April 25th, 1892. Easter Sunday is past, and still it rains, although a great many of the old settlers predicted good weather after Easter. It seems all signs fail in Oregon

Rev Gerard preached quite an interest-ing sermon at Liberty church last Sun-day. He will preach at the same place the fifth Sunday in May at H o'clock.

Rev Sperry held services at Liberty on Faster at 4 o'clock, a large congregation being present.

On last Sunday the Sunday school was reorganized. Mr John Bingenheimer was elected Superintendent instead of Mrs Smith, who declined to serve, and Mr Dave Foren, Assistant Supt. Sunday school next Sunday at 10 o'clock. All cordially invited to attend.

Rumor says we may listen for the welding bells of Mr D., of Beaver Creek, to send forth their joyous peals in the near future. What means it, Frank?

The next time Mr K escorts a young lady to a dance we would advise him to put his riding dress in a more secure place, especially it it is a stormy evening.

School at the Junction is progressing very nicely under the management of Mr Latta, three weeks being already gone.

The Journal says: "Marshal Minto discovered a fire in the Fan saloon." It is safe to bet that all fires discovered by Salem policemen will be in saloons.— Woodburn Independent.

The Woodburn Independent says that a week ago Anrahal Minto of Salem, was in the city looking for C H Smith, but he did not find him. Wm Woodworth, of Howell Fraire, had been to Salem and sworn out a warrant for Smith's arrest, alleging that Smith had committed adultery with his wife, Mrs Woodworth. The officer went to arrest Smith, who jumped ou. of a window and got away. Mrs Woodsworth appears to be completely infatuated with Smith, for she started out the other day to join him. The police officers shadowed her and arrested Smith in Southern Oregon. He is now under bonds to await the action of the grand jury. Mr Woodworth has commenced action for a divorce.
