

PORTLAND PAPER.—A Portland paper part of the story: "In 1888 was visited by W. G. Steel, and E. D. DeWitt. Up to no living thing had been found and unruined waters of the lake it was a disputed question fish could live at that high altitude. About 44 miles this lake the gentlemen secured trout and placed them in a water. Carrying the bucket them the adventurers began hanging the water whenever any presented itself. Although action was taken, when the finally reached only 37 of the alive, and they could have a few minutes longer at the thing has been heard from the a few days ago, when Col. of Ashland, returned from a wonderful lake. He reports have grown and multiplied. Ashland Tidings this: "Col. must have been turned by election—or the resulting. Mr H F Merrill returned last night from Portland accompanied by his mother and sister, who had just arrived from New York. A B Seal, of San Francisco, formerly of this city, was in Albany to day on his way to Portland, in the interest of Schilling & Co. Jos Klein and wife, J J Dubrulle, D B Moneth and C W Watts went to Salem to day to attend the funeral of Mrs Tony Klein, taking along a beautiful floral anchor.

Judge Burnett received a letter the other day from an old friend in Kansas City which contained the names of all the voters in New county, Mo. [now Kansas City], in 2288. There were only 31 in all, and among them was Uncle Penman Henderson, an old and highly respected citizen of this county. Considering that the town has now a population of over 200,000, it shows what a wonderful change may be wrought during the lifetime of man. Uncle Penman is hale and hearty, but perhaps the oldest man in Benton county. —Corvallis Times

Last evening the C. L. S. C. met at the residence of S E Young and spent a delightful evening. In response to roll call general quotations were given from favorite authors. Dr J L Hill read an elaborate and bright paper on Alaska. A question box on American history excited considerable interest. The whole was seasoned with sociability and some delicious home made taffy and chocolate cream. The present membership consists of F P Nutting, president; Mrs T J Overman, secretary and treasurer; Mrs Henrietta Brown, Mrs S E Young, Mr and Mrs C H Stewart, Mrs Redecker, Misses Annie and Catherine Althouse, Misses Clara Gard, Laura Tate and Hettie Miller, Mrs Nutting, E S Barrows, N M Newport, L E Hamilton and Collins and Lutehr Elkins, and Dr J L Hill. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, Dec 14th, at the residence of C H Stewart. Quotations from Longfellow. Question box on American history and literature, and a short program. Any one interested will be welcomed into membership.

Of 105 Tremont St. Boston, was in very poor health, from bad circulation of the blood, having rush of blood to the head, numb spells, and chills, and the physician said the veins were almost bursting all over her body. A colic- sion with a double rummer brought on neuralgia of the liver, causing great suffering. She could not take the doctor's medicine, so took Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon fully recovered, and now enjoys perfect health. She says she could praise Hood's Sarsaparilla all day and then not say enough. HOOD'S PILLS are hand made, and are perfect in composition, proportion and appearance.

RESULTS.

The Helena Journal, Russell Harrison's paper, has been sold at sheriff's sale. It was attached on the night of the election for more than $100,000. Nearly as bad a defeat as that of his father.

How different are the lives of editors. Most of us have to get down to solid work and transpire even; but not so with W R Hearst, of the Examiner. He is now gliding along the Nile, and will be in a marble villa in Italy. But the Examiner glides along the better for his absence.

District Attorney Condon seems determined to put the Sunday law in force throughout the district, and Saturday evening the order to close was promulgated in Roseburg. All the saloons of the city complied with the order without a "click" and the town was changed from a very wet to a very dry place in short order. —Roseburg Review.

Prince George, the eldest living son of the Prince of Wales, is to visit the Sound next summer, being connected with the British warship Arthur, which replaced the Warspite as flagship of the Pacific coast squadron. He is a handsome youth, and up to the wiles of the fair sex, but should he visit Astoria and fail to be snared by one of our modest beauties he is tougher than he ought to be and we will shanghai him. —Examiner.

Albany has a population of at least 4682, which is gradually increasing, over 1000 more than that of Eugene, though Eugene has the most school children in school, a peculiar fact, and one which has given the local papers the nightmare. The Guard says: The total number of students enrolled in the Albany public schools is 503, about two-thirds as many as in the Eugene schools. And still that town claims to have a population of 6,000. Too thin.

By Fyfanus Lane

Of the Cincinnati M E Conference, says: "We have for years used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family of five, and find it fully equal to all that is claimed for it."
