WEDNESDAY EVENING

LEWISTON CITY CONVENTION.—The election of republicans for the nomination of city officers was held at the home last evening. Chairman J. J. Graham, Secretary, E. D. Cusick, 1st asst., C. W. Watts; tellers, Grant Froberg, John Robson and Ezra... The chairman on taking his oath made a live speech on the subject of progress and progress.

WALTER KETCHUM.—Mr. Walter Ketchum returned yesterday from Ashland, where his family will remain for awhile. David Scott, P. M., at Fox Valley, J. L. Berry, a prominent Breitenbusher, and Henry Susens, ex-foreman of Albany Engine Co No 1, now a rancher, came in from the front on last night's O. P.

LANE CO. DOINGS.—Morris Levinger has resigned as agent for Wells, Fargo & Co's express in Eugene, and George Whitney, who has been in the office as assistant during the past year, has been appointed to the vacancy. George Park, at an early hour this morning, being under the influence of red liquor, after he had been thrown out of the saloon of Withrow & Hadley, for making a disturbance, proceeded to demolish a $20 plate glass in one of the doors. In so doing he cut one of his hands considerably.

AT Cottage Grove yesterday, O. E. Smith, landlord of the Depot Hotel at that place, and U. G. Walker got into a dispute over a bill when Smith struck Walker, who pulled out a knife and gave his antagonist a slash with it over his head, which was cut quite badly, and down one side of the face and neck, and ended up the stroke by some means cutting himself in one of his legs. The wounds are not of a dangerous nature. Walker was arrested on a charge of an assault with a dangerous weapon.—Guard.

ART SOUVENIRS.—Within the last few years there have been published some very fine albums which have found their way into many homes. Among the first that were published was "Shepp's photographs of the world," a work of some real merit whose greatest faults are that its pictures are small, and produced by an inferior process, and the descriptions are compiled by unknown men who have fallen into many errors in trying to describe the scenes which they themselves have never been privileged to behold. But it is nevertheless very attractive, and would find a ready sale, if it were not for the advent of a far superior work "Glimpses of the World" by the world-renowned lecturer John I. Stoddard.

LEBANON.—J. B. Thompson has again taken charge of the St Charles hotel. Bud Thompson has gone to housekeeping in Dr Courtney's house. J. W. Bishop, of Hamilton Creek, is feasting on green peas of the second crop. He brought us some this week. Mr. Bishop also has some fine radishes and turnips. These speak volumes for our mild climate.

The female students of Ann Arbor, Michigan, have adopted a rainy weather costume which might be profitably imitated by Oregon ladies. It consists of a "high water" skirt—instead of reaching to the soles of the shoes, it reaches only half-way from the knee to the ankle and long gaiters serve to supply the deficiency. If this costume were adopted in Oregon the rainy season would lose half its terror to the female heart.—Ex.

Engineer Sampson has a forty-acre fruit farm in the "thermal belt" just above town. Thanksgiving he had watermelon with his turkey and the melon was grown on his ranch, hitherto untouched by frost. Mr. Sampson flatters himself that he is above the fog line and below the snow line.—Grants Pass Courier.

The Grants Pass Courier hits the spike on the head as follows: It is bad taste to stay in a country and keep running it down. It does no good to keep croaking and only gets your hearers down on you. If you don't like it here, get up and git, even if you have to jump a blind baggage or crawl in on a brakebeam. There are only a few croakers here, but they are always ready to give strangers a big "bill" about what a delusion and a snare the country is. Most judges of human nature are able to "size up" the croaker and know he would be a fizzle anywhere.

The Pendleton E. O. is making a war on the Oregonian. Notwithstanding the Oregonian is a great paper, and for news is decidedly a credit to the Northwest; but here is some of the E. O. for interesting reading matter: The San Francisco Examiner published a fuller and complete report of the train robbery at Hot Springs, Wash., than the Portland Oregonian. The Examiner is the newspaper of the coast and its price is only fifteen cents a week delivered. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer has grown to be equally as good a paper as the Portland Oregonian. The latter is not as good a newspaper as it was three years ago. Its revenues are being absorbed in paying interest on a $300,000 mortgage on a half-million-dollar building. The people are paying for the building in installments. While equally as good papers as the Oregonian are delivered by carrier at fifteen cents a week, the Oregonian charges twenty-five, and five cents a week extra for the Sunday issue. This is necessary, because the building must be paid for.

Remember all boots and shoes bought at Klein Bros that rip, run over or soles come loose will be repaired by us free of charge.

STRANGERS In our city will be treated same courtesy as old friends and customers at Brownell's.

Mr. Chas. N. Hauer of Frederick, Md., suffered terribly for over ten years with abscesses and turning sores on his left leg. He wasted away, grew weak and thin, and was obliged to use a cane and crutch. Full particulars of his case will be sent all who address C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner Pills, assist digestion, cure headache and biliousness.

AN OPEN LETTER.

I have for the past two years been afflicted with chronic pericarditis, accompanied all the time by great pain around the heart, with excessive circulation, sleepless nights, fear and distress. I was unable to attend to the duties of my profession. I had exhausted my knowledge of medicine, as also that of my colleagues, and found no relief until coming under the electro-magnetic treatment of Drs Darrin. A little more than a month elapsed since I received this treatment, and I can truthfully say that I am cured. I have none of my former troubles, and wish thus to give my personal experience in the interest of humanity. I have been a practicing physician fourteen years and am well known in this city and Marsfield, Or. I deem it but just duty to the public and Drs Darrin to write the above.

Office hours from 10 a m to 4 p m; evenings, 7 to 7; Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, and catarrh and deafness, are confidentially and successfully treated.
