

WASHINGTON.

(From our regular correspondents.)

WASHINGTON, Apr. 25, 1892.

Mr Harrison's visit to New York this week, while ostensibly for the purpose of attending the laying of the corner stone of the Grant monument, is in reality for the purpose of settling the question of his candidacy for a re-nomination. He will carry with him the two men who were taken into the cabinet solely to bring about his re-nomination - Secretary Foster has just returned from Ohio, where he went to lay Harrison wires, and there is reason for believing, although he maintains to the contrary, that he found the anti-Harrison sentiment too strong for him, and that the Ohio delegation will go to Minneapolis uncommitted. With such states as Pennsylvania and Ohio sending uncommitted delegations, it becomes necessary for Mr Harrison to capture the New York delegation or throw up the sponge.

Senator Teller is doing all he knows how to do to make himself disagreeable to the administration. Not satisfied with charging Mr Harrison with having been in league with the money power lobby to defeat the free coinage bill in the House, he knocked the bottom out of a very nice little scheme which Mr Harrison has been concocting for electioneering purposes by offering a resolution, which was adopted by the senate, calling upon the president for information as to what steps have been taken toward the holding of an international monetary conference, and for copies of all correspondence with governments invited to participate therein. Senator Sherman made a hole for Mr Harrison to crawl out by amending the resolution by adding "if not incompatible with the public interests," but Mr Teller intimates that Mr Harrison would better not try to make use of it. It is known that Mr Harrison has had secret agents at work for months trying to get the European governments to agree to take part in such a conference, and it is said that they have succeeded in getting a number of them to do so, and that the conference is to be held when it will do the republican party the most good - just before the election, when all sorts of promises can be made as to what it will do.

Senator Palmer has announced himself a candidate for the presidential nomination, and he says he will endeavor to secure the entire Illinois delegation.

Senator Call has offered a resolution which, if adopted and carried out, would get together some very valuable information. It provides for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the present value per mile of the railways of the U. S., their present capitalization and the difference between such capitalization and their actual cost; their gross and net receipts; number and compensation of employees; amount of bonded indebtedness and capital and stock; and a list of stockholders and bondholders, giving their residences.

The senate, in its usual ponderous way, is discussing the House Chinese exclusion bill. The republicans are trying hard to make party capital out of the democratic vote by which Representative Rockwell, of New York, was retained in his seat, notwithstanding the report of a majority of the elections committee in favor of the contestant, Representative McMullin, of Tennessee, valued the general democratic as well as the common sense view when he said of it: "I cannot see how it can affect the democratic party. It was a case upon which men could honestly differ and upon which they did differ. Mr Rockwell had the advantage of the skill with which his case was presented, and there were many minds that were not made up until the final presentation of the case. The very length of the debate and the perfect freedom which marked it was sufficient to show the country that the democratic House was willing to listen to every phase of the case."

Some gossip has been caused by the report that Mr Blaine was very brusque in his refusal of the invitation to accompany Mr Harrison and the administration party which is to go to New York tomorrow evening to take part in laying the corner stone of the Grant monument, on Wednesday. Mr Blaine is at least constant; there was never any love displayed by him for General Grant in his life-time, and he declines to make a pretense of it over his grave.

CON STIPATION.

Afflicts half the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarsaparilla that acts on the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It relieves it in 24 hours, and an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to C. M. Elkington, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco; J. H. Brown, Petaluma; H. H. Wills, Geary Court, San Francisco, and hundreds of others who have used it in constipation. One letter is a sample of hundreds. Elkington writes: "I have been for years subject to bilious headaches and constipation. Have been so bad for a year back have had to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache. After taking one bottle of J. V. S. I am in splendid shape. It has done wonderful things for me. People similarly troubled should try it and be convinced."

Senator Voorhees says of the platform adopted by the Indiana democratic convention: "It is a sound platform, embracing tariff reform and a currency of gold and silver and legal tender paper (greenbacks) on an equality with each other. This is an old democratic platform and no new departure toward Wall street." He adds the state ticket is a splendid one, with a practical farmer at its head, and that it is certain to sweep the state into the democratic column this year.

Hon W. R. Biley, of Albany, the nominee for district attorney upon the democratic ticket, to be elected by all means. He is a fine lawyer; he is a man that tends strictly to business; he is a man of sobriety and uprightness, and will make a faithful, painstaking officer. If the voters will take the trouble to inquire into the standard and qualifications of the two nominees they will very likely come to the conclusion that we are about right.—Independence West Side.

It may have been unnecessary to nominate Attorney General Chamberlain, but in case the supreme court should take the other view of it the action of the convention will be justified. General Chamberlain is now filling the office of attorney general with great ability, and the people of Oregon will be wise to keep him there. Roseburg Review.

Thos F. Miller, candidate on the democratic ticket for commissioner, is one of our most substantial farmers, who if elected is broad minded enough to see the needs and require ments of every section of the county irrespective of the locality.—Scio Press.
