April 18th, 1892. Dr O B Reese is suffering from rheu-matism of the ankle.

We in Brownsville feel confident we will poll a good vote in June, and if all will work old Linn is safe to the hated democrats. There are a few Alliance men in this place we find. party mustered up his little flock and, amid the storm, they started for Albany to see what could be done with that great evil. I do not know whether it was getting wet or something else, they all have a cold, and are awful sore because they could not muster out one hundred. They treed to muster some young voters in to a cold, and are awful sore because they could not muster out one hundred. They tryed to muster some young voters in to secure their number, but failed, just as they will when June comes. It is amusing to hear them talk what a rotten platform the democrats and republicans have. Too bad, isn't it, that a whole lot of old broken down politicians can't get in. We are thankful we have no alliance men here. We have some here that can't vote a straight ticket. That is all right. I will say this in conclusion that both democrats and republicans have enough good men on their tickets that we can have our county offices filled with the best of men. Vote for the man, not politics, for county officers, but vote as you please for the state ticket. I hope every man in different precincts will look well to the interests of the county and fill our offices with the best of men. For County Commissioner we have two good men. Mr Miller is a first-class man, honest and a gentleman, one that will fill the office with honor. So is Mr Pugh a good man. We will have a good County Commissioner let either one get there. there. At midnight last night the foregoing looked like the ticket the democratic state convention would nominate today. The Eastern Oregon delegates caucused yesterday and decided that the congressman should come from Portland, and Judge McArthur is their favorite. Eastern Oregon also decided upon Mr Butcher for elector and Henry Blackman and H C Grady for delegates to the national convention. Their election is sure.
