LINN COUNTY COUNCIL.

GRANG PRAIRIE GRANGE HALL,

Dec, 3rd, 1892. The regular session of the Linn County Business Council met with the above Business Council met with the above named grange, Worthy President I II Scott in the chair. In the absence of the Worthy Secretary, Bro Wigle, Bro S S Train acted as secretary pro tem.

The agent stated that he had no report to make at present.

The different committees having no report to make the council then proceeded under the head of unfinished business, when the recommend by the committee on legislation in regard to the trespass law was taken up and talked on by several members in a very animated manner, and it was decided that there should be a more stringent trespass law.

Dinner being in readiness the President deciared a recess of one hour to partake of Dinner being over, the president re-called the house to order and proceeded with business under the head of precinct assessors, and it was unanimously decided with business under the Lead of precinct assessors, and it was unanimously deciled in favor of said precinct assessor.

On motion a committee was appointed by the council to wait on the different members of the legislature of the counties composing the Linn Co, Council to work for said amendments. Said committee consisted of Hon R A Irvine, of Linn county; Bro D Leeper, of Benton county; Bro A C Jennings, of Lane county; W G Quick, of Polk county, and J Voorhees, of Marion county.

On motion the next session of the council will be held with Krox Butle grange on the first Saturday in January, 1893.

On suggestions for the good of the order several members spoke on matters of importance to the subordinate granges, especially on installation of officers.

On motion Bro S A Dawson was selected as railread commissioner, to be elected by the next legislature, and was talked on by Bros D Leeper, Irvine, Bryant, Train, Quick and others. Said motion was carried.

Bro Hayes, state lecturer of the grange.

tion was carried. Bro Hayes, state lecturer of the grange, was called out, and gave quite an able talk in regard to the welfare of the patrons of husbandry. Bro Hayes read a letter from Bro R P Boise from the National grange, which was of interest to grangers.
All patrons of the council who were not present missed a great treat and the good things that were said by the different members attending said council. Bro Hayes was well applauded at the close of his speech.
