

GOOD EVENING

BAND ENTERTAINMENT.—A good audience greeted the entertainment of the Military Band last evening.

Opera House. A very miscellaneous but amusing program was presented.

Besides several selections from the semi-minstrel entertainment was a piano solo by Arthur Leimert.

A farcical comedy-serial was here put on the boards, with Will Galbraith and Fred Bruckman.

Edman whose watermelon had been Elmer Conn, another Dutchman, had lost his dog, Marvin Turner.

Arkey who stole them, Frank Watson and Charles Turtley, audience hoods.

Mr. Moses as master of ceremonies, set by Bert Van Cleave and R. J. Moses.

Mr. Van Cleave, who has returned from California has a voice and displays good talent.

R. J. Moses was heard in several solos.

Mr. Van Cleave was next, a dance on the Kikapoo Indian dance.

Two farces, "The Shop" and "The Dental Office," were presented.

A donkey song, a braying donkey accompaniment and the program.

Mrs. J. W. Tathian has been in Salem.

R. K. Montgomery, of Woodburn, is in the city.

Mr. W. L. Watkins, of Yachima City, was in town today.

H. F. Merrill went to Portland this noon for a few days on business.

Mr. Doynes Turner has returned from a trip to Washington, and will soon move with his family to that state.

J. M. Williams, the well-known washing machine manufacturer, of Eugene, is in the city.

Mr. Williams is preparing for the legal profession.

Last evening a very pleasant reception was tendered Miss Rose Trumbull at the residence of Mrs. Montgomery, by her friend, Miss May Montgomery.

Several hours were passed in a profitable and entertaining manner.

Mrs. W. H. Gaston, of Tacoma, Wash., has been in the city several days.

The guest of her father, Dr. Irvine, who has been ill for some time, but recently has been gradually improving, a fact all will learn with pleasure.

Our Fire Department

Editors Democrat:

It is a trite saying "that the wish is the father of the thought" and this spirit no doubt animated the palsied brain of the Sunday sheet—Telescope editor, when he conceived the false and calumnious statements, made in his answer to my article in last Monday's evening's DEMOCRAT.

His whole course in this matter is tainted and polluted with poisonous malice towards the management of the City Fire Department, and like a traveling pest house strewing his path with a disease common to some of the descendants of primitive man—called falsehood.

The assertion that Albany Engine Co. has no cokes of its own now, or has had none for four weeks past, is a base fabrication, and is in keeping with the other false and slanderous charges made in his answer.

I only desire, in justice to the managing officers of the Fire Department, to set this matter right in the minds of the people.

As to the advice given me as an officer of the department, considering the mental source from whence it came, I will treat it with silent contempt.

If this unjust course is pursued by the Telescope, in trying through false statements, to injure the efficiency of our departments, I predict that the life lamp of its existence will soon flicker and expire, and that an imprudent pencil shaver will be seen, bent over its decaying embers and trying in vain to search out the charred remains of what once was.

Then will the editor arraign himself before the tribunal of his own conscience and repent of his indiscretion.

If the good people of Albany doubt the truthfulness of my statement respecting the company being supplied with coke, I ask them to visit the engine rooms where they can ascertain for themselves.

CHAS. METZGER.

Condolence

FAIRMOUNT GRANGE, No. 252, Dec. 5th, 1922.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Master to take from our midst our brother, Thompson Harris, who has lately passed to the other shore, therefore be it

Resolved, That we tender to the family of our brother our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement. May they find consolation and learn to say, "Thy will be done."

Resolved, That these resolutions be placed on the minutes of this grange, a copy to be sent to the family of our brother who has gone on before, and a copy furnished the Herald and Democrat for publication.

MRS. B. M. SHANNON, H. REESE, W. W. WALTON, Committee.

NOTHING OBJECTIONABLE.—The Oregonian says: "Turner's English Girls" played a one-night engagement at the Park theater last night, to a large audience.

The gallery was a noisy one before the curtain rose, and cheered the new arrivals with all the frenzy of a political meeting.

The performance was a potpourri of vaudeville acts. There seemed to be considerable disappointment among some of the audience who had evidently expected to see a decidedly loud show, whereas there was really nothing objectionable.

FOR CHRISTMAS.—This week I will give a box of choice mixed candy free to each person buying a pound of my 50 cent tea.
