

GOOD EVENING.

THE COLLEGE ENTERTAINMENT.—Last evening in Assembly Hall, at the College, the Erodophilian and A. C. L. societies gave an open entertainment, delighting the good sized audience present, and conferring great credit on students and faculty alike. Miss Abbie Fry presided for the Erodophilians and Mr Melvin Williams for the A. C. L. Miss Olga Hewitt recited "The Swan's Nest." A song by quartet, Ethel Redfield, Nina Galbraith, Victor Moses and Oscar Goodman was heard with much pleasure and hearty encored. A duet by Misses Coughlin and Settemire was well sung. Mr Melvin Williams pronounced an oration on "Our Future," which was a very bright effort speaking for the talent of the young men. Eva Simpson recited a selection from "As you like it," with rare talent. Mr Bert Wright read an essay on "The Privilege of Being an American," an interesting production. Miss Nina Galbraith was heard as Aunt Tabitha, doing the part in a happy manner. A live feature of the program was some impromptu speeches by Prof Condit and Lee, and some toasts under the efficient management of the toastmistress, Miss Manie Cundiff. Miss Ava Baltimore responded to a toast on the prominent topics of the day in a pleasing manner. Miss May Pollock took off Chauncey Depew's Cleveland after dinner toasts in a bright way, and Eva Simpson did the Frenchman in a captivating manner on the subject of "The Ladies."

A NOTORIOUS SET OF ROBBERS.—A former resident of Eugene, Jos Theimer, has gone back to Nebraska, and writes to Eugene in a ridiculous manner, on the face of it showing the man to be a far of the first magnitude. The paper, the Stratton Herald, takes it all in, and warns people to shun the far famed "garden of Eden" as a pestilence. Here in the article: "Emigrants, westward bound, are warned against locating in Eugene, Oregon. The writer had a nice home, worth $2500, in the above named city, but was swindled out of the same by the city officers, who are a notorious set of robbers, with but one exception, the city marshal. This band of cut throats trumped up charges against me, had me thrown in jail where I took sick, and was only released after deeding my property to my wife. After they got my property out of my hands, by chicanery, they induced my wife, who was in collusion with the conspirators, to swear false against me and forced me to leave the country." The Guard takes the wind out of his sails, among other things saying: "Theimer was a resident of Eugene for many years, and during all that time never contributed to the support of a family, but on the contrary took the earnings of his wife and children and spent them for liquor. He frequently became intoxicated and shamefully abused and maltreated his wife. Owing to the influence of the G. A. R. post, of which he was a member, he was treated more leniently than he deserved, yet he had to be confined a number of times in jail. His conduct became so unbearable at one time that he was committed to the insane asylum." This is the kind of a man who generally writes up Oregon. He must either be crazy or malicious.

$6000 IN A YEAR.—Henderson Murphy one of our substantial farmers, living a few miles south of town. He is a thrifty man, and knows a good investment when he sees it. Less than a year ago he bought 1,500 head of sheep very cheap, paying for them only $1,650. He has sold since that time from the sheep $3,400 worth of wool and mutton and last week sold the present band of 1,500 to Holt McDaniel for $4,200. His profit was nearly $6,000. — West Side.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At the meeting of Beulah Rebekah Lodge held last evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Mrs Ella Merrill, N. G. Mrs Maggie Veal, V. G. Mrs J C Little, Rec. Sec. Mrs Elvira Gradahl, Treas. J C Little, Per Sec.

The children, grand children and great grand children of the late Thomas Alford of Harrisburg, number 207. All are not living however.

An effort is being made to have Benton county divided, making Yacima county on the west. Better not.

On account of ill-health S W Cooper is retiring from business in Harrisburg.

Mr Bert Van Cleave, the rising young comedian, returned to Albany this noon from his California tour.

Capt T J Overman and 1st Lieutenant J A McFerson returned last evening from a trip to Portland, where they attended a meeting of the O. N. G.

Mr David Osburn, Benton County's enterprising Sheriff, was in Albany to day on his way to Portland to attend the Sheriff's Convention that meets there Monday.

Mr J D Gula is in the city visiting friends. He has sold his drug store in Lafayette, and his family are visiting in Woodburn. On account of poor health he will rest for awhile.

U G Hayne and C L Buck left this noon for Sate Center, Iowa, on a visit to their old home, and will be gone about six weeks. They are among our best and most successful young men, and deserve a pleasant holiday season.

E H Flagg, editor of the Marion County Democrat, is in the city. Mr Flagg is a candidate for register of the land office at Oregon City, and is a good man for the place. His appointment would be in the interest of the people, and would meet with general favor.

In its K of Peolunn the Portland Telegram says: George W Hochstetler, supreme representative, is stopping in the city for several weeks, and any judge desiring his assistance in the new work will find him ready to help. He notified his headquarters at the Edmond.

Prof J A Sibbitts and family, it is reported, will soon remove to Junction City, where the Professor has quite large engagements as a teacher of music. He has done splendid work for the Gervais band and leaves it amply able to "paddle its own canoe." — Gervais Star.

The Jefferson Review tells of a peculiar double wedding: A double wedding occurred at the residence of Ashley West on Wednesday, Rev Longworth being the officiating clergyman. The contracting parties were J Randall and Mrs M J Groves, R S Oehler and Miss Nancy Lee Groves, the bride being mother and daughter. We unite with the balance of the people in congratulations.

Jas Lindsey, a Pendleton horse dealer, was in Indiana with some horses, and while there met a boy Charles Patterson, an orphan, whom he became somewhat interested in and paid his fare to Indianapolis in order to give him a start. Young Patterson seems to have taken a notion to Lindsey, and followed him to Pendleton by blind baggage, box cars, etc., arriving there after a six weeks trip. He made the trip on about a dollar's capital, Lindsey will stand by him and get him work.

MILL CITY.—The Cliff House in this place took fire in the roof last Friday afternoon, from a defective stovepipe, and had there not been timely effort it would have burned to the ground. This is the second time in the past six months that the building has been on fire, and if it had been consumed it would have went down without any insurance covering the property.

Mrs C R Read, of Gates, while returning from her visit at Mr Robertson's last Sunday evening, accidentally fell off the bank of the roadway to the log tramway, bruising herself badly. Her husband was meanwhile walking in front of her with a lantern, but could not turn around in time to save her from the fall. She rolled down the embankment some distance, but at no time since can account for her mishap. — Gazette.

Yesterday morning a small house in Eugene was burned. There had been a case of diphtheria in the house, and the family had vacated it. It was no doubt set on fire to burn the germs of the disease. Some insurance company will foot the bill, $300.

The Eugene Journal says: Rev E A McArthur, pastor of the Universalist church of this city, will commence a series of Sunday evening sermons on Sunday night next, Dec 18th, in which the doctrine of endless punishment will be reviewed and refuted.

On going from the early morning train yesterday morning Mr Fred Esie, the saloon keeper, saw a motor car fall into the street at the Episcopal church. On alighting the hot substance from the ground it was found to be a brown clayish kind of a substance about a foot in circumference. Part of it was sent to Portland for analysis.

We copy the following notice of Turner's English Gaiety Girls, the company that play at the opera house next Wednesday, Dec 21. From the Marquette & Daily Mining Journal: Turner's English Gaiety Girls Co is "all right." The company played here last night to a crowded house, and gave the best show of its kind that was ever given upon a Marquette stage. The only thing regretted is, that the company was unable to give us a second night. The company is worthy of a liberal patronage wherever it appears, as it gives a fine entertainment.

Deitrich, the Willamette hotel porter who got away with Mr Eaves money, to the amount of nearly $800, has served his time and been pardoned by the governor, upon recommendation of the district attorney, who convicted him. — Journal. It would seem that a man who robs another of a big sum of money ought to serve a term out if anybody in the world.

Mr Glover writes back from Kansas for people to be contented in Oregon and stay where they are. After selling his place down in Fox Valley some time ago, he moved back to his old home and finding things different from what he expected, volunteers advice to friends in the valley. — Mill City Gazette.

A neat and dandified looking fellow wearing diamonds, medals, etc, long hair and a sombrero hat was on Tuesday's south train. He was Captain Jim, a well-known Arizona stockman who had been in Oregon purchasing land. The Pullman porter said the decorations were distinctions placed on him for heroic services done the world in killing 14 reporters, three horses and two dozen mules in one shot. — Ashland Record.

A Umatilla county coyote is equal to an Albany man according to the following from the Pendleton E O: The other day some hunters placed some decoys upon the bank of a stream east of here, says the Pendleton Tribune, while going to dinner. A rancher who happened to be passing, saw a coyote approach, keeping his hungry eyes on the supposed ducks. Gradually creeping upon them, the coyote suddenly pounced on the decoys only to discover that all that glitters is not ducks, or words to that effect.

The Phipps family, of Jackson county, bents the record for family trouble. Here it is: M J Phipps was sued for damages by Spencer Childers for throwing him over a plow, by which the latter received injuries. The suit was for $10,000, but the jury gave Childers $1000. Emma Cooper sued Celeste Phipps and her son for damages for defamation of character and obtained a verdict of $5000. Young Phipps married a sister of the plaintiff and afterwards procured divorce, to set aside which another suit is now pending in the docket. In his sworn testimony in the divorce case he made an allegation against Miss Cooper which the jury found to be false, malicious and of such a character that they gave the verdict as stated.
