of tartar powder, show it to be of superior purity and wholesomeness, and the greatest in leavening strength of any baking powder tested.

Although it is unlikely that such statements could harm an article of such high reputation and well known purity and excellence as the Royal Baking Powder, we make this explanation that our readers may understand the true character of the publication.
