

GOOD EVENING

CAUGHT BY THE HAIR.—Joe Whisman narrowly escaped drowning the day he took his horse. He was thrown into the creek, which was high and swift, and was unable to save himself. His brother John and his little boy ran down the creek about four hundred yards and got a canoe and rowed up the stream as far as possible. When Joe got within thirty feet of them he became exhausted and went under for the last time. The water was muddy and John could not see him but guessing where he was reached into the water as far as possible and caught him by the hair. He pulled him up and the boy then paddled the canoe to the shore. Joe was then taken out and rubbed and rolled and wrapped in warm blankets. He was unconscious when taken out and soon after gaining consciousness fainted and those who were working over him thought he was dying but by vigorous rubbing and the use of brandy he was brought about so that he was able to walk inside of three hours. The accident happened near John's house.—Eugene Register.

ARBOR DAY.—The public school on Friday afternoon will observe Arbor day with appropriate exercises. The program will consist of two parts. First, the literary part, which consists of selections, music, etc., in the rooms of the building. The rooms will be grouped, two and two, and each group will render a separate program. These will begin at 2 p. m. Second, the march of the pupils, the planting of the tree and music will be given on the grounds. The tree is named in honor of John G. Whittier. Speeches will be delivered at the tree by Supt. Russel and members of the school board. The march will be at 2 p. m. All are invited to attend.

BRUKE UP THE SCHOOL.—A few days ago A. J. Nicholls closed a singing school at Wylie's school house, a few miles from Sweet Home. Three young men thought they would add to the occasion and went there for the purpose of painting the affair red, which they did in a very unbecoming manner, breaking up the entertainment. A warrant was issued out of Justice Humphrey's court, and they were brought to Albany this morning, plead guilty and were fined $10 apiece. They were heartily ashamed of the affair. They were Ed Harris, Former Malone and another young man about the same age.

A RICH STRIKE.—A gentleman who came in from the Myrtle Creek mines this week reports a rich strike there. They have struck an old channel that is extremely rich in the yellow metal. He says he saw $30 taken out of three pans, and one pan yielded $10, one piece being valued at $9. This is looked upon by the men as the richest strike in that region, but there is acre after acre of good paying dirt. Washing is going on tight along and it is likely that the next clean up will be a good one.—Register.

A BRAZEN FRAUD.—An agent representing a Los Angeles house is canvassing lower down the valley for crayon portraits without cost, charging $4 for the frame and framing. Of course, the picture will be a dud, while the frame is almost worthless. Let the traveling fakers alone if you wish to save your money. They invariably bilk the customers who are verdant enough to think they can get anything of value for almost nothing.—Ex. No matter how much advertised there will be plenty in Linn county to patronize such bilks.

JOHNNY IN THE DITCH.—This morning Johnny Meyers was delivering the Examiner to a Third Ward subscriber, when he met with an experience not down on his program. In approaching the foot bridge over the ditch on Second street he struck something, throwing him and his bicycle into the middle of the raging canal. Johnny striking on his back, and not even is he escaping a wetting. He crawled out and his bicycle was secured with a long handled rake.

WHAT FOR.—Mr. Lydell Baker was to be nominated for Attorney General by the republicans this afternoon. As Attorney General Chamberlain holds his office until the end of 1924, according to the laws of Oregon, it is difficult to see what sense there is in the movement. There must be some of the Marion county republicans who passed the road resolutions in the convention.

A ROCKY CASE.—A few days ago an altercation occurred at Sodaville between W. W. Parrish and Mr. Cheshir, resulting in the latter throwing a rock at Mr. Parrish, hitting him. On complaint of Mr. Parrish, Mr. Cheshir was arrested, and was to be tried at Lebanon yesterday; but the case was postponed until today.

GRAND LODGE REPRESENTATIVES.—At the regular meeting of Albany Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F. held Wednesday evening, the following representatives to the Grand Lodge were elected: G. F. Russell, C. W. Sears and T. J. Sittes. The Grand Lodge meets at Astoria in next month.

Irvine, of McMinnville, is in the city visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. G. L. Blackman and daughter left this morning for Portland, their future home. Rev. E. R. Pritchard went to Salem this morning to hear B. Fay Mills, the evangelist, tonight.

Mr. Albert Cole, of Seio, a former satanic mystic on the DEMOCRAT, was in the city today, and called.

F. L. Kuch arrived in the city this morning, and will probably remain during the summer, improving his Cloverdale property.

Little Edith Elder, niece of Mr. Virgil Parker, arrived in Albany today alone, from a month's sojourn at Coos Bay. She came by way of Portland, coming up on the ocean with an uncle.

Ex-Councilman Tabler and family will leave tonight on the overland for San Jose, where or Santa Cruz, he will make his future home. He intends to pay Albany a visit when the new bridge is dedicated.

Last evening the members of the Epworth League and their friends spent a social evening at the residence of Mr. Griggs. A short program was rendered, consisting of songs, recitations, etc., and the evening was passed in different kinds of amusements.

Sir Edward Watkin, the "railroad king," was married yesterday in London to Mrs. Ingram, widow of the founder of the Illustrated London News. Watkin is 72 and Mrs. Ingram 82 years old. Sir Edward is one of the most powerful railway magnates in Great Britain, and his bride is immensely wealthy. Sir Edward has a son who is married to a daughter of his bride. Now what relation are they.

Blackburn Not In It.

PORTLAND, April 7, 1922.—F. A. Moore, of St. Helens, was nominated for supreme judge by the republican state convention this afternoon.

HASN'T RETURNED.—Since Salem met defeat in being admitted (as promised) to membership in the Pacific Northwest Baseball league but little interest has been manifested here in baseball. The failure was disheartening, especially since "Pop" Lytle was sent East with $500 of the Salem association's money and up to the hour of going to press has neither returned to Salem nor remitted the amount entrusted into his keeping for use in signing players and sending them here to join the team. It is possible Mr. Lytle may return the money, but it is certain he has not done so as yet and until this matter is straightened out satisfactorily there is but little prospect of accomplishing anything in the matter of forming a team here to enter an amateur semi-professional league with Independence, Albany and McMinnville.—Statesman.

OREGON'S CEREALS.—The superintendent of census has issued the following statistics of cereal production in Oregon for the census year ending May 31, 1920: Wheat—563,270 acres, 9,298,224 bushels; oats—218,736 acres, 5,948,594 bushels; barley—37,803 acres, 876,668 bushels. In addition to the foregoing were corn, rye and buckwheat, aggregating 19,196 acres in Oregon. In Oregon the total area in cereals has increased since 1879 from 632,871 acres to $29,005 acres, not including at least 27,000 acres, mainly in Wasco and Gilliam counties, on which the crops were either destroyed by drought or cut for forage.

KINDLY REMEMBERED.—Newspaper men are remembered from all quarters. Today one of the employes at the depot found a snake with his head in a bottle, at the Lebanon junction, with the following instructions: "Please deliver to the local editor of the DEMOCRAT." As the Man About Town never has the delirium tremens the little reptile is not needed. The joker no doubt has many occasions to see snakes, and may retain him.

"A MUCH MARRIED WOMAN."—Mrs. Fowler, of this city, was married last January to her sixth husband, and strange as it may seem five of them died exactly two years from their marriage day. Her present husband is hale and hearty and says he does not think Mrs. Fowler will be able to get her seventh husband so long as he buys his groceries fresh from F. E. Allen, opposite the Masonic Temple.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc.

What a debt of gratitude the world owes to such men as Dr. Ayer and Jones—the latter for the great discovery of vaccination, and the former for his Extract of Sarsaparilla—the best of blood purifiers! Who can estimate how much these discoveries have benefited the race!

RICHARDS—BAKER.—On April 6, 1922, at the residence of the bride's parents in Silverton, Mr. Wm. Richards of Albany and Miss Angie Baker of Silverton. The DEMOCRAT extends best wishes for prosperity and happiness.

Quite a relic of the late fire was found yesterday in the ruins of the Congregational church, where the foundation for the new one is being laid. This was a bible which had passed through the flames, and although completely burned, the printing could be distinctly read on the outside exposed pages. It appeared as though the pages were intact, but very little binding would have caused them to break into very small pieces.—The Dalles T. M.

Tom and Jerry would be a good ticket to defeat—Tom Reed and Jerry Rusk.

Oregon will have no exhibit at the World's fair, Too bad. This settles the case. The Man About Town will not go.

Col. Ingersoll says the ideal home is in the country, where "every field is a picture, and landscape; every landscape a poem; every flower a tender thought, and every forest a fairy land."

Albany people who invested their money in town lots in other N. W. cities are coming to the conclusion that it would have been much better to have staked their fortunes in Albany.

The trains from the south are bringing scores of tramps into the valley and they drop off at every station. The hot weather and haying season are approaching in California and they are trying to get as far away as possible. They had better skip Albany. Our police officers mean business and will make them think they are more than harvesting in California if they stop off here.

A day or two ago we published something from the Woodburn Independent about the Salem Journal man. Here is something the other way: It is too bad the mythical fool killer does not really exist. Of course, his existence, if he were a faithful servant, would be death of a majority of the people.—Woodburn Independent. If he could exist even for a half second and get in his work on the Woodburn editor, the whole Willamette valley would breathe a sigh of relief.

The receipts from stamp sales, etc., and box rents at the Salem postoffice for the year ending March 31st last were more than twice as large as those for the Albany office during the same time. Both offices show good increase in business over the preceding year. The increase at the Salem office was 13 per cent.—Statesman.

With the immense patronage of the state institutions it ought to be nearly twice as much with the same population. Albany's population is 4628; Salem's nearly twice as much.

A dispatch from Boise City says that the detectives who went to a ranch near Salmon Falls, in search of the six women suspected of being stage robbers, have placed the women under arrest, and report there is no doubt of their guilt. The women, who claim to be sisters, are said to have committed many highway robberies in that section of the country. They were dressed as men while engaged in the crimes. The women declare their father compelled them to become bandits. The arrest of the old man is expected. The name of the family is Harvey. The girls say they hated the work and are glad it is over.
